

Christ College (Autonomous), Irinjalakuda presents

Christ-Com Quiz 2026

Grand Finale · QM: Major Chandrakant Nair

(as recollected by Prayag)

Set 1

Written round: name origins

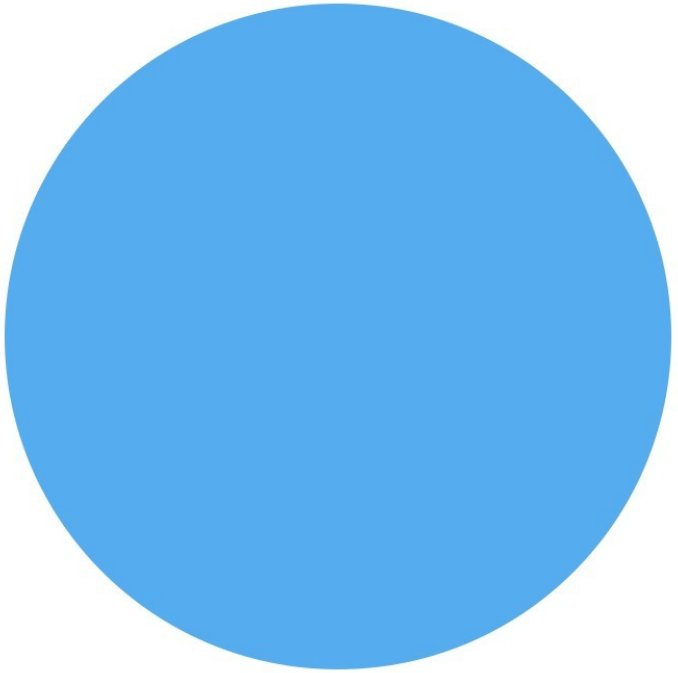

1.

- Founded in Berlin in 1923 as Ideal, this German electronics maker stamped a coloured dot on every product that passed its quality test.
- It eventually renamed itself after the practice. What is its name?

1.

BLAUPUNKT

- Blau = blue, Punkt = dot

2.

- 1980s toy company Worlds of Wonder, maker of Teddy Ruxpin and Lazer Tag, picked its name so its stock ticker would be a three-letter exclamation.

- What was it?

2.

WOW

3.

- In 1940 Tennessee bottlers Barney and Ally Hartman created a soda as a mixer for whiskey.
- They named it after Appalachian slang for homemade moonshine. Which drink?

3.

MOUNTAIN DEW

4.

- ByWater Solutions supports Koha, an open-source library system.
- Its founders named it after a village home to the Green Dragon inn, where travellers swap news.
- From which work does the name come?

4.

The LORD OF THE RINGS

- Bywater, a village in Tolkien’s Shire

Set 2

Clockwise round

5.

- In 2024 Listin Stephen’s film production house Magic Frames stepped outside cinema to back a Thrissur franchise in the new Super League Kerala.

- Name the team.

5.

THRISSUR MAGIC FC

6.

- Launched with a target of hundreds of sales, only about 250 of these double-deckers were built before production stopped.
- The first one retired was taken apart for scrap in the French Pyrenees. Which airliner?

6.

The AIRBUS A380

- 251 built; the first, Singapore Airlines' 9V-SKA, was dismantled at Tarbes

AIRBUS

7.

- In a 2003 Super Bowl ad, a FedEx courier stranded for years on a desert island still delivers the package he saved.
- Inside: a satellite phone, a GPS locator, a fishing rod, a water purifier and seeds.
- Which 2000 Tom Hanks film did the ad spoof?

7.

CAST AWAY

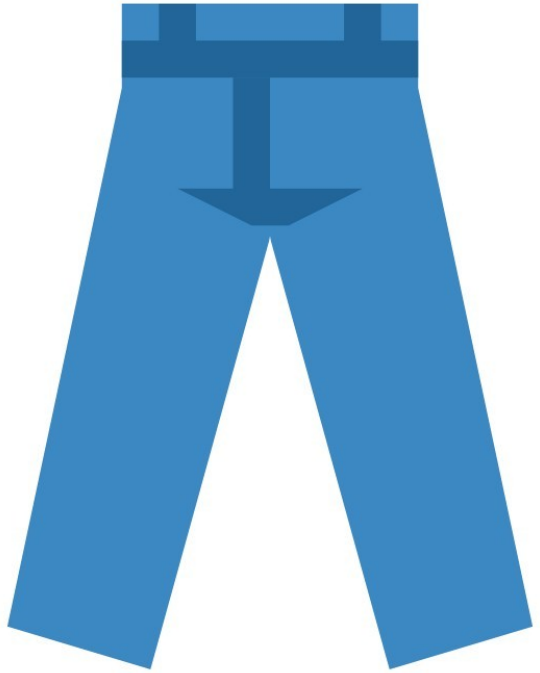

8.

- It used to be done by tumbling fabric with pumice in huge rotating drums.
- Today makers often use cellulase enzymes from fungi or chemical bleaches for the same worn look on jeans.
- What is the finish called?

8.

STONE-WASHING

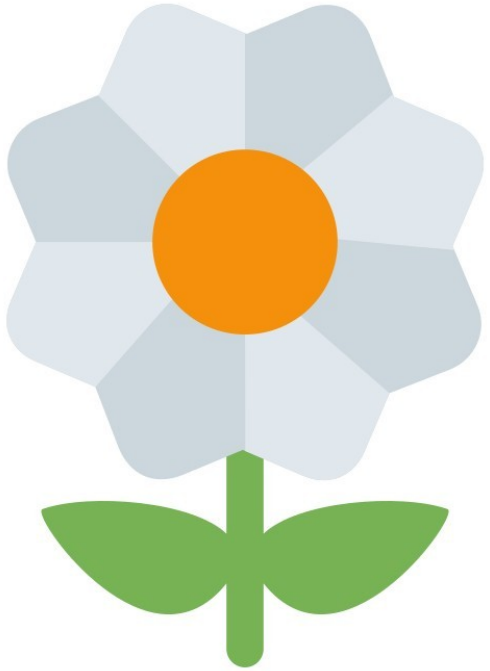

9.

- Grasse, in southern France, is the world’s perfume capital.
- A white flower picked there is the heart of a legendary fragrance said to sell one bottle every 30 seconds.
- Name the flower and the perfume.

9.

JASMINE · CHANEL No. 5

10.

- During a 2015 food-safety row over lead and MSG, tens of thousands of tonnes of a recalled product were trucked to cement kilns and burnt as fuel.

- What product?

10.

MAGGI noodles

- Nestlé India’s recall; ACC cement kilns burnt the stock

11.

- Founded in Saxony in 2009 by Red Bull, this club rose to the Bundesliga.
- German rules ban sponsor names in club titles, so the owners found a German word meaning “lawn ball sports” to keep their initials.
- What does RB stand for?

11.

RASENBALLSPORT

- RB Leipzig

12.

- The 87-storey Lakhta Center in St Petersburg is the world’s northernmost skyscraper.
- Its twisting spire mimics the logo of its state-owned owner.
- Name the company, and what the tower represents.

GAZPROM · a gas FLAME

13.

- As early as the 1930s, some golf balls had a core filled with a thick kitchen staple that never spoils.

- What was it?

13.

HONEY

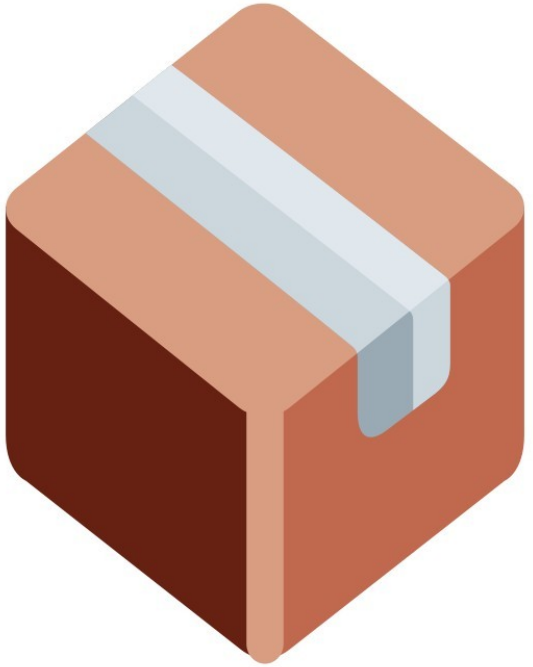

14.

- From near Thalassery, where Hermann Gundert lived and started the Rajyasamacharam, comes a rosewood jewellery box with brass fittings.

- Its lid is shaped like a Kerala temple roof. What is it called?

14.

NETTUR PETTI

Set 3

Written round: ads and campaigns

15.

- In 2016 KFC Hong Kong launched an edible beauty product in Original Recipe and Hot & Spicy flavours, taking its slogan literally.

- What was it?

15.

Edible NAIL POLISH

- “Finger lickin’ good”

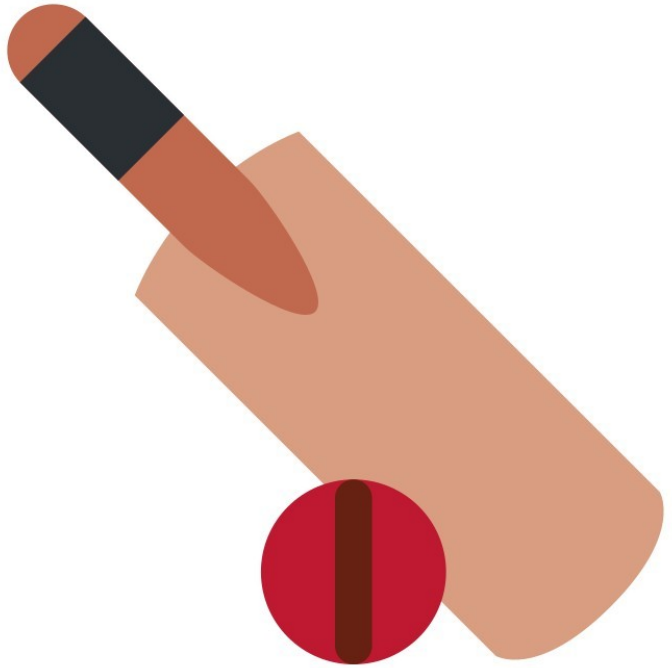

16.

- Marmite and Vegemite run cheeky full-page ad wars every time England and Australia meet in a famous sporting contest.

- Which contest?

16.

The ASHES

17.

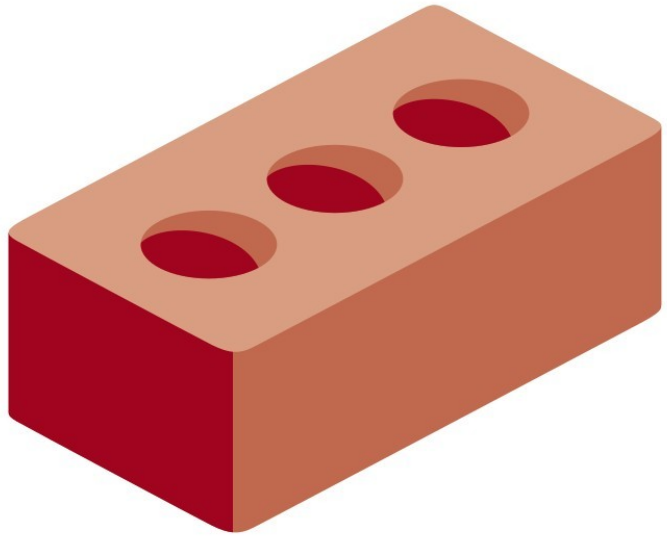

- A 2015 mockumentary-style Ambuja Cement ad showed a famous Indian sports star accidentally breaking walls, doors and floors at home because of his size.

- Who?

17.

The GREAT KHALI

- Dalip Singh Rana

18.

- For Independence Day 2017, Ancestry.com had a diverse group of modern Americans recite “We hold these truths to be self-evident…”

- The ad recreated John Trumbull’s famous painting. What event does it show?

18.

The DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Set 4

Anti-clockwise round

19.

- Founded in 1890 by Mahadu Havaji Bachche, this Mumbai lunch network delivers about 200,000 meals a day with near-zero errors.
- In the 1970s, underworld figure Haji Mastan tried to use it for an illegal trade, but the union refused.
- Name the network and the trade.

19.

Mumbai DABBAWALAS · GOLD SMUGGLING

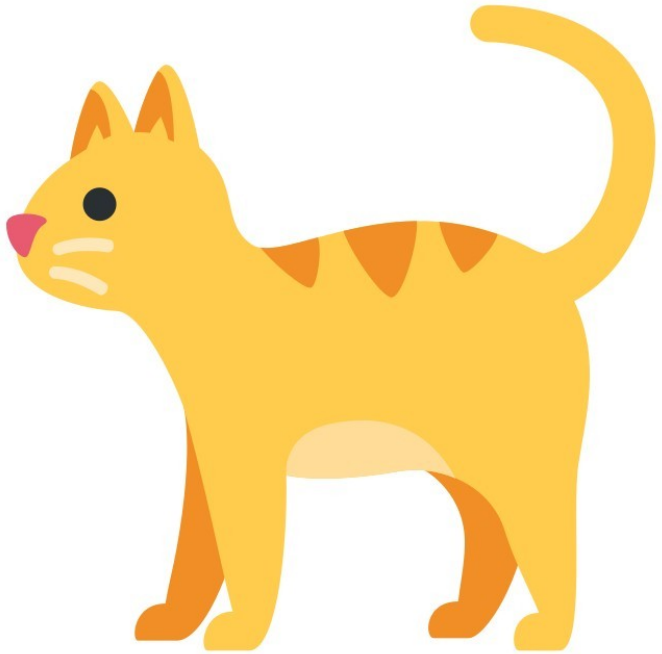

20.

- Mars fought to trademark a shade of purple for one of its pet foods; a Danish shipping giant’s light blue is its own trademark.

- Name the cat food and the shipping company.

20.

WHISKAS · MAERSK

21.

- An Amazon building in Seattle is named after computer scientist John Wainwright.
- On 3 April 1995 he paid $27.95 for Douglas Hofstadter’s Fluid Concepts and Creative Analogies.
- Why is he famous?

21.

Amazon’s FIRST CUSTOMER

- The first order from someone outside the company

22.

- A festive tradition, from end-of-year tips for workers, gives children gold-foil sweets shaped like money.
- In 2014 a big British chocolate maker stopped making them, citing low margins.
- Name the treat and the brand.

22.

CHOCOLATE COINS · CADBURY

23.

- In the 1970s, at the original London branch near Hyde Park, Eric Clapton asked the co-founder to mark his favourite bar stool.

- He then donated a guitar to hang above it, starting a worldwide tradition. Which chain?

23.

HARD ROCK CAFE

24.

- In 2011 Virgin Atlantic gave its cabin crew bright red patent heels.
- The shoes were named after a fictional traveller whose footwear carried her home in a 1939 film. Who?

24.

DOROTHY

- Dorothy Gale’s ruby slippers in The Wizard of Oz

25.

- In 2006 Chennai retailer Sri Kumaran Stores made international news with a tweak to a six-yard garment.
- It added a discreet pouch for phones and wallets. What did they launch?

25.

A SAREE WITH POCKETS

26.

- In 1966 Boeing’s Malcolm Stamper pitched a new wide-body jet to Pan Am’s Juan Trippe.
- The meeting was held in a 20-foot-wide room, the width of the planned cabin. Which plane?

26.

The BOEING 747

- The Jumbo Jet

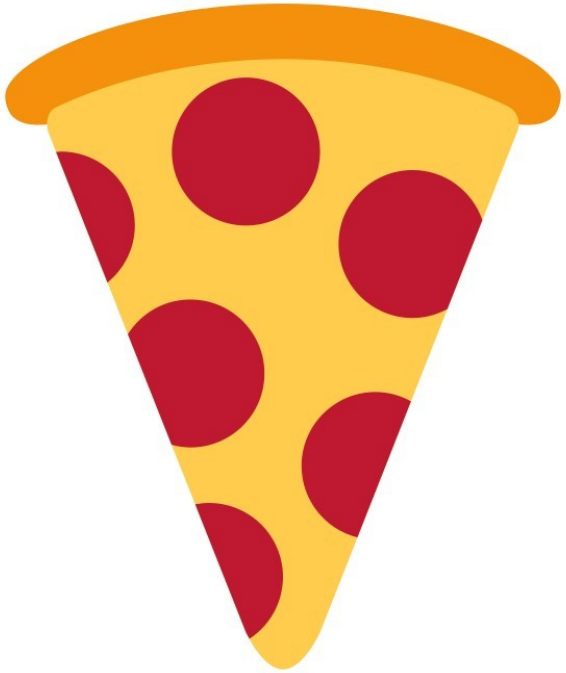

27.

- In 2015 a fast-food giant sent 100 customised Chevrolet Sparks, the DXP, onto US streets.
- A rear door opened onto a built-in oven that kept food at 140°F. Which chain, and what appliance?

27.

DOMINO’S · a WARMING OVEN

28.

- Founded in Kerala in 1951 by former army man Moorkoth Vengakandi Shankaran, born under a June star sign, this travelling show is a legend.
- Many of its first animals came from rulers who lost their private menageries after independence.
- Name the show and those rulers.

GEMINI CIRCUS · the MAHARAJAS

- Princely-state rulers disbanding royal menageries

