

quiz
#1

two years too long

A MELAS QUIZ
PRELIMS

Factaco X Waves'22, BITS Goa

PRELIMS

quiz
#1

Factaco X Quiz Club, BITS, Goa

"Reflect" is a 6 minute short film from Disney, released as a part of its Short Circuit Experimental Films compilation. It follows Bianca, a young ballet dancer 'who battles her own reflection, overcoming doubt and fear by channeling her inner strength, grace and power'.

The special thing about this film was that it involves a certain 1st representation in Disney films. Bianca's ballet practice is not going well due to her self-doubt and being conscious about the trait she is representing in Disney for the 1st time. Many people praised the film for impacting them and relieving them that this trait of theirs doesn't stop them from achieving their dreams. In recent years a lot of conversation has been going on the internet about how it's fine being like this and no one should be ashamed of it.

What first for Disney is this?

#1

In 2020, Mark Riedl– a researcher at Georgia Tech, created a neural network-based lyric generational system that spawned lyrics to “match the rhyme and syllables schemes of existing songs,” much like a famous artist.

Thus, the system was named after the said artist, a clever wordplay created by simply replacing a single letter from his name.

The algorithm put out a song called “The Rye or the Kaiser.” It was a parody of a popular song from the 1980s that talked about a “never say die” attitude.

ID the name of the algorithm and the original song being parodied.

#2

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

According to a Financial Times article, a renowned physician in Mumbai, compared the graphic images of the sufferings in the COVID-19 wards in India with a literary work. He found it to be an apt metaphor and his column meticulously analysed the failures of the Narendra Modi government comparing everything step-by-step talking about all the things one experiences in such a condition.

He began with loss of taste and smell followed by a long wait till you cannot wait anymore, gasping for air, lack of money to buy oxygen cylinders, death, family not being able to procure death certificate, lack of helpers during cremation, no support for completing the crematorium works and absence of priests to say the final rites.

Identify this literary work and the 'cycle' associated with it.

#3

Pictured here is the work of a Singapore-based artist. Her work is known for the comic book aesthetic and are inspired from an American artist from the last century. The subjects of her portraits are celebrities, artists, musicians and celebrated heroes, and her work displays the self-awareness of the trials and fortunes associated with such inflated status of her subject.

It is also a nod to a 1950s art movement that tried to challenge traditional art by making fun of and making references to popular and mass culture. The name of the movement comes from this idea.

ID the canvas that Bradley used and the 1950s art movement.

#4

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

When this sport began to be televised, it was thought necessary to have a colour code for these equipments because there is just one main piece of equipment in this sport (or two, if you want to be overly precise).

The Olympic ones are made with a stainless steel insert core with hard, dense rubber surrounding it they always measure 45cm in diameter and are dyed according to a parameter specific to them. The following colour scheme was chosen, and it has been used ever since:

Red: 25/55, Blue: 20/44, Yellow: 15/33, Green: 10/22, White: 5/11, Black: 2.5/5.5, Silver: 1.25/2.75

The location of the viewer will largely determine which side of the "/" the viewer likes.

What colour code does this represent, and what do the two values to either side of the slash (/) stand for?

#5

Upon first listening to Dua Lipa's single love again from her Grammy winning album Future Nostalgia (2019), fans were astonished to hear an eerily familiar intro of a certain character from a famous franchise.

When further insights were released, it actually turned out to be a sample of the 1930s hit "My Woman".

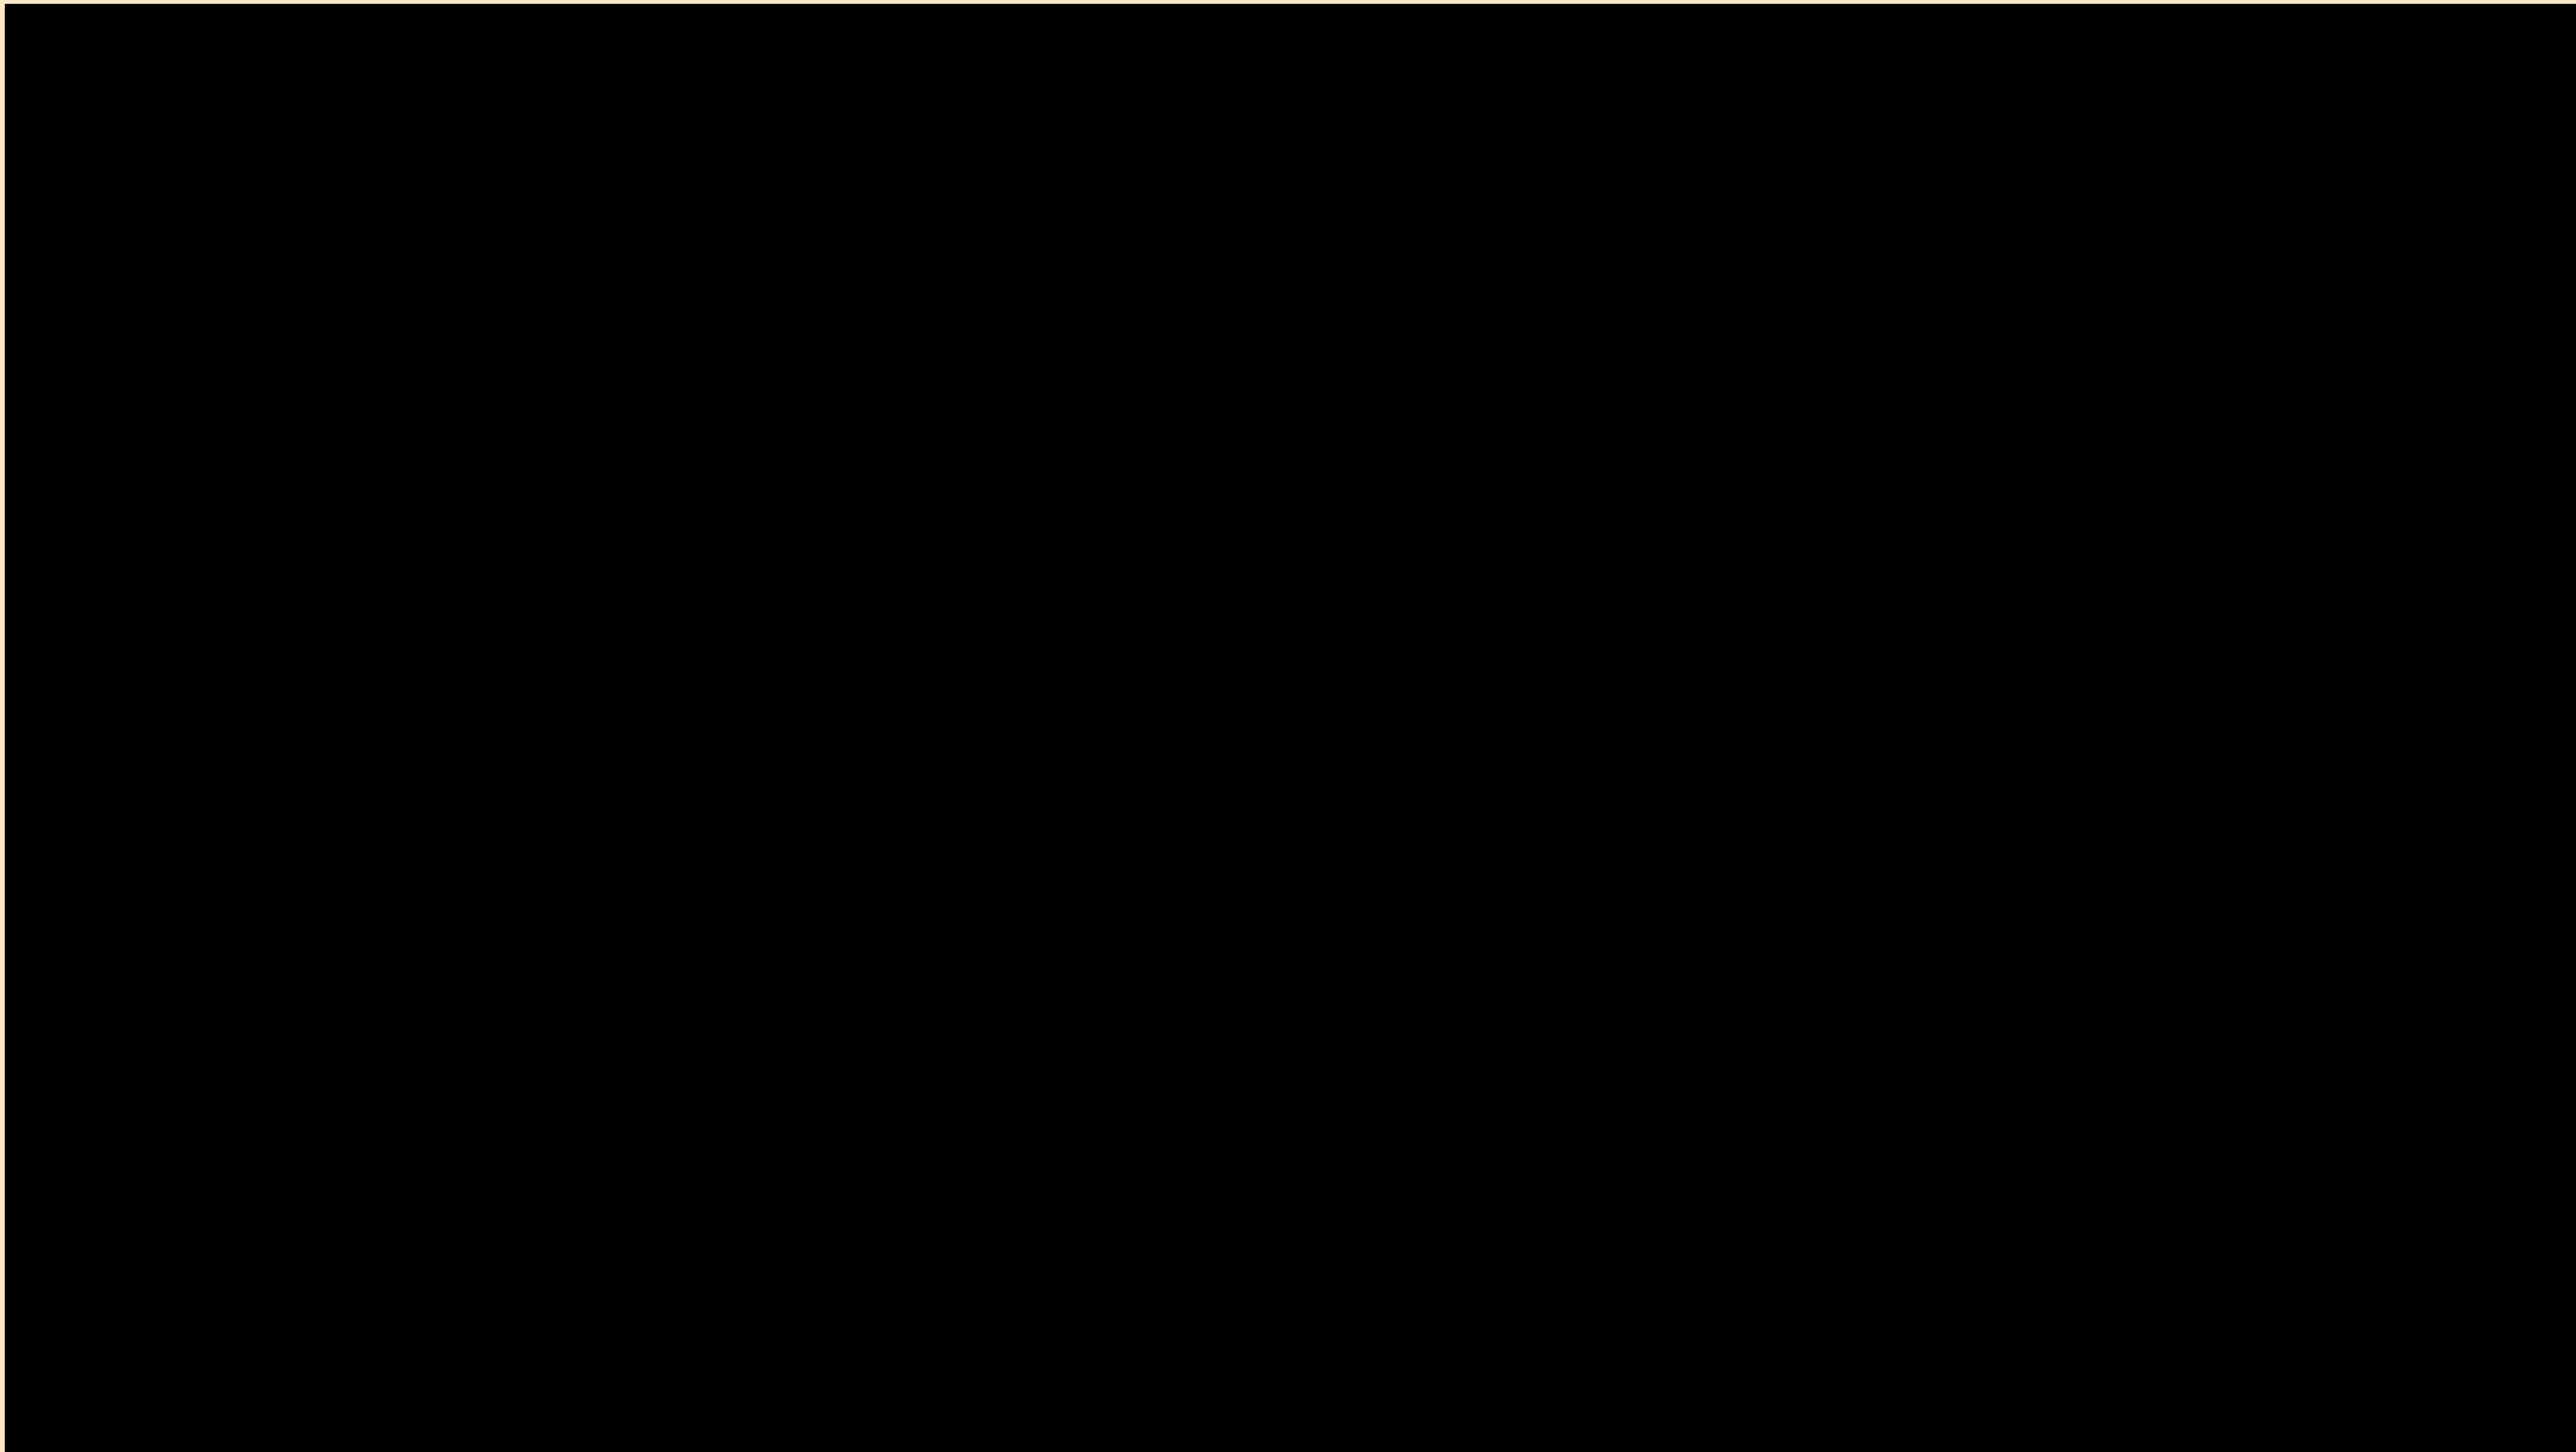

However, Lipa agreed that she had had a similar misunderstanding, and allegedly decided to just "go with it for the vibes".

ID which intro.

#6

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Is it about drugs? or Is it about outer space?

These questions have baffled fans for quite some time. However, this song which lends its name to the singer's biography is inspired by something entirely different.

CLICK
TO PLAY

The lyricist Taupin who had collaborated with the singer explained in 2016 that the song actually draws from a collection of short stories by a science fiction writer. This collection contains an eponymous story about how space related professions would become common in the future.

ID this song (5) and this American author known for his social awareness and the criticism of the hazards of technology. (5)

#7

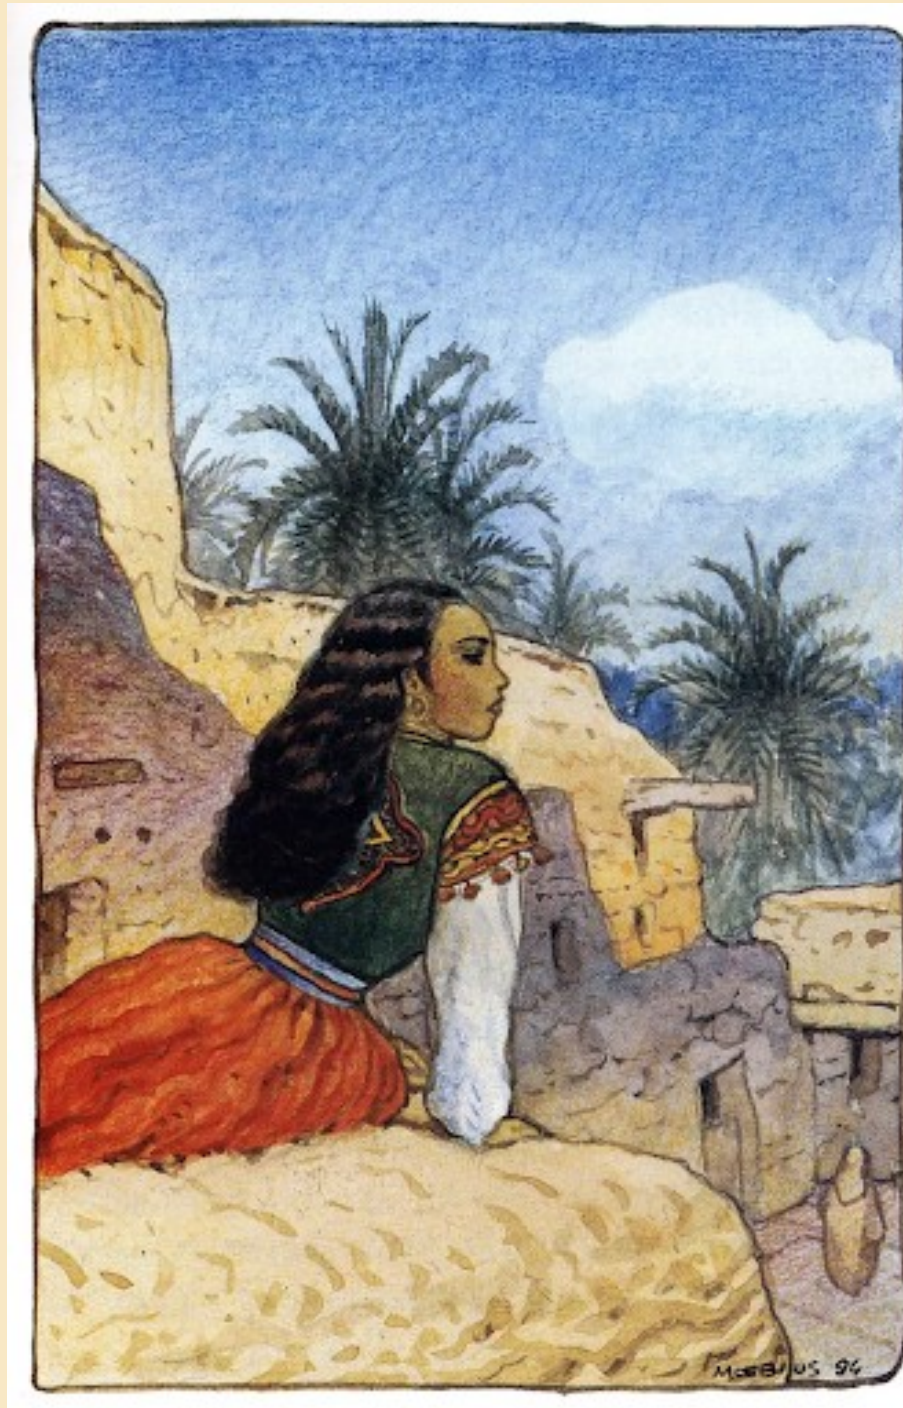

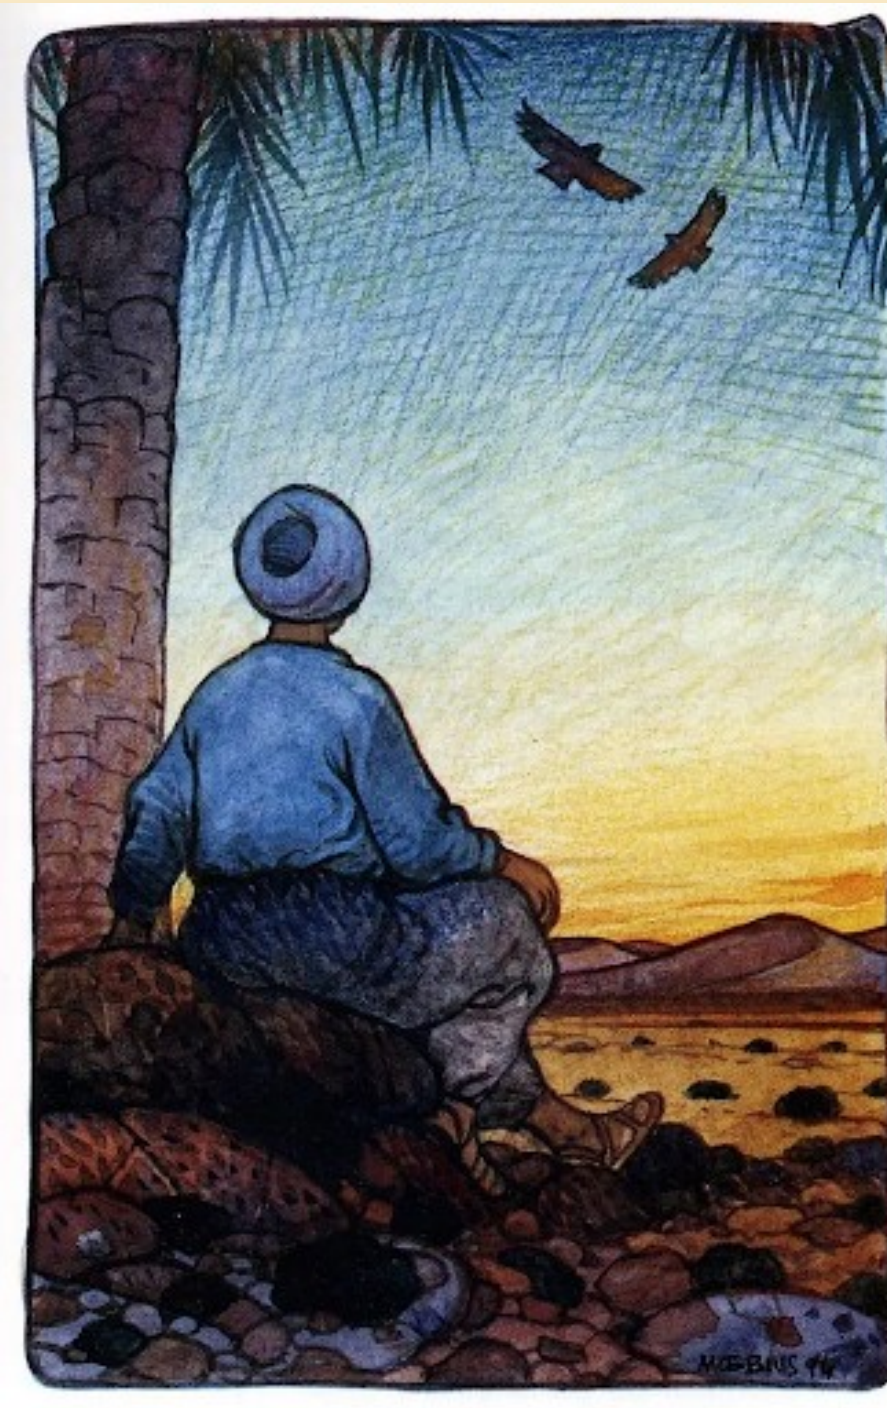

Jean Giraud is a French artist known for drawing paintings based on famous novels. More than 20 years ago, he released a set of 25 illustrations inspired by scenes from a particular novel. Giraud had a colourful and extravagant style of painting, which people thought wouldn't match with the simple and austere narrative of this novel. However Giraud managed to reflect the atmosphere of the novel without making any compromises to his own style.

ID the novel from the given three illustrations

#8

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

The following are stills from the anime Death Note. Identify the allusions to popular artworks.

(A)

#9

(B)

#9

The fascinating life of Moe Berg, a linguist, attorney, and .243 career hitter who Casey Stengel dubbed "the oddest guy to ever play the game of baseball," is depicted in the film "_____" by directors Christina Burchard and Daniel Newman.

He received his education at Princeton and Columbia, and his pals included Babe Ruth, Albert Einstein, and the Marx Brothers. However, it was his dedication to his nation, demonstrated by the career he chose right after giving up baseball, that truly set him apart.

The title of the documentary is a homage to the career he chose to pursue for his country as well as the sport he played and can be achieved by swapping out two letters in a 2012 film that was a part of a well-known series.

ID the same

#10

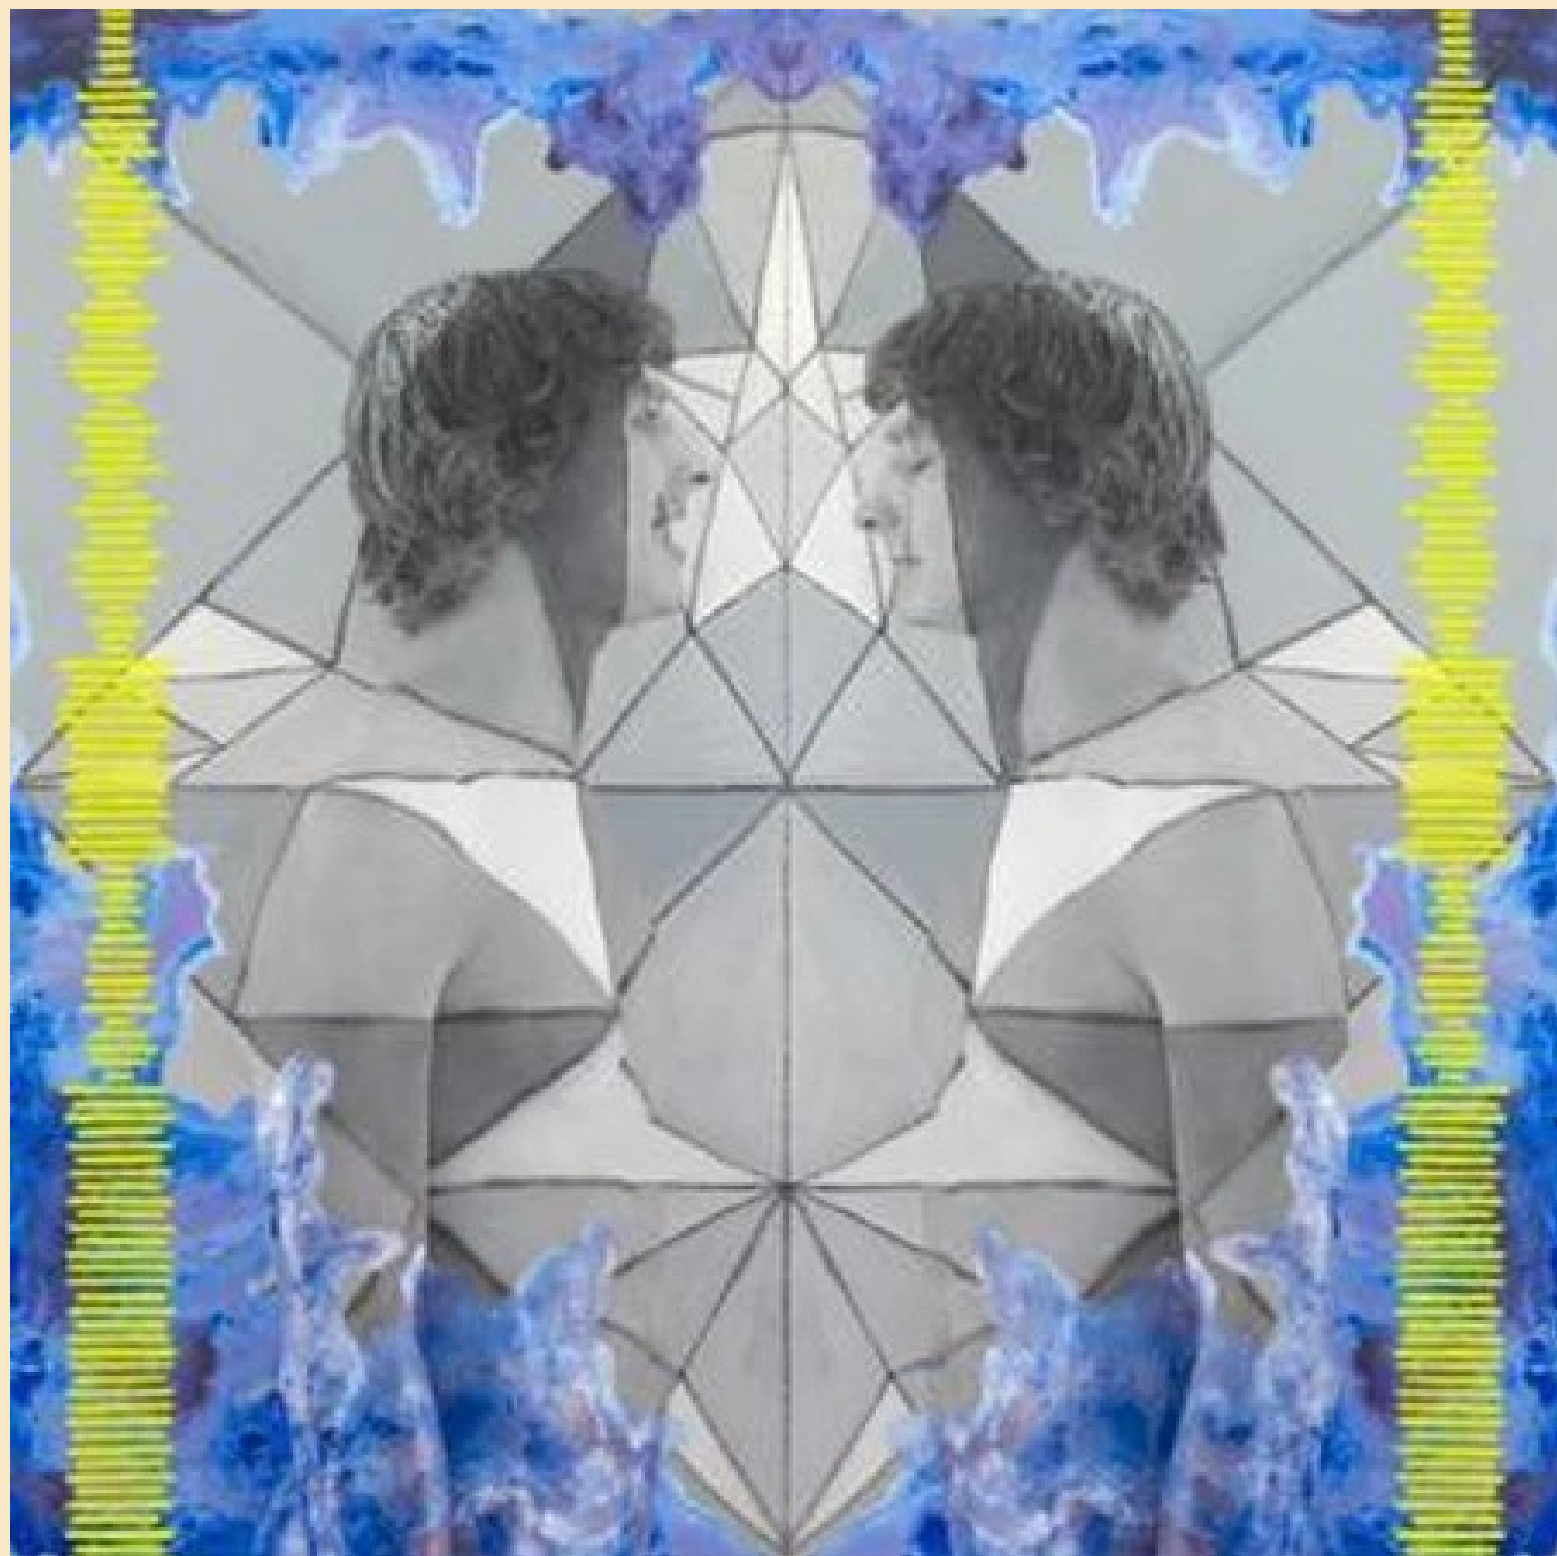

Emma Hack is an Australian artist who specializes in face and body painting for over 25 years. She is known for creating incredibly detailed art pieces, which effortlessly merge the contours of the human body with nature-inspired painted designs.

Following are two of her artworks, covering both the male and female anatomies. Where, about a decade ago, would've we witnessed her art?

#11

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

During Rajiv Gandhi's push for tech transfers from the US in the 1980s, one of his pet projects was the push to obtain the Cray XMP-24 supercomputer. The Americans however were worried about military applications and offered a solution where they would provide the lower powered Cray XMP-14 that would be sufficient to meet Indian requirements but preclude military stuff.

N.D. Tiwari, the then Minister of External Affairs characterised this episode as being typical of the India-US relations "US going in with _____ / _____ and eventually met with _____ / _____"

FITB with two 19th century works from an English author.

#12

Exo, a South Korean-Chinese pop group, is led vocally by Kim Jun-myeon, also known as Suho. His debut solo album, titled _____, was released on March 30, 2020. The songs on the CD are incredibly intimate to the artist and are chock-full of feelings and introspection.

Suho claims that he had a significant role in the entire album's creative process, particularly its aesthetics. When discussing the motivation for this album, he adds, "I saw it for the first time in Switzerland and fell in love with it, so I went to Paris and followed his footsteps to _____ which is where he resided last....It's an album where I drew myself."

Who was the inspiration behind Suho's album?

#13

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

In late 2017 and early 2018, after a string of incidents of gun violence and other violent attacks in the UK and US, citizens decided to protest the existing laws, and lack of accountability surrounding such incidents.

They did this in a rather unique form of public display, taking inspiration from a film release of that time that dealt with similar issues.

How did they protest? What film?

#14

Pictured here is a car from Ford, which was primarily sold in the UK between 1960–80.

The bestselling ones today are extremely prone to rust and corrosion due to poor rustproofing. This car is mentioned in pop culture, where you can find it in a song's chorus being used in a sarcastic way. The lyricist compares himself to a car that can't keep its shape and look, but he immediately mentions saying that he will be able to give a love that will never fade. Never-ending and unwavering.

ID the song that has been brought back in pop thanks to the reel culture

#15

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Ervin _____ was a basketball player whose name happened to be very similar to the name of another much more famous NBA superstar.

Describing him, Tim Floyd, his coach at New Orleans, said: "When he showed up, he didn't know what a chest pass or a pivot foot was. He was brutally bad. His namesake is X, so in our coaching meetings, we called him Y."

Give X, a nickname given to the more famous NBA player and Y, a rhyming yet contradictory nickname given to Ervin.

#16

The organisers of the Hockey India League thought the audience could lose interest as a result of the increasing number of low-scoring games. They devised a novel strategy in 2016 to address this problem. Even though there are only 5 goal scorers in the game, the scorecard below shows the plan's impact, showing a total of 9 goals scored (none of the players had multiple goals).

What straightforward alteration did HIL make? (No part points for funda, precise rule required.)

PS: Cristiano Ronaldo haters would be ecstatic if a such regulation were adopted in football.

#17

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

30 JAN

HALF TIME

5 - 4

RANCHI RAYS JAYPEE PUNJAB WARRIORS

KOTHAJIT SINGH (18' ☐)
DANIEL BEALE (28' ☐)
SANDEEP SINGH (43' ☐)

ARMAAN QURESHI (7' ☐)
SATBIR SINGH (31' ☐)

2016

This music video by the Korean band VIXX is inspired by a nineteenth century piece of literature. The duality in this video is evident as members struggle to switch between _____ and _____ while trying to get hold of their love life. The name of the video is also based on the titular character of the book.

ID the gothic novella which has inspired the video.

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

These are paintings by Sumit Roy who is an Indian painter cum sound artist. He is currently debuting his art show Boogie Woogie in cities like Delhi and Bombay.

These paintings are stills from iconic music videos. Simply name the songs and their artists.

(A)

#19

(B)

#19

Ohel David Synagogue is a synagogue located in Pune. A building distinctly of the English Gothic-revival style, Ohel David was designed by the British colonial architect Henry Saint Clair Wilkins. It is the largest Synagogue in Asia outside Israel. Though already well known, it gained fame due to a certain 'Blockbuster' in the late 90s which earned the composer 6 channel V award nominations.

ID this certain blockbuster which also shares its name with a place in the metaverse.

#20

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

In recent times, nonfiction and documentaries have been gaining popularity, and many streaming platforms are trying to cash in on that. Following the trend, Disney+ Hotstar has announced that it will stream a documentary on the life of American rapper Machine Gun Kelly titled _____, who is noted for his compositional blending of contemporary and alternative hip hop with rock.

The name can be traced to a translation of a French song, the signature song of popular French singer Édith Piaf, written in 1945, "La vie en rose." The name means seeing life through rose-tinted glasses. It talks about living with an attitude or outlook of positivity, trying to see beauty in everyday life like you do when you first fall in love.

16-year-old Linthoi Chanambam recently created sporting history by becoming India's first ever World Champion in Judo. When interviewed, the girl said that she used to beat up boys back in her village when young, which was why her parents insisted she pursue the sport. She also wishes to win an Olympic medal for India in the future. Soon after her triumph, she became the internet's darling and many on Twitter and Instagram gave her the nickname _____.

What is the nickname partly inspired by a recent 'hyped' Marvel series?

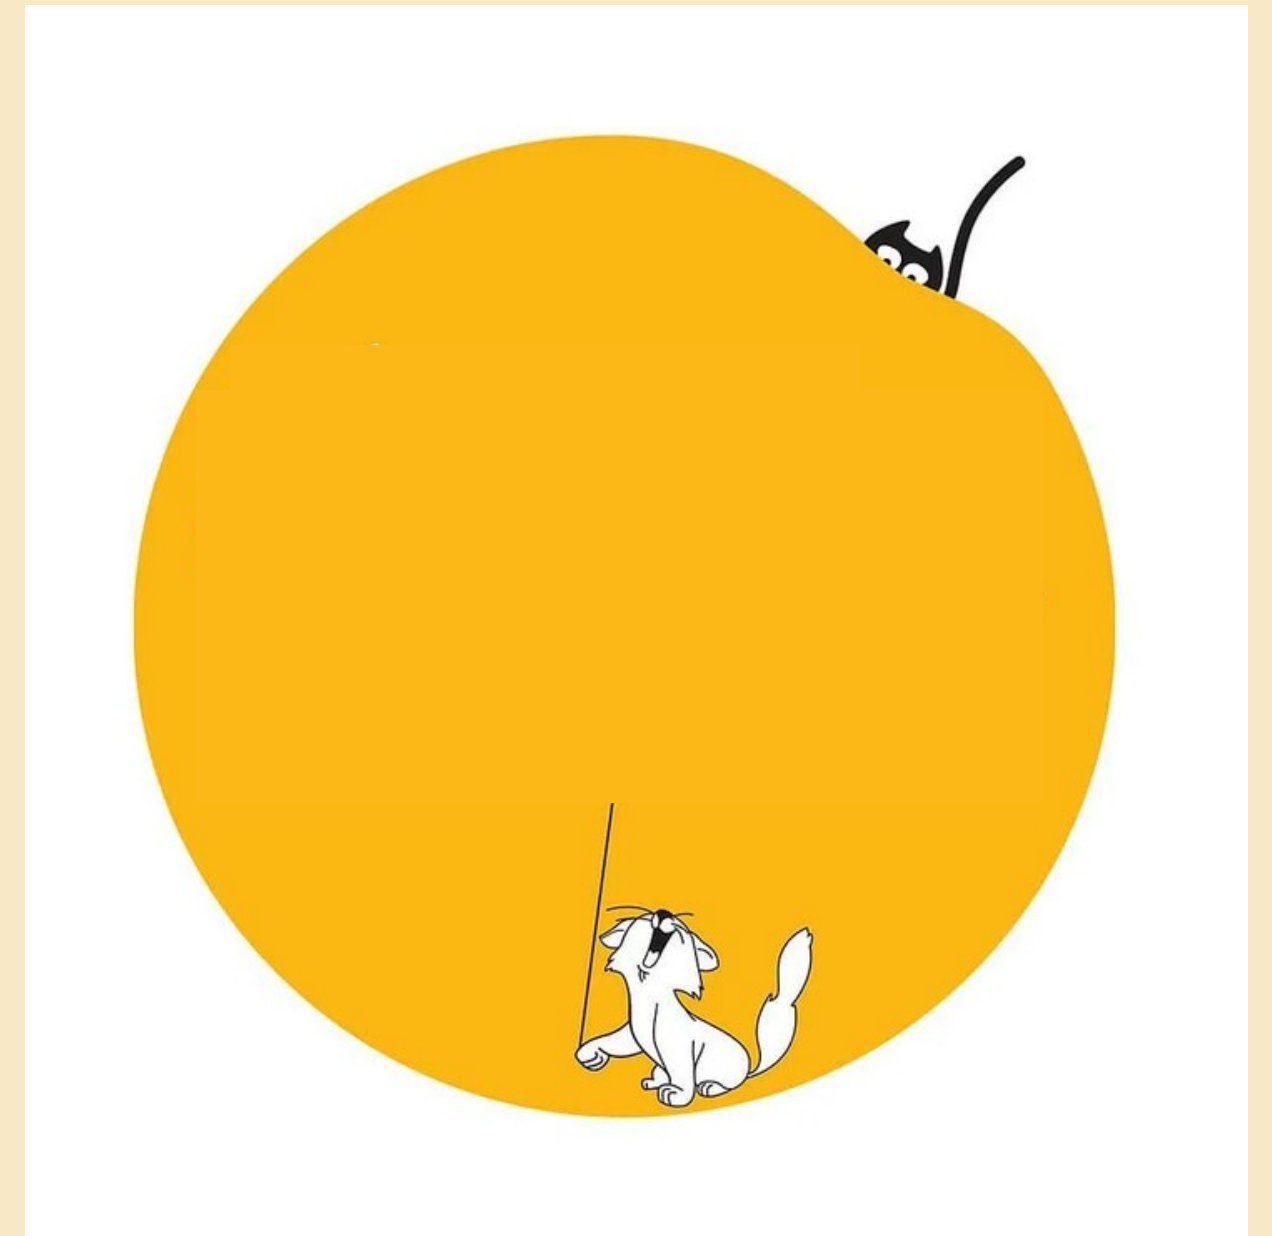

#22

In early 2021, a popular Bollywood star launched this production house. As soon as the name of the venture was announced, everyone was quick to notice how it was partly the title of an early 2000s Hollywood romance/sci-fi movie that has now achieved cult status.

The yellow and white design of the logo has a bright and happy feel to it like its title and features a couple of cats- signifying the actor's love for pets.

Give the name of the production house, and the recent movie, which released on an OTT, becoming the first movie to be produced by this production house

#23

In one of his articles David Benoit of WSJ talks about a sudden boost in the sales of a psychological thriller that came up nearly more than half a decade ago from now. In his report, he mentions that for the aforementioned literary piece there were over 300 reviews on Amazon and the book went on to top the e-book bestseller lists in the UK and Australia.

However, Benoit brings out the reason behind this sudden claim to fame in his article by talking about a blunder made by the readers while choosing the book indicating towards another work which came two years later after the former was published.

What reason/blunder was thus cited by Benoit behind the sudden rise in sales of this 2013 work?

#24

The Boston Red Sox's heroic comeback against the New York Yankees to win the American League Championship Series in 2004 and advance to the World Series will live in infamy. They would win the World Series, breaking an 86-year title drought.

Red Sox star Curt Schilling threw seven innings while allowing only one run in game six. And he was doing all of this while in excruciating agony from a prior injury. Blood loss had been experienced along with the agony.

But when the game came to a close, the blood loss produced one of the most recognizable images in sports history and served as a near-literal reward for his bravery and efforts on behalf of the team.

What was bleeding and give the literal analogy

#25

ANSWERS

quiz
#1

Factaco X Quiz Club, IIT Tirupati

"Reflect" is a 6 minute short film from Disney, released as a part of its Short Circuit Experimental Films compilation. It follows Bianca, a young ballet dancer 'who battles her own reflection, overcoming doubt and fear by channeling her inner strength, grace and power'.

The special thing about this film was that it involves a certain 1st representation in Disney films. Bianca's ballet practice is not going well due to her self-doubt and being conscious about the trait she is representing in Disney for the 1st time. Many people praised the film for impacting them and relieving them that this trait of theirs doesn't stop them from achieving their dreams. In recent years a lot of conversation has been going on the internet about how it's fine being like this and no one should be ashamed of it.

What first for Disney is this?

#1

Disney's first plus size female lead

In 2020, Mark Riedl– a researcher at Georgia Tech, created a neural network-based lyric generational system that spawned lyrics to “match the rhyme and syllables schemes of existing songs,” much like a famous artist.

Thus, the system was named after the said artist, a clever wordplay created by simply replacing a single letter from his name.

The algorithm put out a song called “The Rye or the Kaiser.” It was a parody of a popular song from the 1980s that talked about a “never say die” attitude.

ID the name of the algorithm and the original song being parodied.

#2

Eye of the tiger, Weird A.I. Yankovic

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

According to a Financial Times article, a renowned physician in Mumbai, compared the graphic images of the sufferings in the COVID-19 wards in India with a literary work. He found it to be an apt metaphor and his column meticulously analysed the failures of the Narendra Modi government comparing everything step-by-step talking about all the things one experiences in such a condition.

He began with loss of taste and smell followed by a long wait till you cannot wait anymore, gasping for air, lack of money to buy oxygen cylinders, death, family not being able to procure death certificate, lack of helpers during cremation, no support for completing the crematorium works and absence of priests to say the final rites.

Identify this literary work and the 'cycle' associated with it.

#3

Dante's Inferno, Nine Circles of Hell

Pictured here is the work of a Singapore-based artist. Her work is known for the comic book aesthetic and are inspired from an American artist from the last century. The subjects of her portraits are celebrities, artists, musicians and celebrated heroes, and her work displays the self-awareness of the trials and fortunes associated with such inflated status of her subject.

It is also a nod to a 1950s art movement that tried to challenge traditional art by making fun of and making references to popular and mass culture. The name of the movement comes from this idea.

ID the canvas that Bradley used and the 1950s art movement.

#4

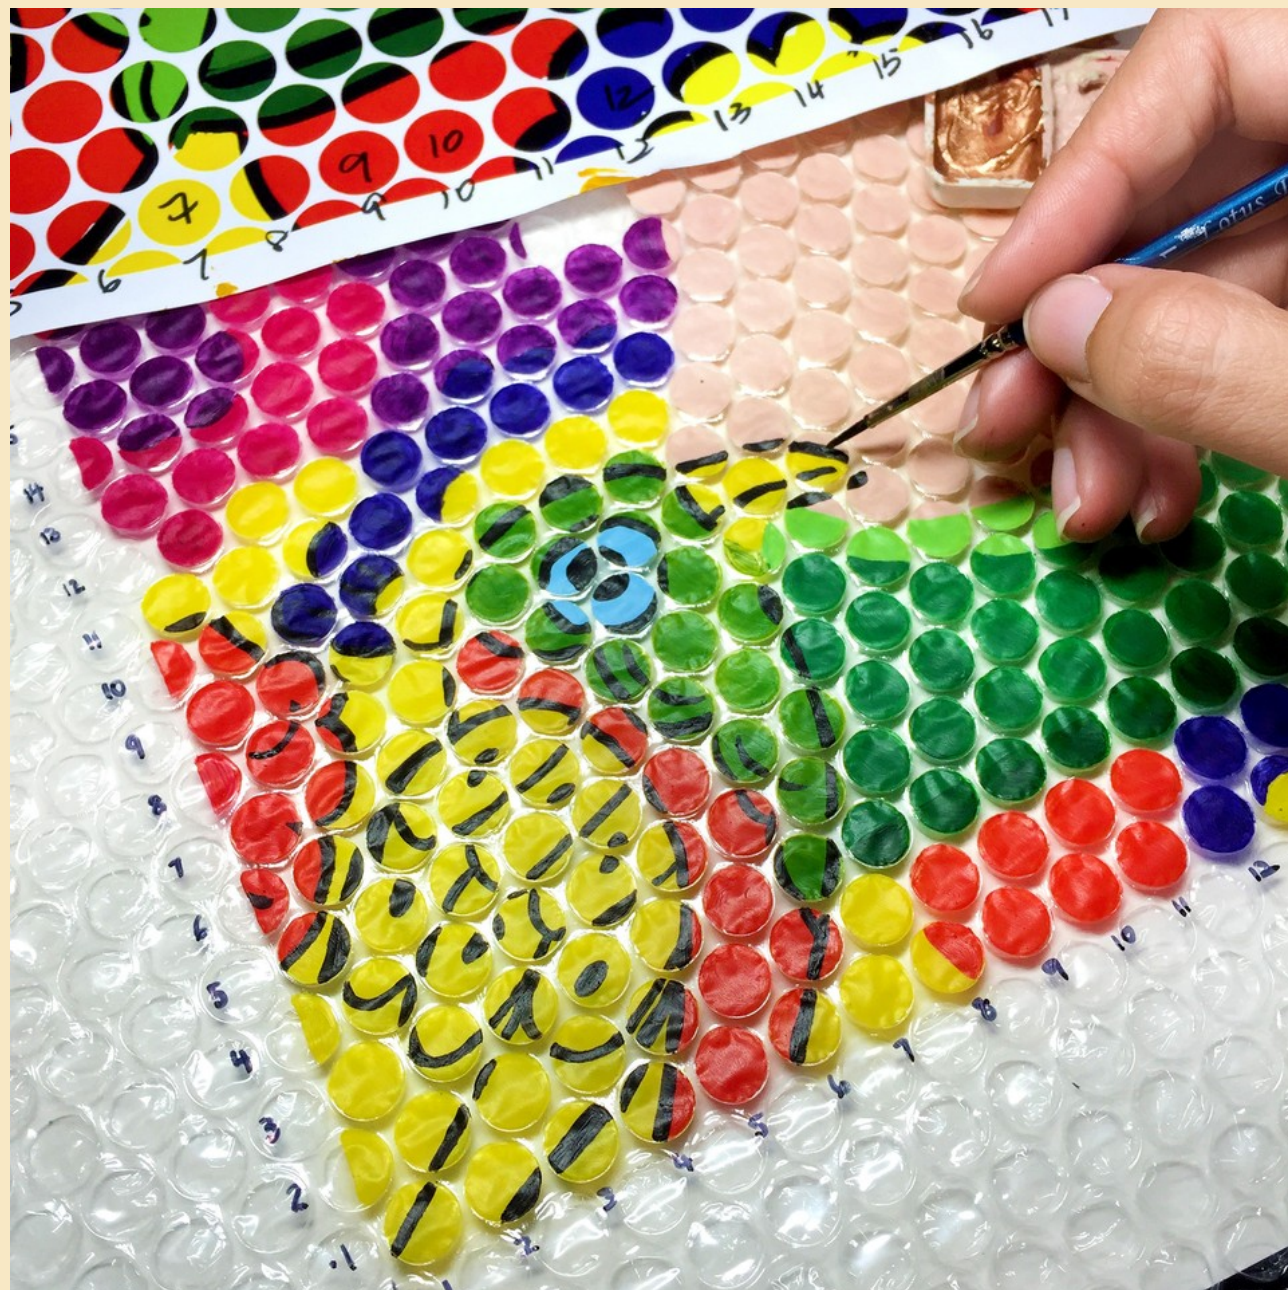

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Bubble Wrap, Pop Art

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

When this sport began to be televised, it was thought necessary to have a colour code for these equipments because there is just one main piece of equipment in this sport (or two, if you want to be overly precise).

The Olympic ones are made with a stainless steel insert core with hard, dense rubber surrounding it they always measure 45cm in diameter and are dyed according to a parameter specific to them. The following colour scheme was chosen, and it has been used ever since:

Red: 25/55, Blue: 20/44, Yellow: 15/33, Green: 10/22, White: 5/11, Black: 2.5/5.5, Silver: 1.25/2.75

The location of the viewer will largely determine which side of the "/" the viewer likes.

What colour code does this represent, and what do the two values to either side of the slash (/) stand for?

#5

The weights in Weightlifting, Kg/pound demarcation

Upon first listening to Dua Lipa's single love again from her Grammy winning album Future Nostalgia (2019), fans were astonished to hear an eerily familiar intro of a certain character from a famous franchise.

When further insights were released, it actually turned out to be a sample of the 1930s hit "My Woman".

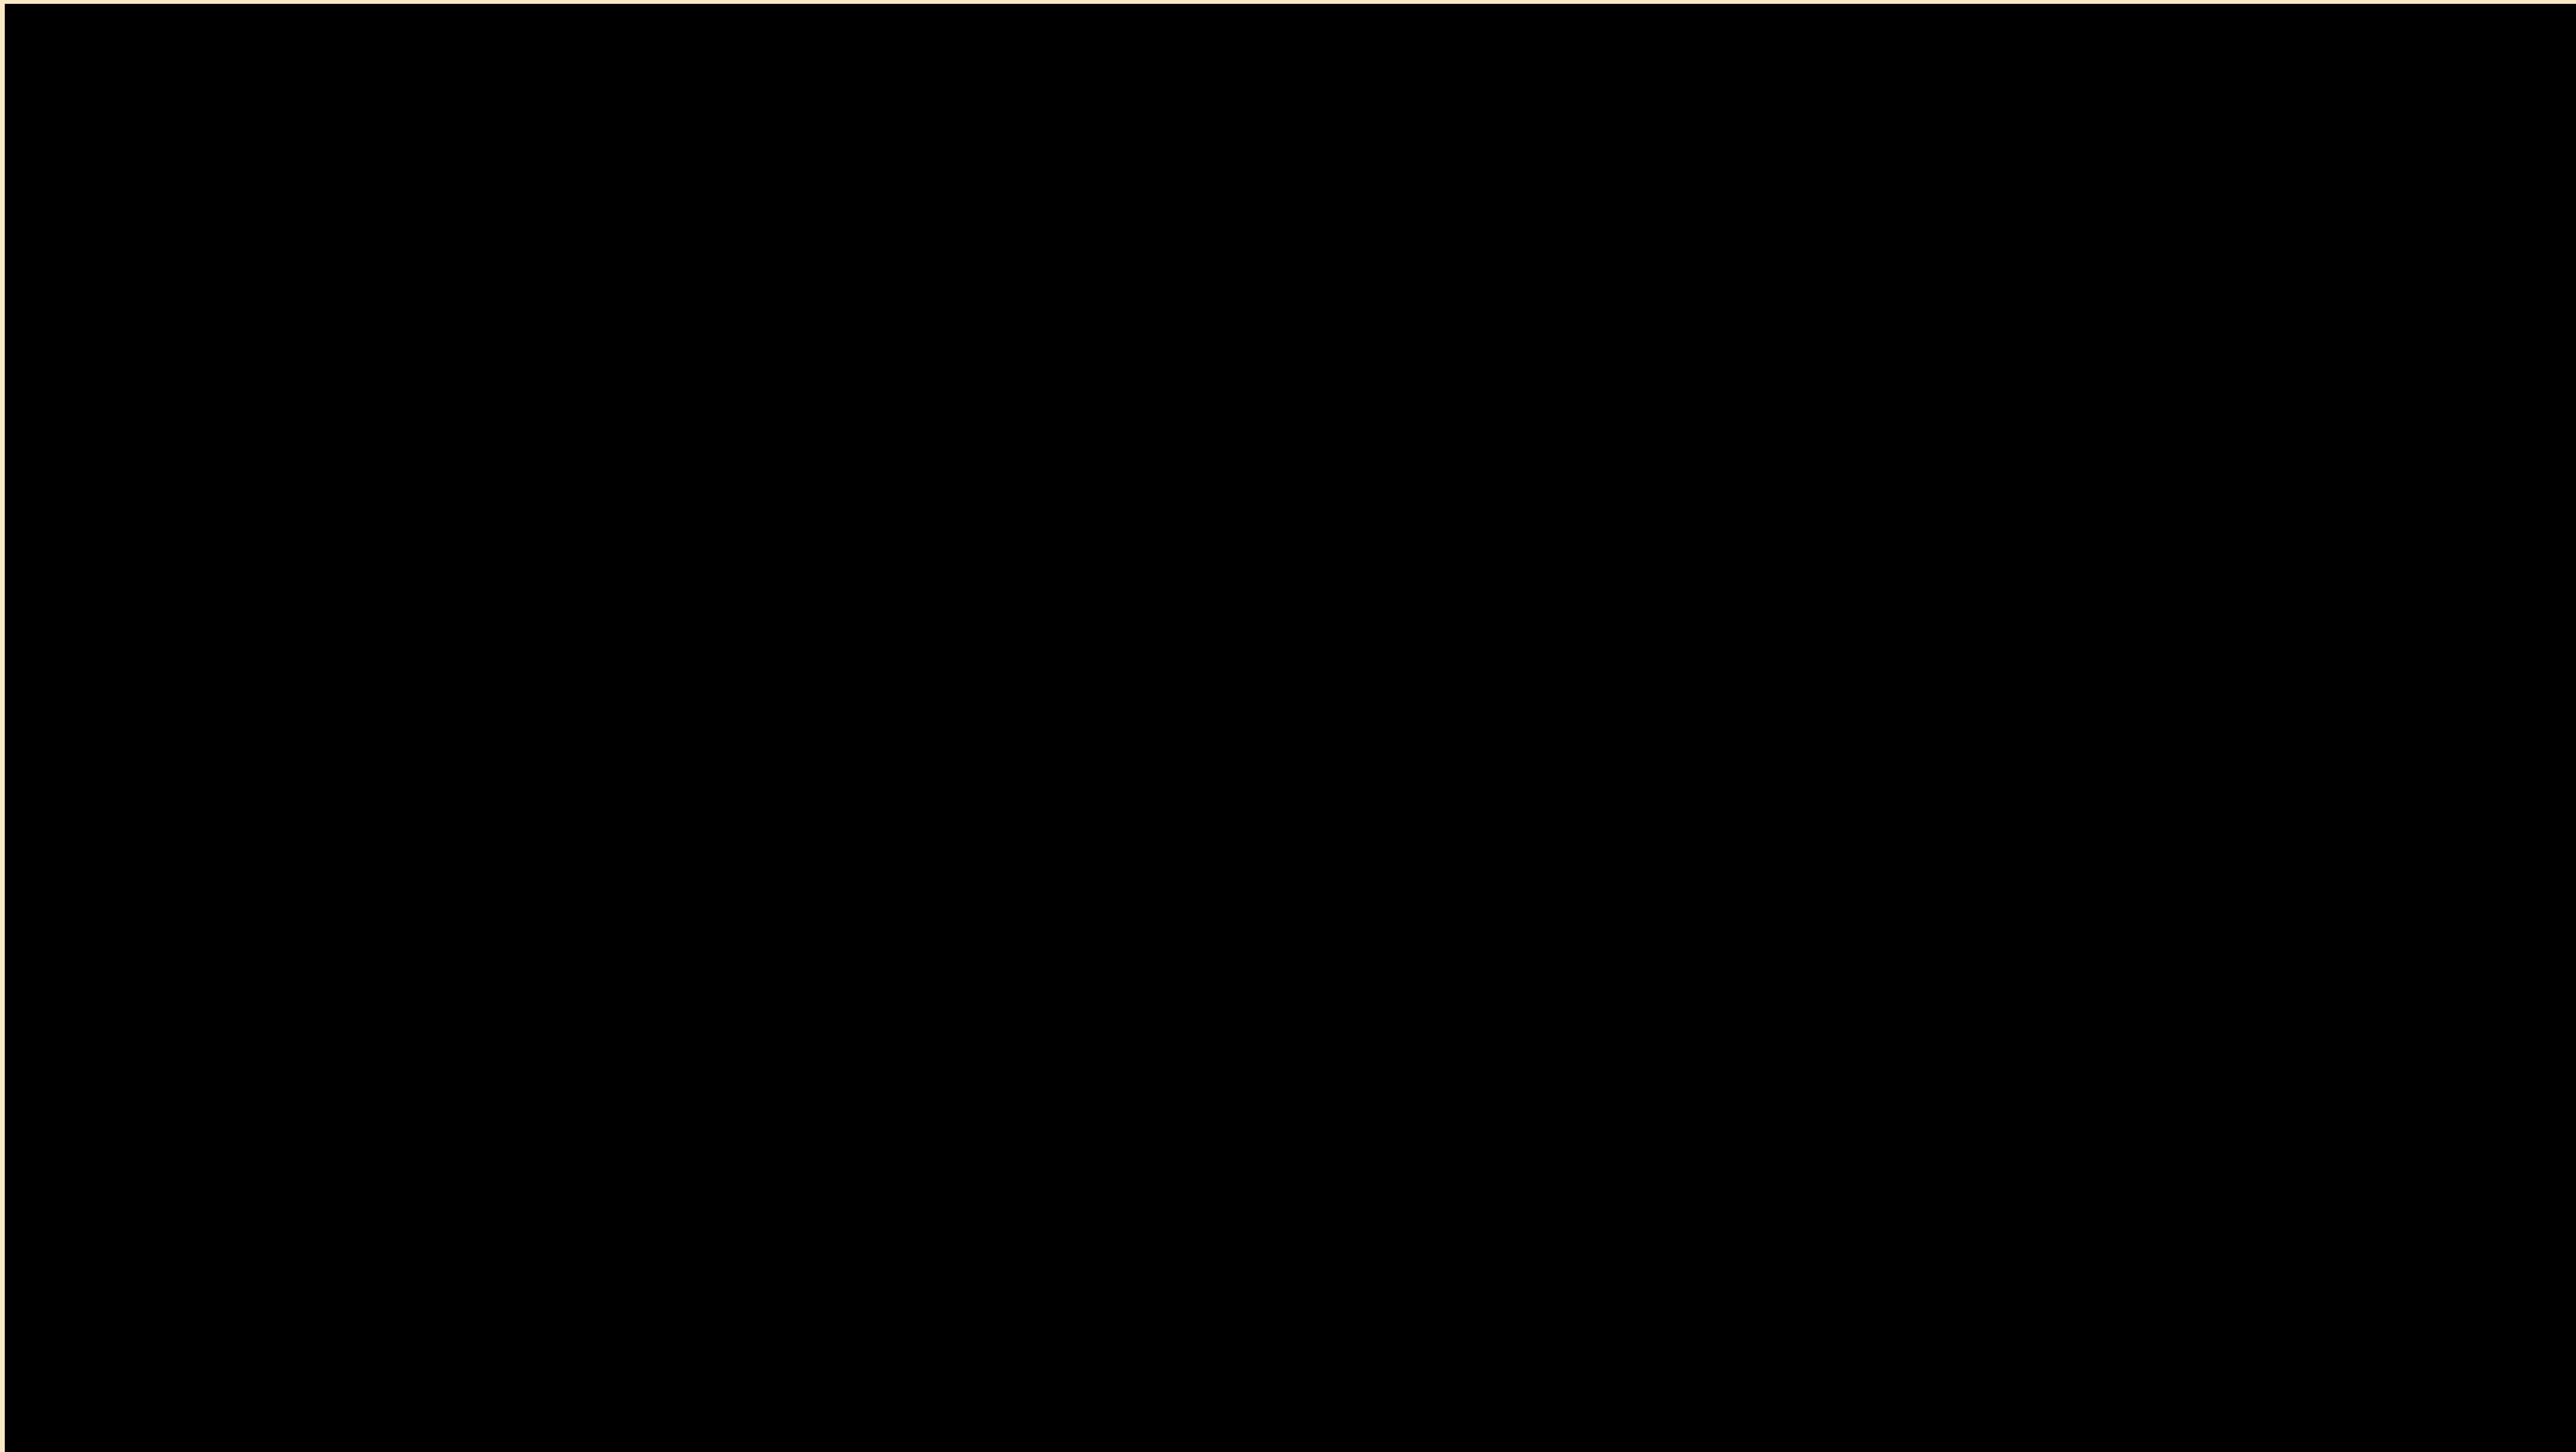

However, Lipa agreed that she had had a similar misunderstanding, and allegedly decided to just "go with it for the vibes".

ID which intro.

#6

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Star Wars Imperial March

Is it about drugs? or Is it about outer space?

These questions have baffled fans for quite some time. However, this song which lends its name to the singer's biography is inspired by something entirely different.

CLICK
TO
PLAY

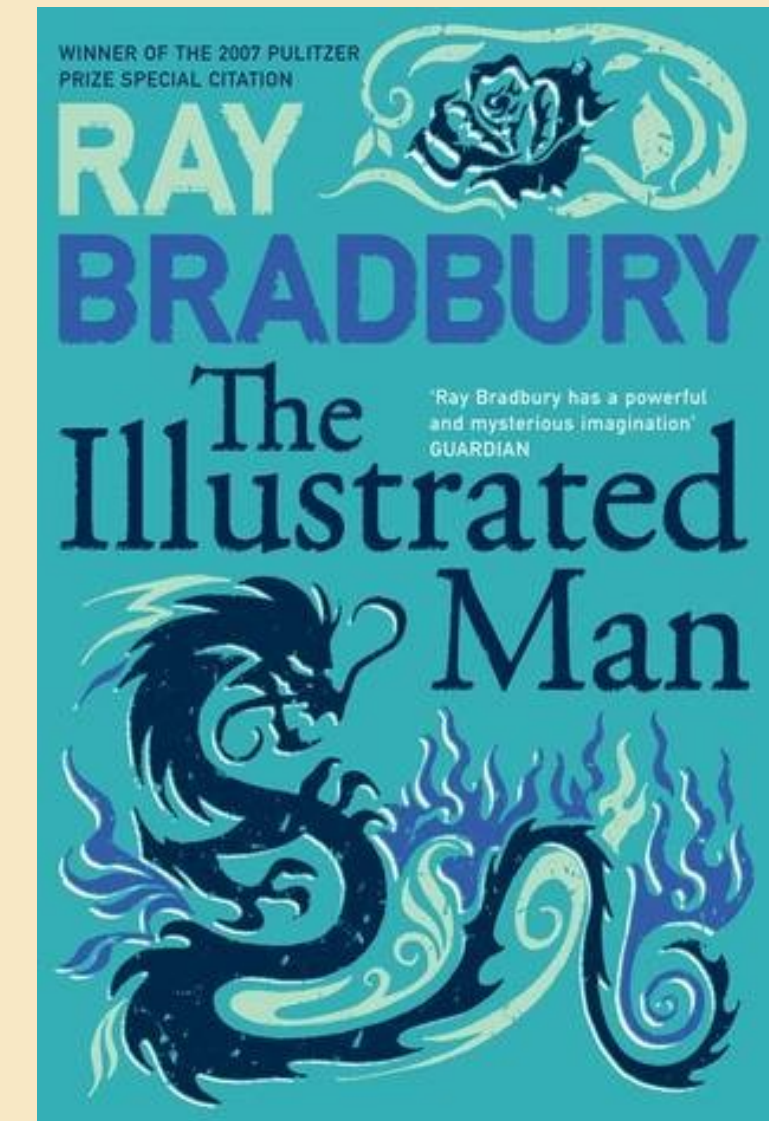

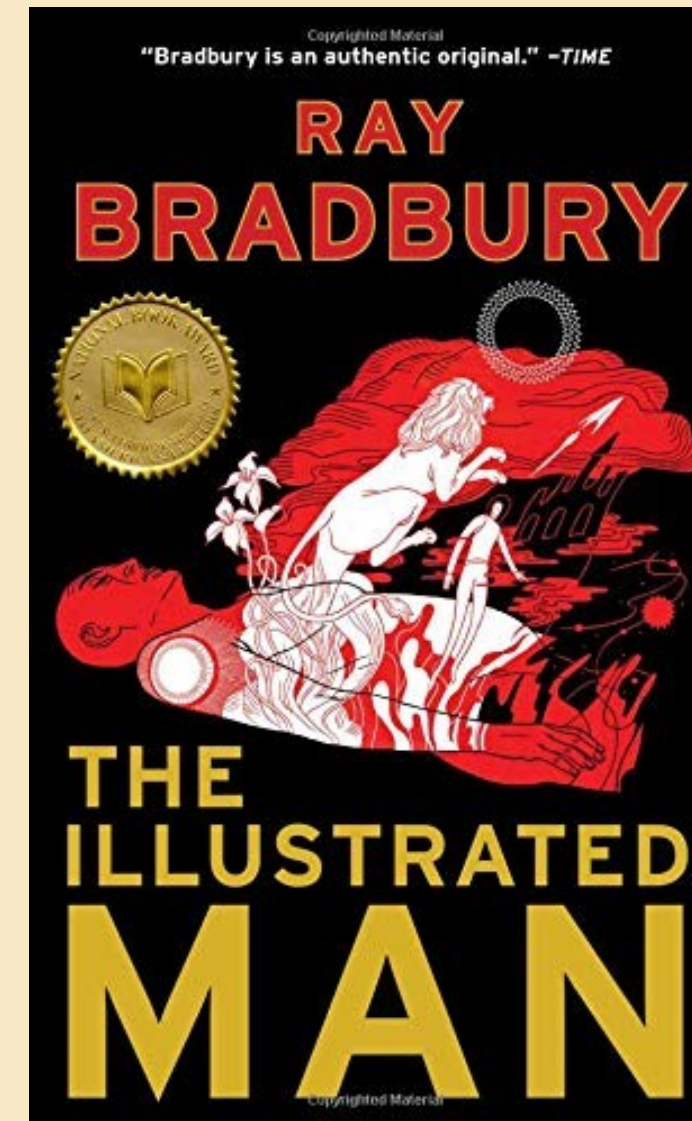

The lyricist Taupin who had collaborated with the singer explained in 2016 that the song actually draws from a collection of short stories by a science fiction writer. This collection contains an eponymous story about how space related professions would become common in the future.

ID this song (5) and this American author known for his social awareness and the criticism of the hazards of technology. (5)

#7

Rocketman by Elton John; Ray Bradbury in The Illustrated Man

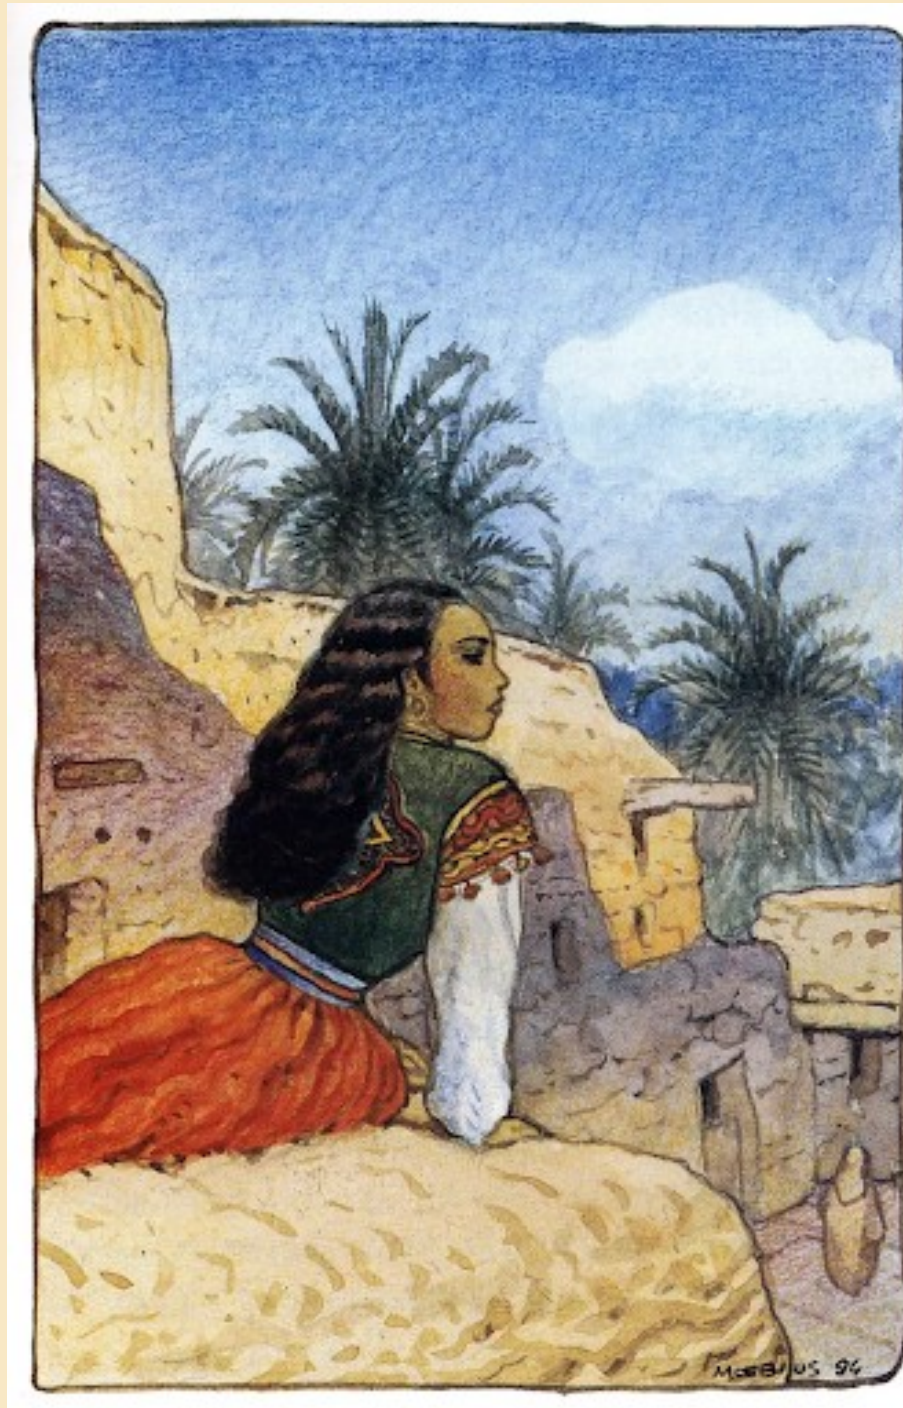

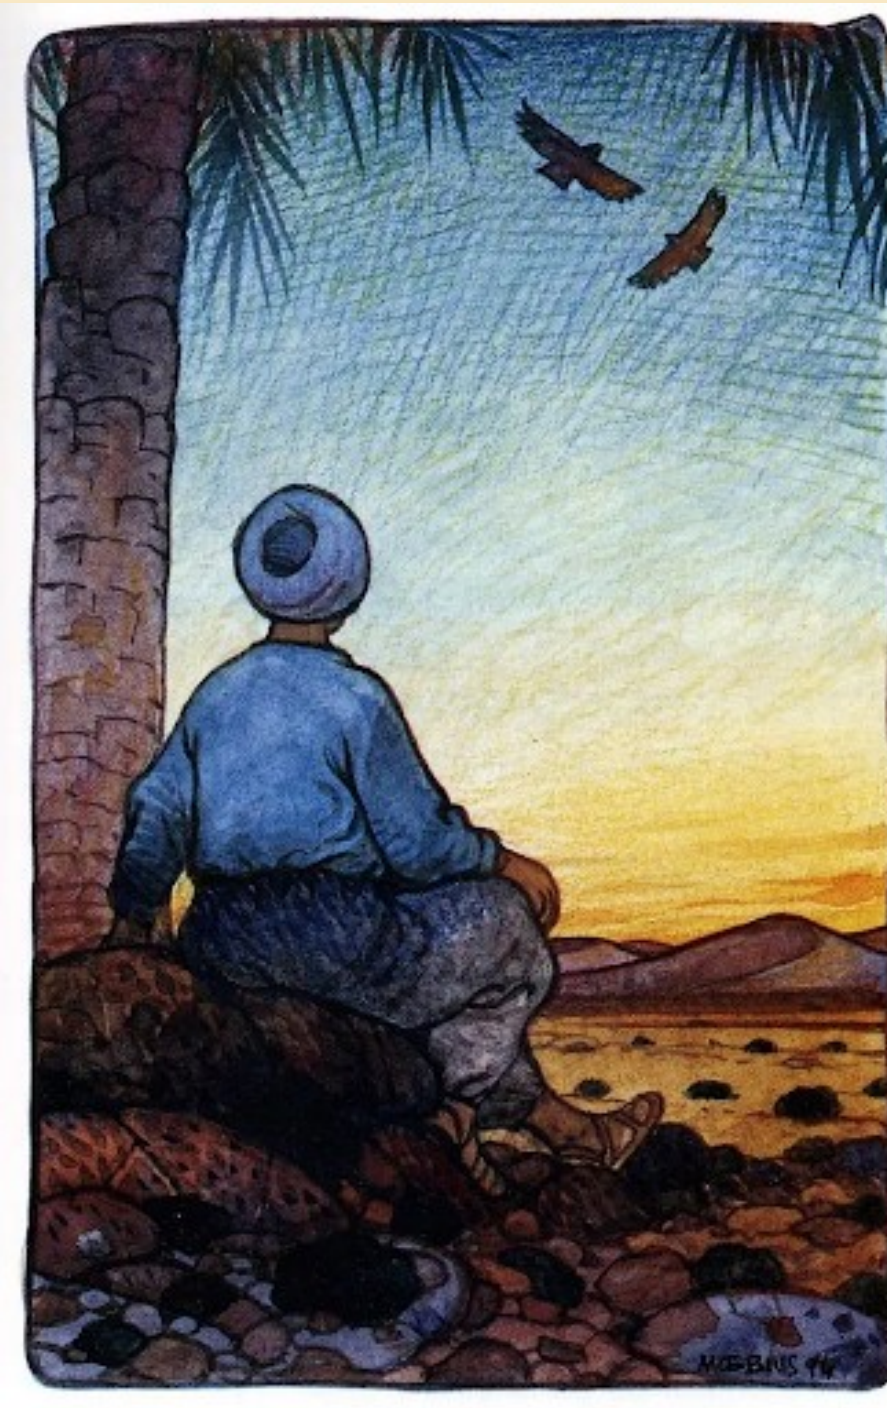

Jean Giraud is a French artist known for drawing paintings based on famous novels. More than 20 years ago, he released a set of 25 illustrations inspired by scenes from a particular novel. Giraud had a colourful and extravagant style of painting, which people thought wouldn't match with the simple and austere narrative of this novel. However Giraud managed to reflect the atmosphere of the novel without making any compromises to his own style.

ID the novel from the given three illustrations

#8

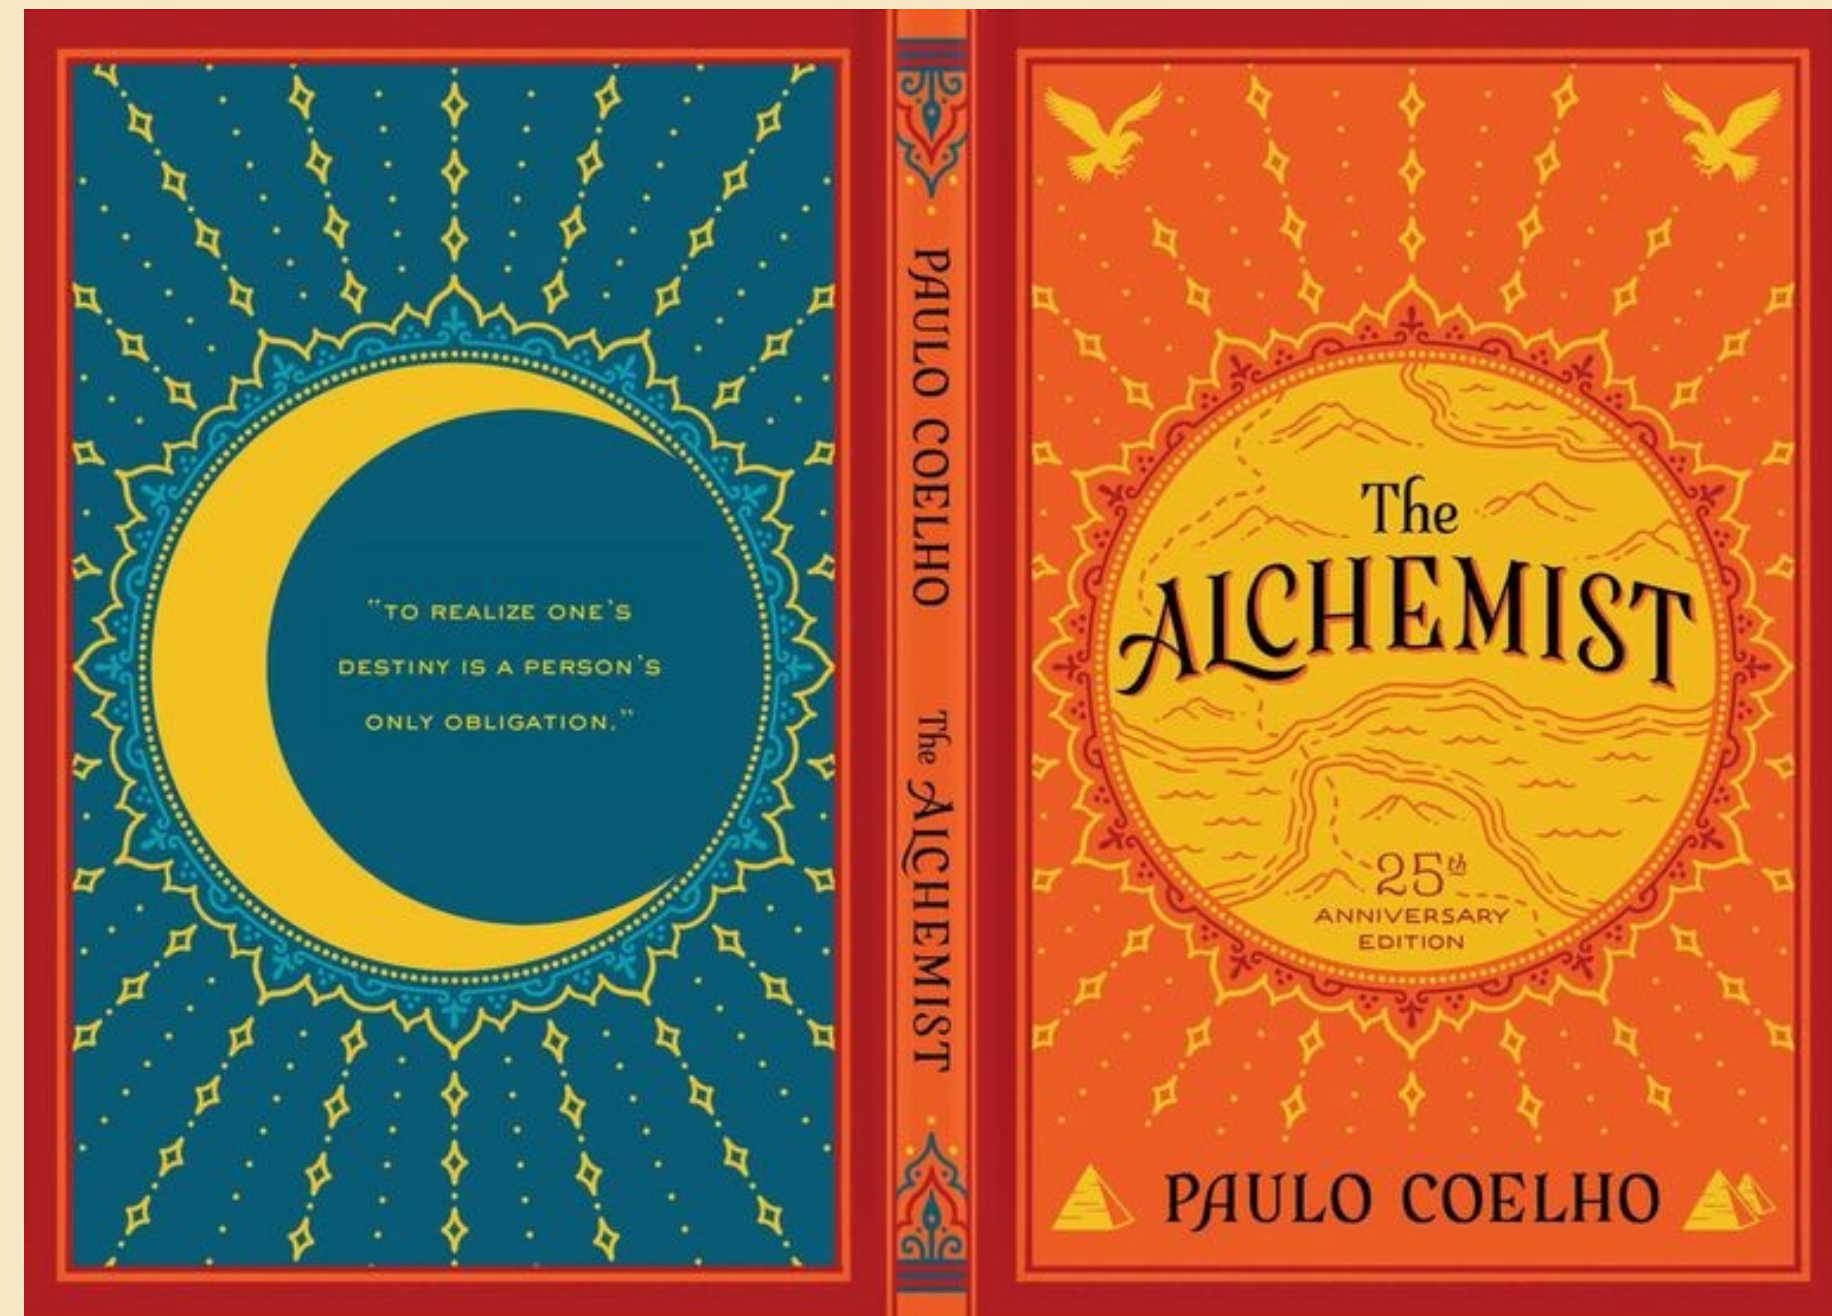

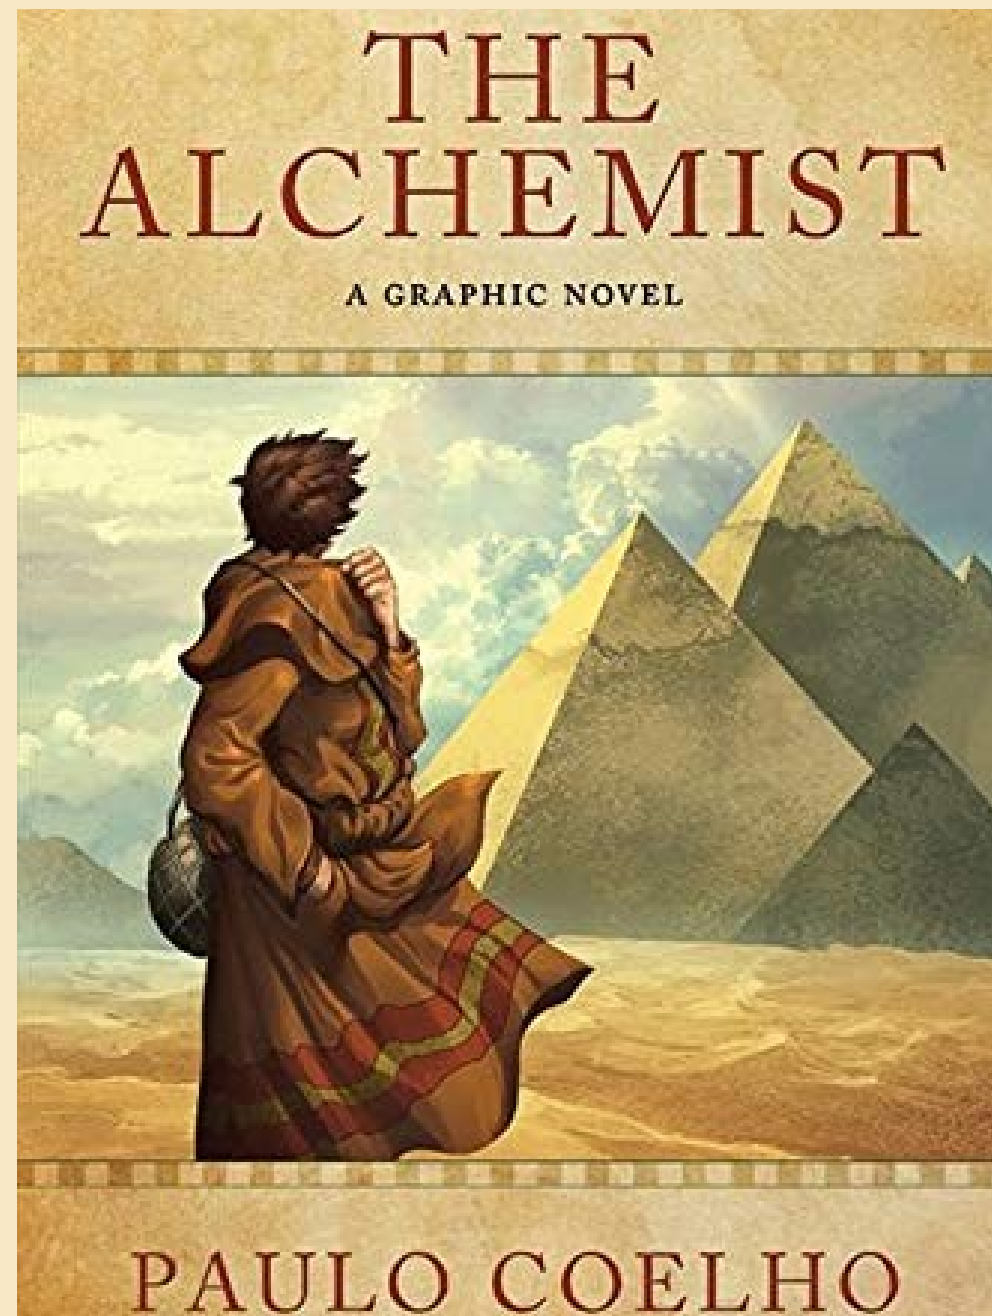

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

The Alchemist by Paulo Coelho

The following are stills from the anime Death Note. Identify the allusions to popular artworks.

(A)

#9

Pieta

(B)

#9

Jesus washing Judas' Feet

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

The fascinating life of Moe Berg, a linguist, attorney, and 243 career hitter who Casey Stengel dubbed "the oddest guy to ever play the game of baseball," is depicted in the film "_____" by directors Christina Burchard and Daniel Newman.

He received his education at Princeton and Columbia, and his pals included Babe Ruth, Albert Einstein, and the Marx Brothers. However, it was his dedication to his nation, demonstrated by the career he chose right after giving up baseball, that truly set him apart.

The title of the documentary is a homage to the career he chose to pursue for his country as well as the sport he played and can be achieved by swapping out two letters in a 2012 film that was part of a well-known series.

ID the same

#10

Spyball (from Skyfall)

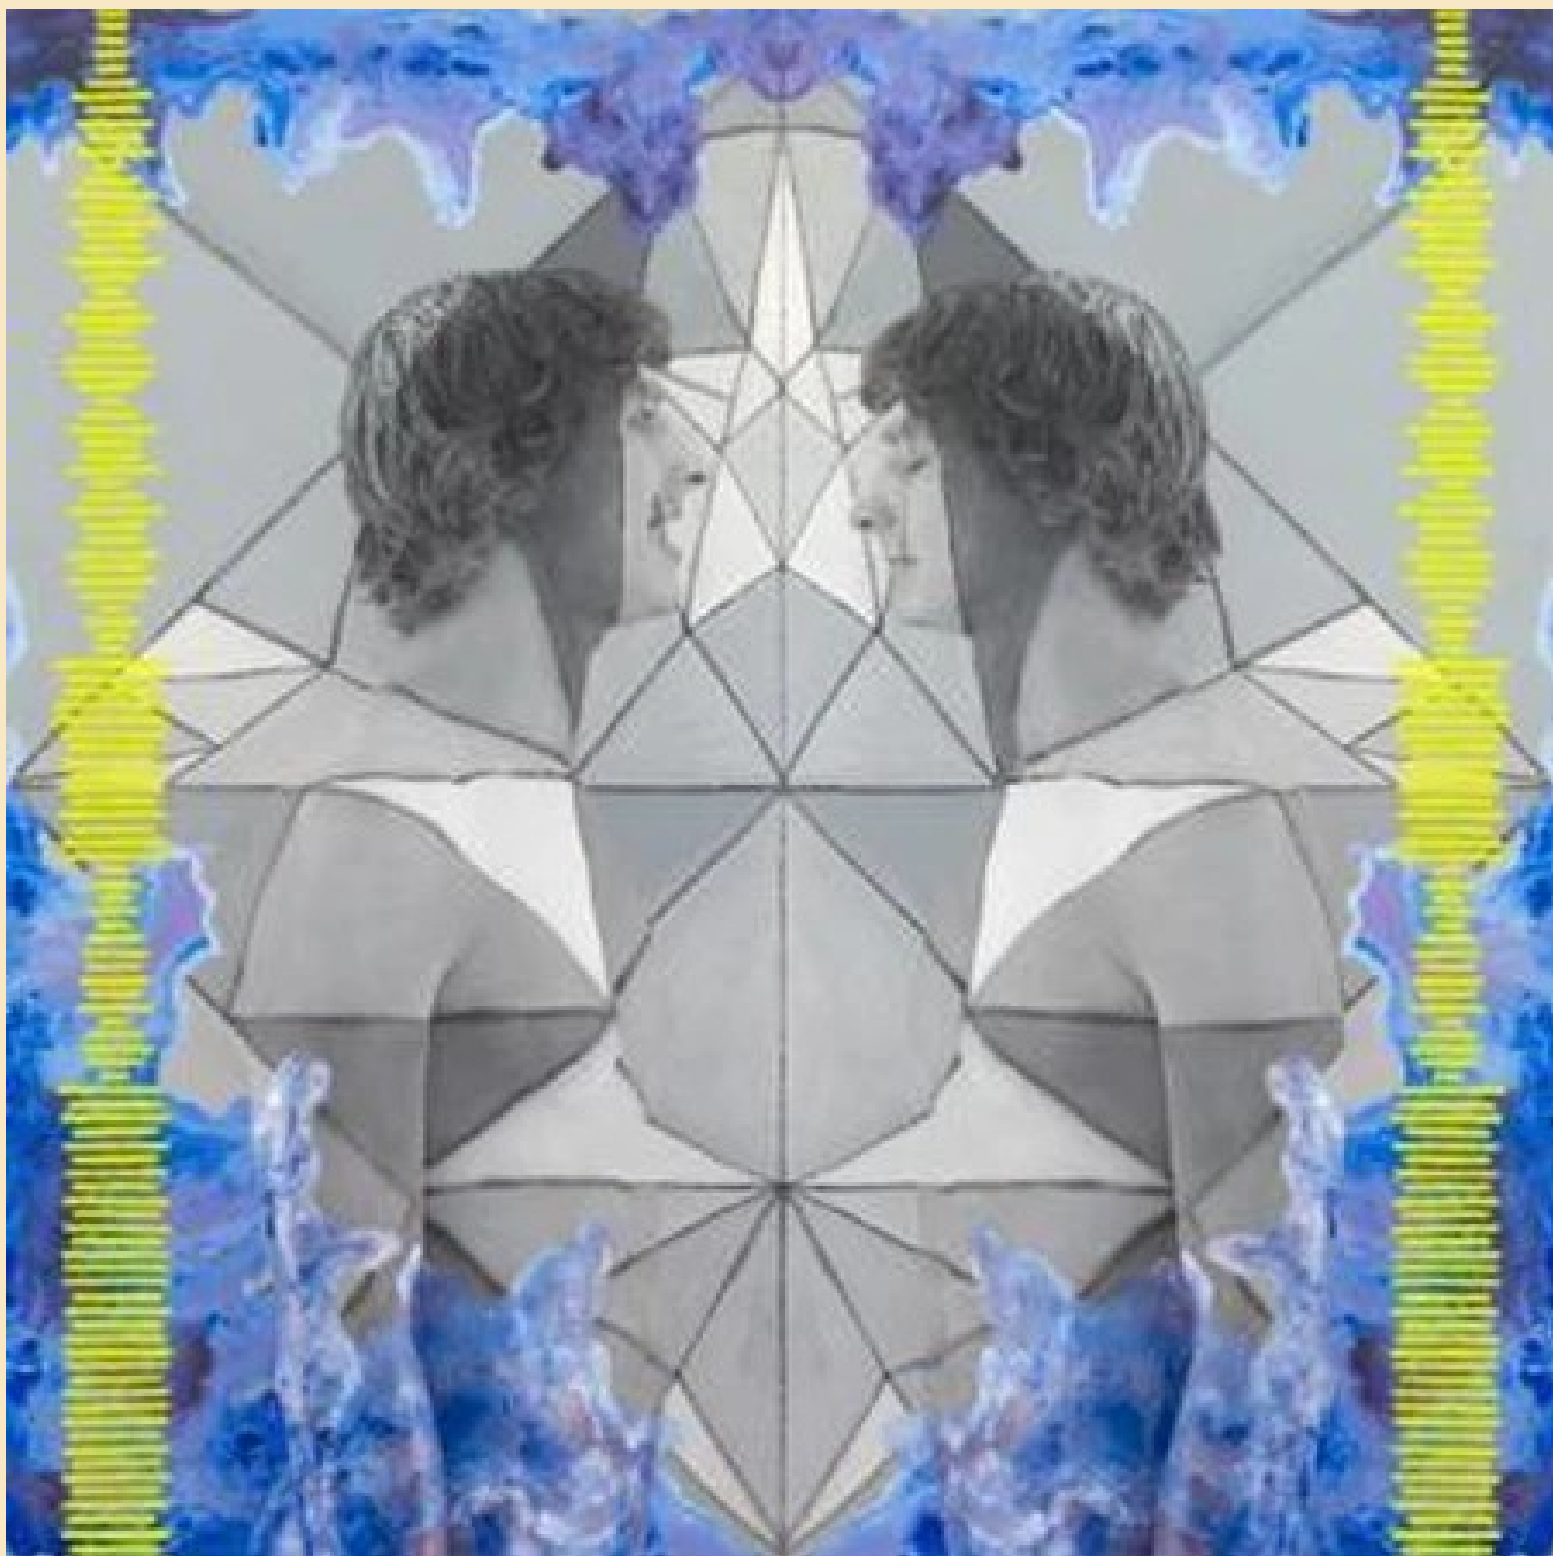

Emma Hack is an Australian artist who specializes in face and body painting for over 25 years. She is known for creating incredibly detailed art pieces, which effortlessly merge the contours of the human body with nature-inspired painted designs.

Following are two of her artworks, covering both the male and female anatomies. Where, about a decade ago, would've we witnessed her art?

#11

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Somebody that I used to know by Gotye

During Rajiv Gandhi's push for tech transfers from the US in the 1980s, one of his pet projects was the push to obtain the Cray XMP-24 supercomputer. The Americans however were worried about military applications and offered a solution where they would provide the lower powered Cray XMP-14 that would be sufficient to meet Indian requirements but preclude military stuff.

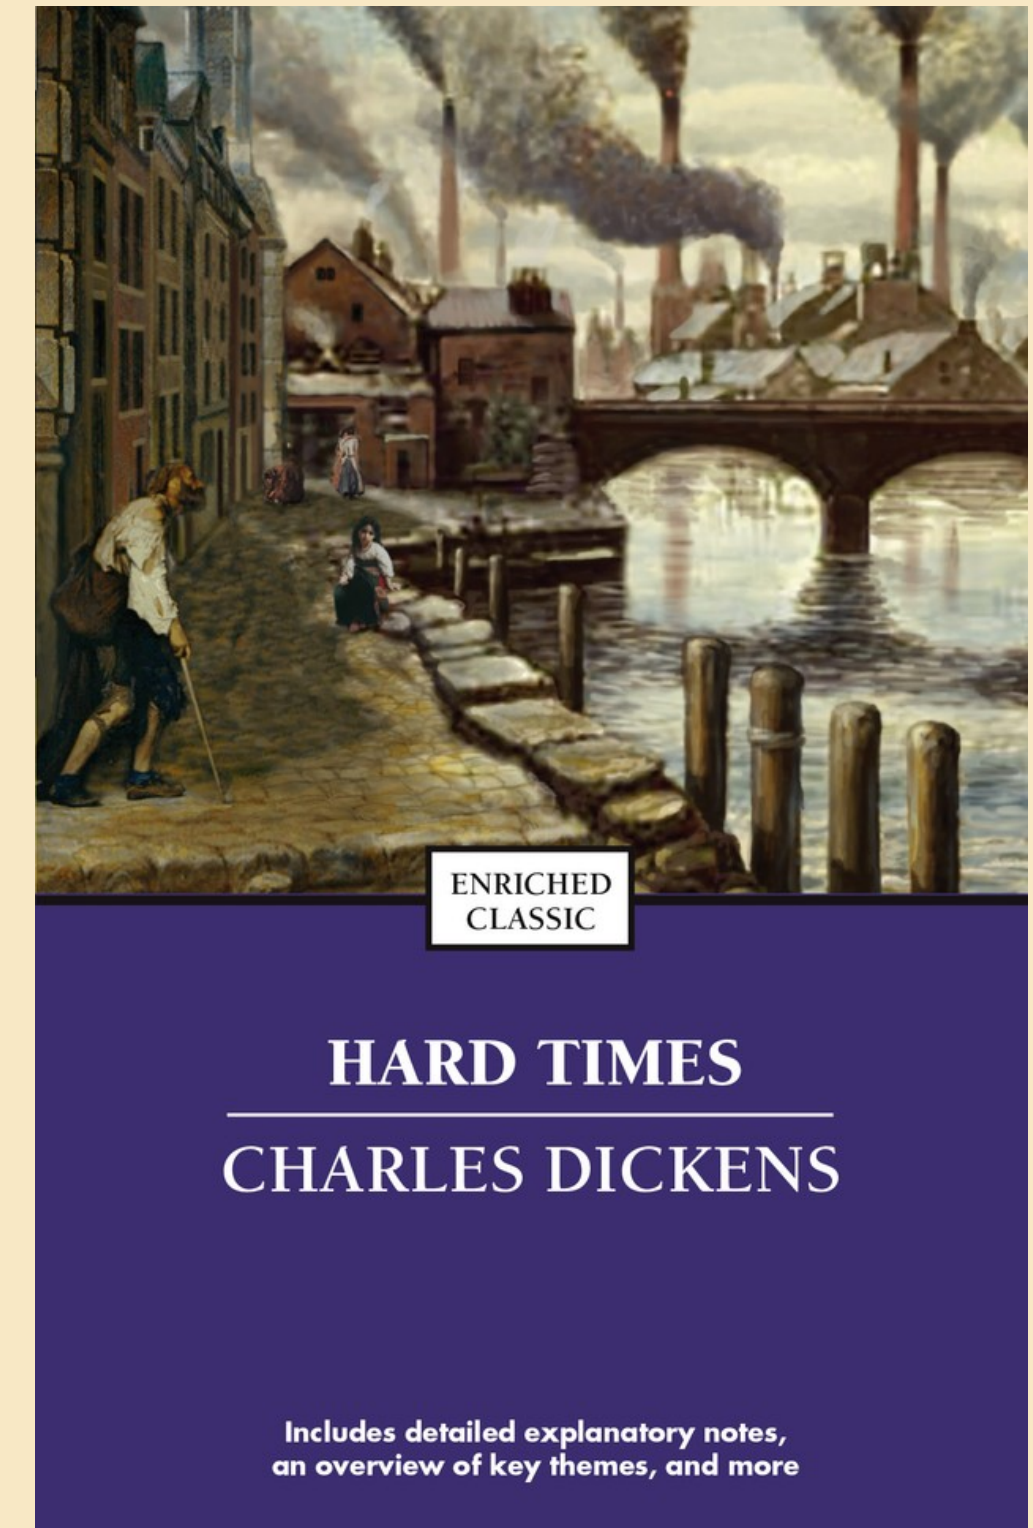

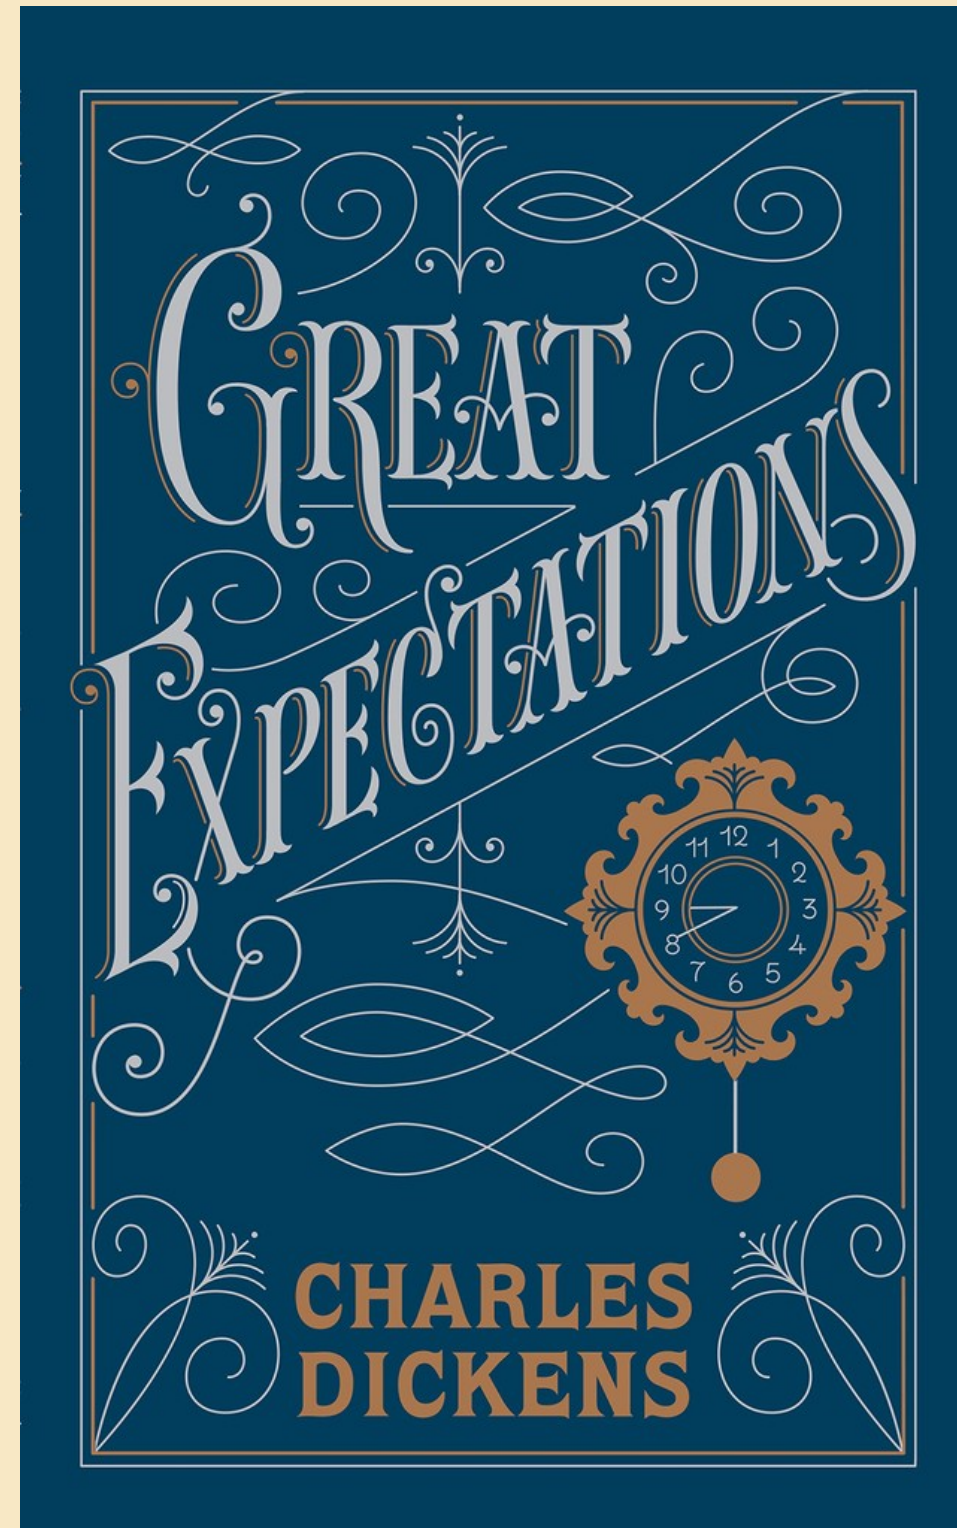

N.D. Tiwari, the then Minister of External Affairs characterised this episode as being typical of the India-US relations "US going in with _____ / _____ and eventually met with _____ / _____"

FITB with two 19th century works from an English author.

#12

Great Expectations & Hard Times by Charles Dickens

Exo, a South Korean-Chinese pop group, is led vocally by Kim Jun-myeon, also known as Suho. His debut solo album, titled _____, was released on March 30, 2020. The songs on the CD are incredibly intimate to the artist and are chock-full of feelings and introspection.

Suho claims that he had a significant role in the entire album's creative process, particularly its aesthetics. When discussing the motivation for this album, he adds, "I saw it for the first time in Switzerland and fell in love with it, so I went to Paris and followed his footsteps to _____ which is where he resided last....It's an album where I drew myself."

Who was the inspiration behind Suho's album?

#13

Van Gogh's self portrait

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

In late 2017 and early 2018, after a string of incidents of gun violence and other violent attacks in the UK and US, citizens decided to protest the existing laws, and lack of accountability surrounding such incidents.

They did this in a rather unique form of public display, taking inspiration from a film release of that time that dealt with similar issues.

How did they protest? What film?

#14

They wrote messages of dissent on three billboards

Pictured here is a car from Ford, which was primarily sold in the UK between 1960–80.

The bestselling ones today are extremely prone to rust and corrosion due to poor rustproofing. This car is mentioned in pop culture, where you can find it in a song's chorus being used in a sarcastic way. The lyricist compares himself to a car that can't keep its shape and look, but he immediately mentions saying that he will be able to give a love that will never fade. Never-ending and unwavering.

ID the song that has been brought back in pop thanks to the reel culture

#15

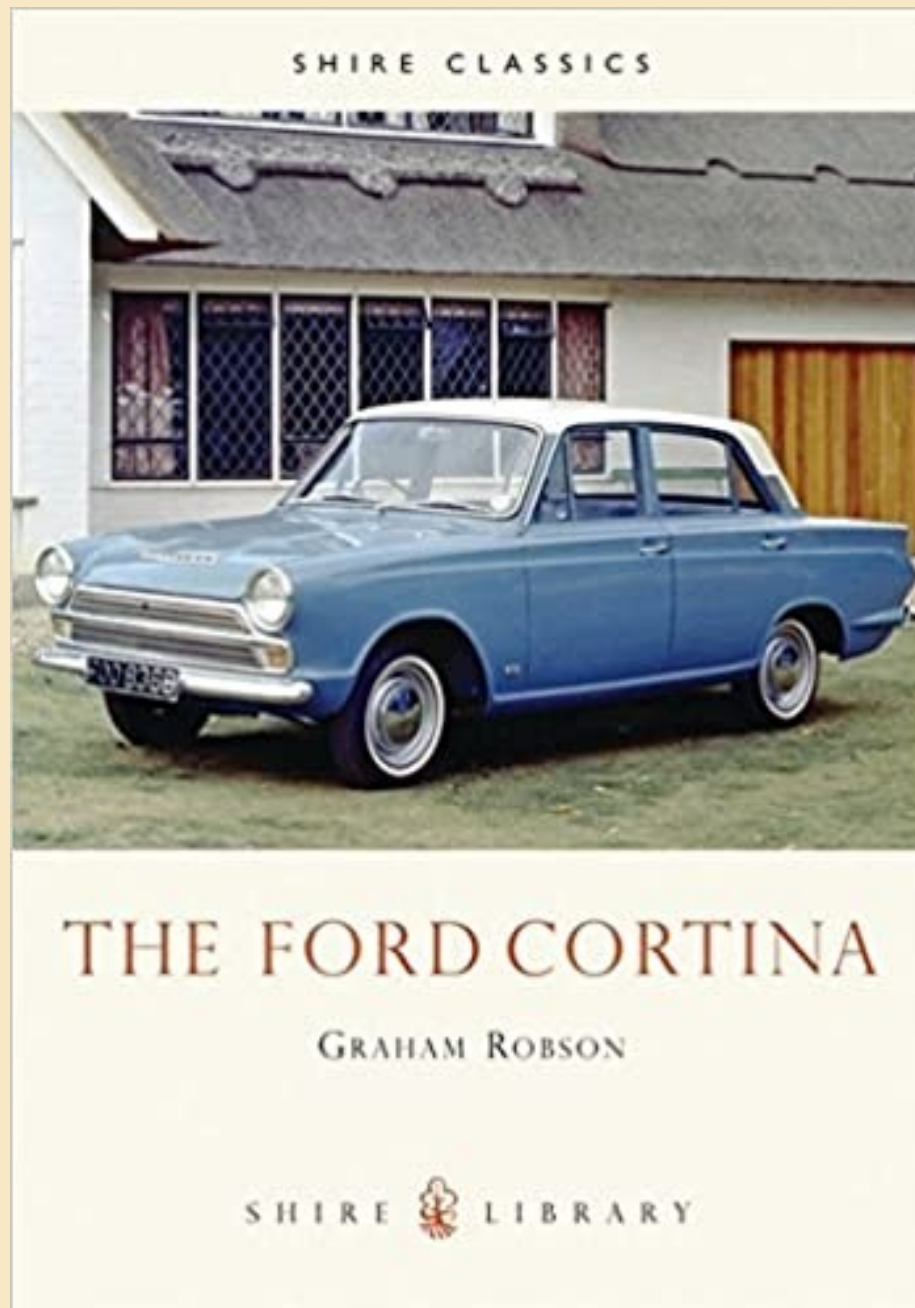

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Ford Cortina, I wanna be yours by Arctic Monkeys

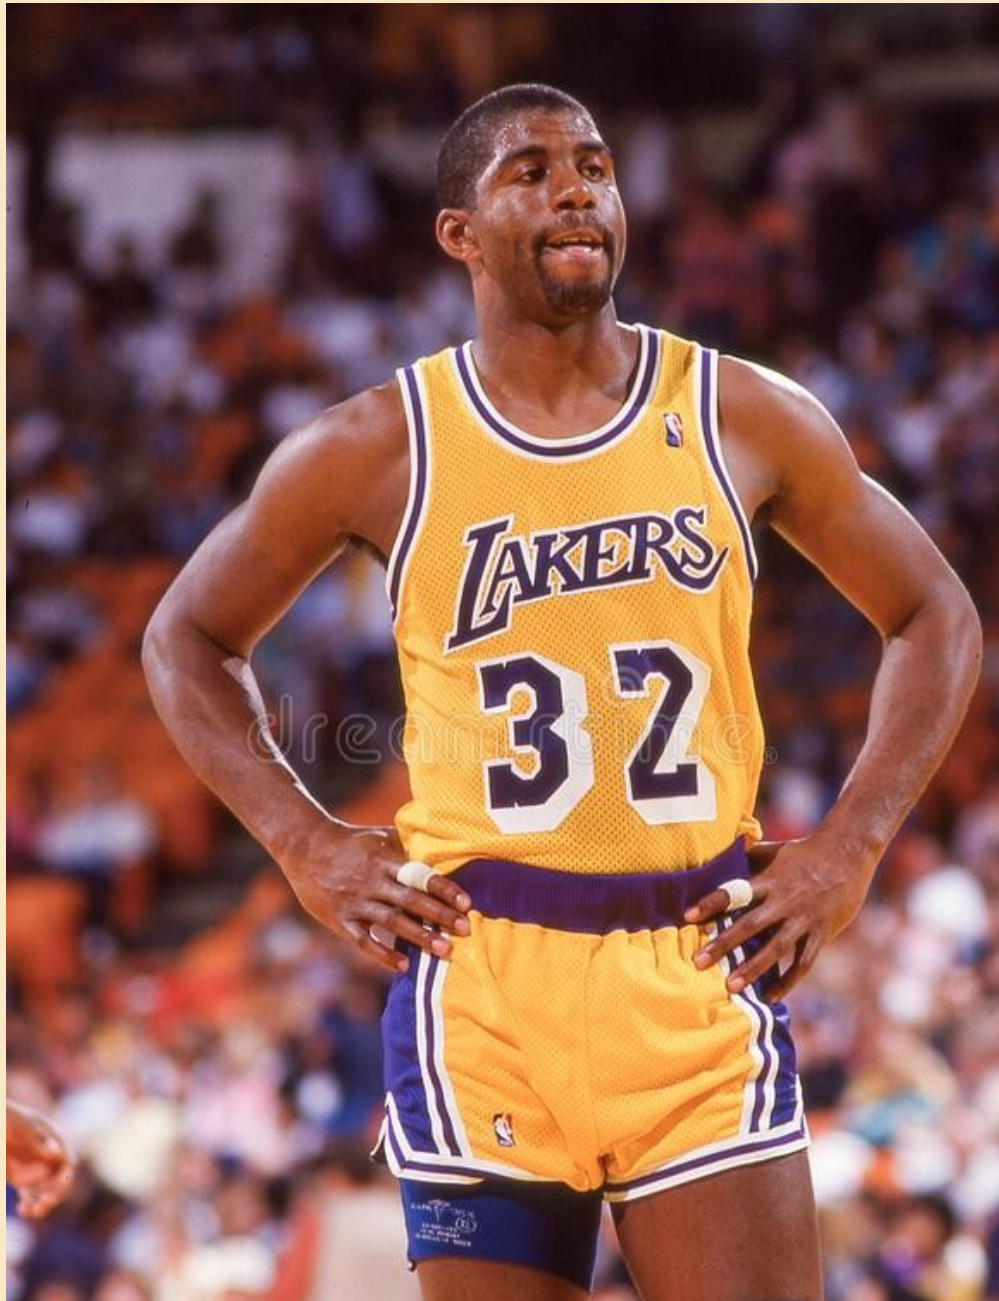

Ervin _____ was a basketball player whose name happened to be very similar to the name of another much more famous NBA superstar.

Describing him, Tim Floyd, his coach at New Orleans, said: "When he showed up, he didn't know what a chest pass or a pivot foot was. He was brutally bad. His namesake is X, so in our coaching meetings, we called him Y."

Give X, a nickname given to the more famous NBA player and Y, a rhyming yet contradictory nickname given to Ervin.

#16

Magic Johnson, Tragic Johnson

The organisers of the Hockey India League thought the audience could lose interest as a result of the increasing number of low-scoring games. They devised a novel strategy in 2016 to address this problem. Even though there are only 5 goal scorers in the game, the scorecard below shows the plan's impact, showing a total of 9 goals scored (none of the players had multiple goals).

What straightforward alteration did HIL make? (No part points for funda, precise rule required.)

PS: Cristiano Ronaldo haters would be ecstatic if a such regulation were adopted in football.

#17

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

30 JAN

 RANCHI RAYS

HALF TIME

5 - 4

JAYPEE PUNJAB WARRIORS

KOTHAJIT SINGH (18' ☐)
DANIEL BEALE (28' ☐)
SANDEEP SINGH (43' ☐)

ARMAAN QURESHI (7' ☐)
SATBIR SINGH (31' ☐)

JAN 2016

Two goals for a field goal and one for a penalty corner

30 JAN

HALF TIME

5 - 4

RANCHI RAYS JAYPEE PUNJAB WARRIORS

KOTHAJIT SINGH (18' FG)
DANIEL BEALE (28' FG)
SANDEEP SINGH (43' PC)

ARMAAN QURESHI (7' FG)
SATBIR SINGH (31' FG)

2016

This music video by the Korean band VIXX is inspired by a nineteenth century piece of literature. The duality in this video is evident as members struggle to switch between _____ and _____ while trying to get hold of their love life. The name of the video is also based on the titular character of the book.

ID the gothic novella which has inspired the video.

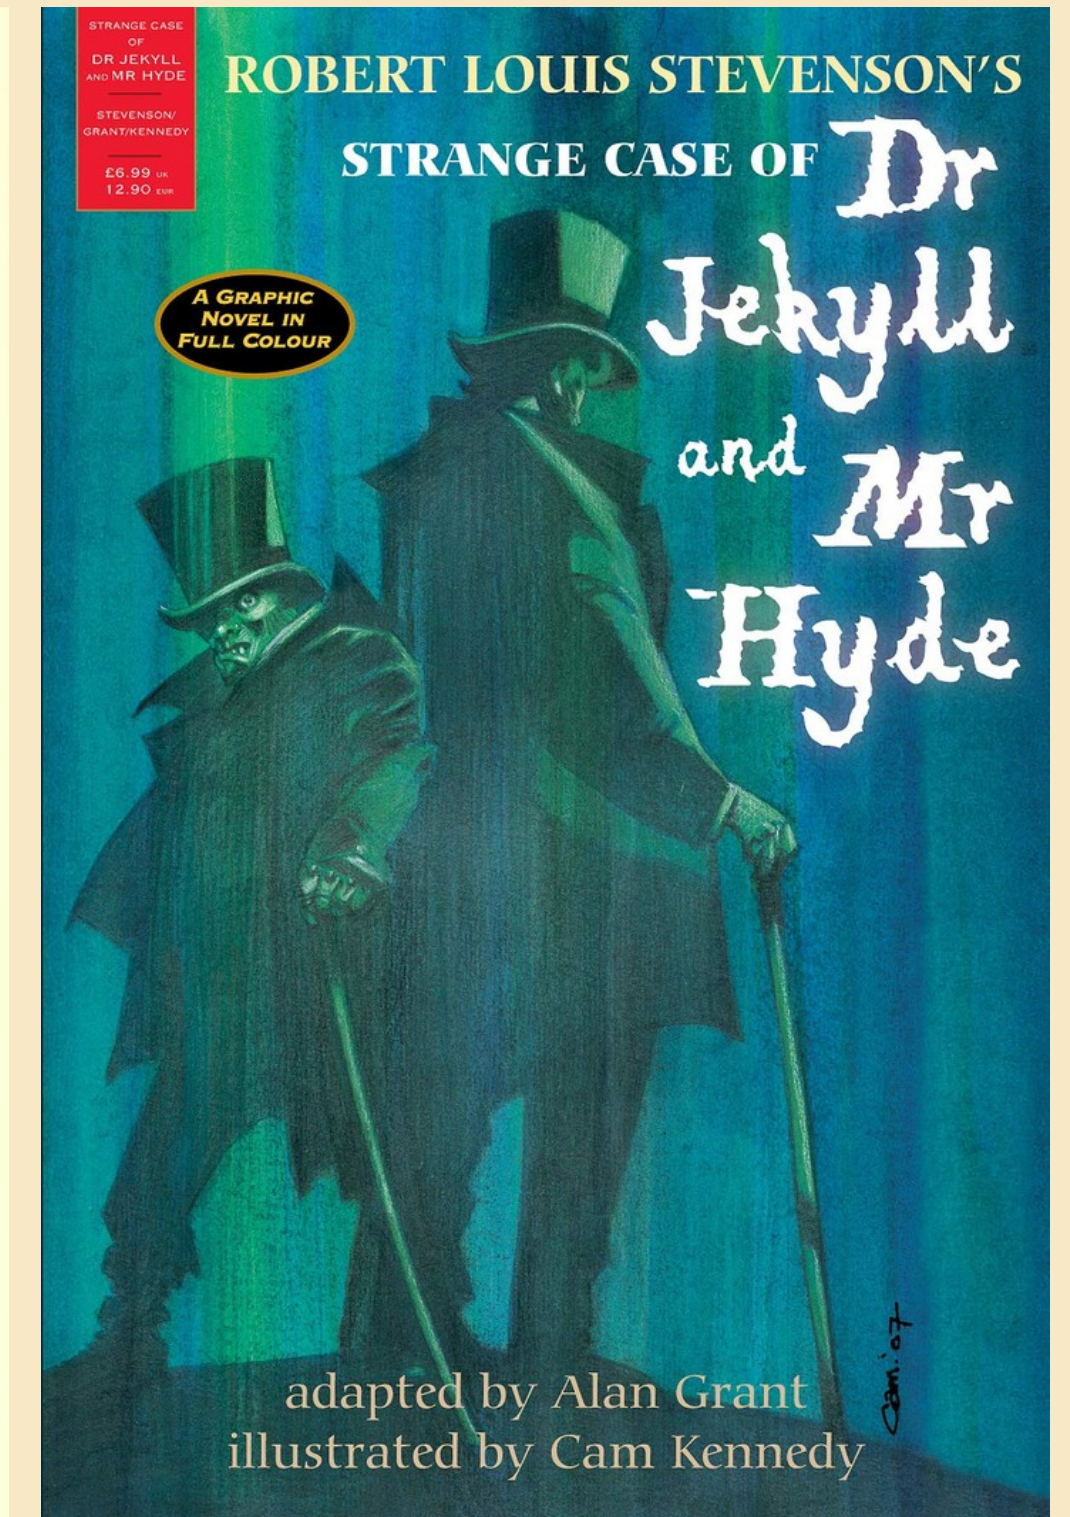

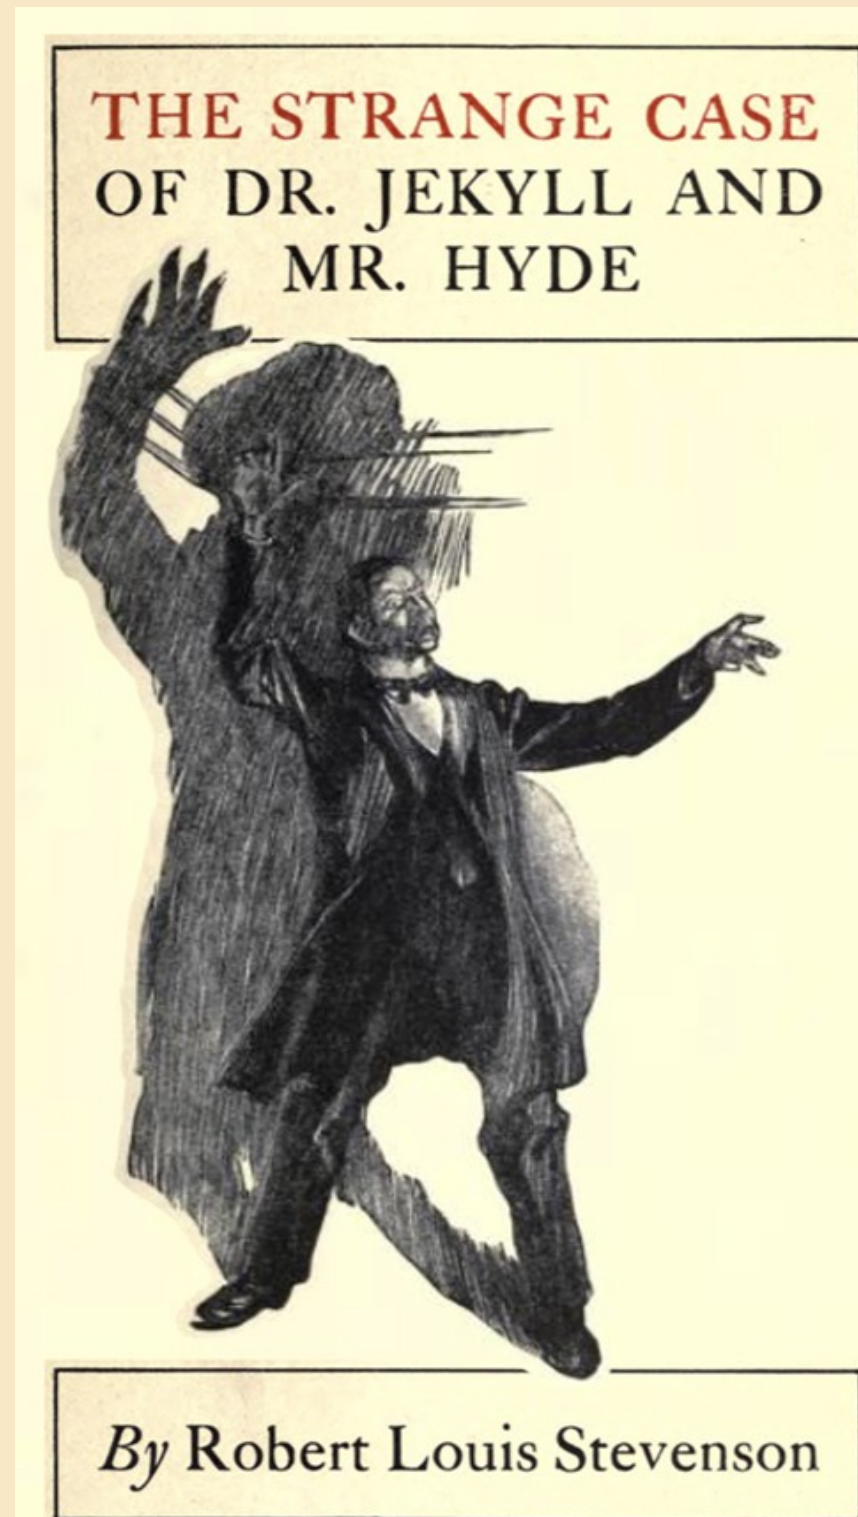

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde

These are paintings by Sumit Roy who is an Indian painter cum sound artist. He is currently debuting his art show Boogie Woogie in cities like Delhi and Bombay.

These paintings are stills from iconic music videos. Simply name the songs and their artists.

(A)

#19

(B)

#19

A. Self care by Mac Miller

B. King's dead by Kendrick Lamar, Jay Rock, Future

Ohel David Synagogue is a synagogue located in Pune. A building distinctly of the English Gothic-revival style, Ohel David was designed by the British colonial architect Henry Saint Clair Wilkins. It is the largest Synagogue in Asia outside Israel. Though already well known, it gained fame due to a certain 'Blockbuster' in the late 90s which earned the composer 6 channel V award nominations.

ID this certain blockbuster which also shares its name with a place in the metaverse.

#20

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Ho Jaayegi Balle Balle by Daler Mehndi was shot here

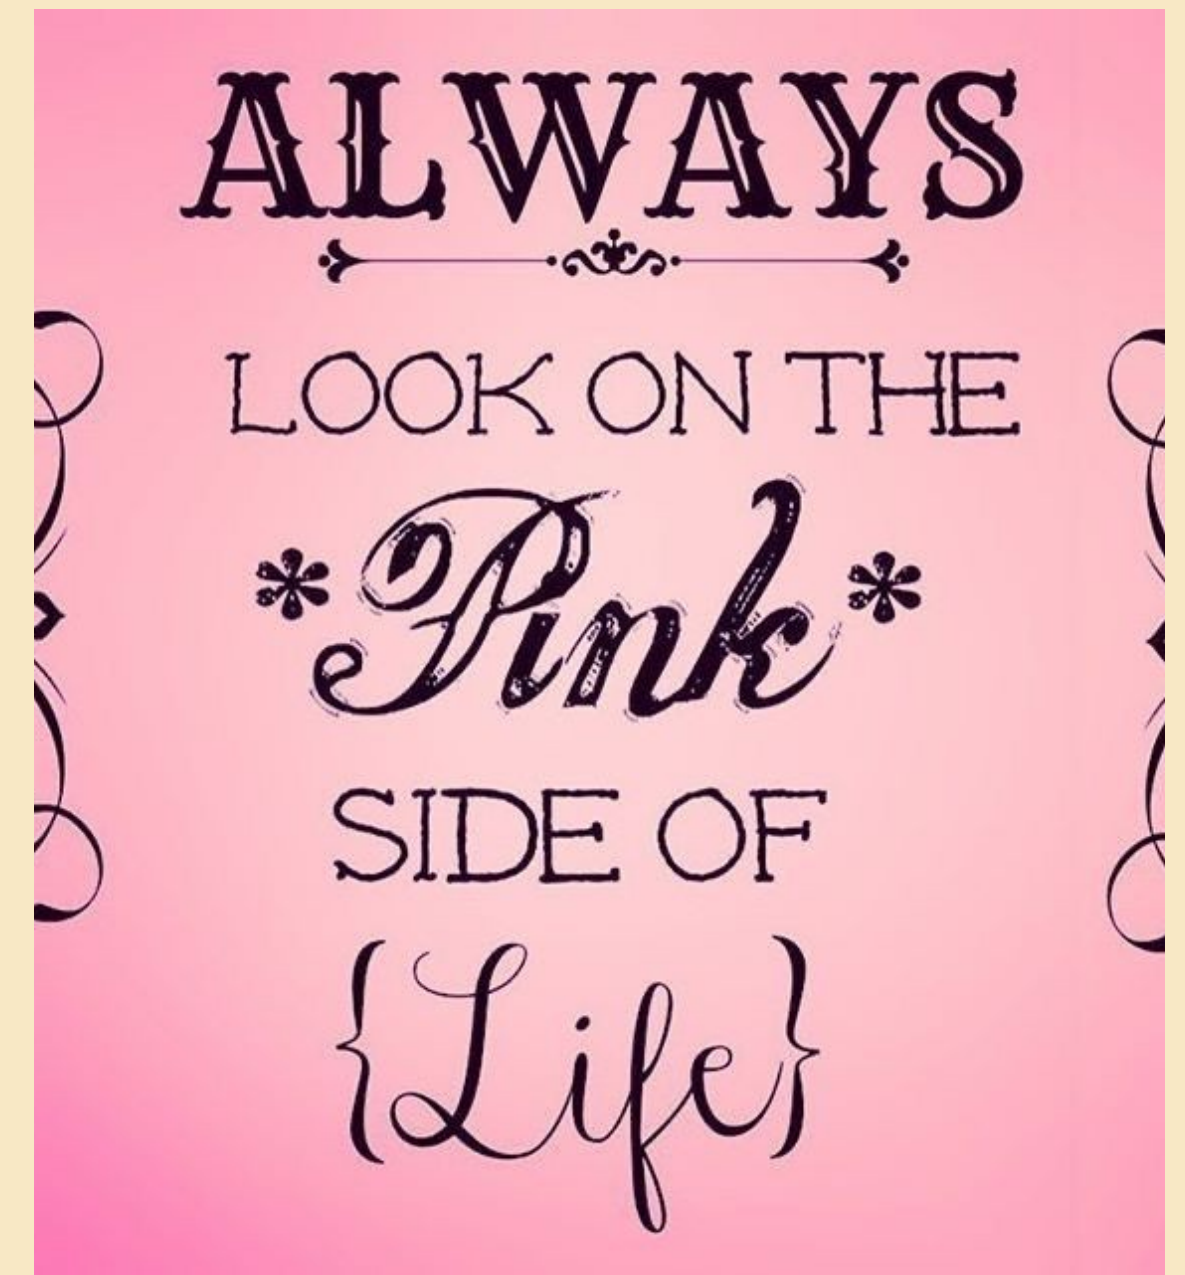

In recent times, nonfiction and documentaries have been gaining popularity, and many streaming platforms are trying to cash in on that. Following the trend, Disney+ Hotstar has announced that it will stream a documentary on the life of American rapper Machine Gun Kelly titled _____, who is noted for his compositional blending of contemporary and alternative hip hop with rock.

The name can be traced to a translation of a French song, the signature song of popular French singer Édith Piaf, written in 1945, "La vie en rose." The name means seeing life through rose-tinted glasses. It talks about living with an attitude or outlook of positivity, trying to see beauty in everyday life like you do when you first fall in love.

Life in Pink

16-year-old Linthoi Chanambam recently created sporting history by becoming India's first ever World Champion in Judo. When interviewed, the girl said that she used to beat up boys back in her village when young, which was why her parents insisted she pursue the sport. She also wishes to win an Olympic medal for India in the future. Soon after her triumph, she became the internet's darling and many on Twitter and Instagram gave her the nickname _____.

What is the nickname partly inspired by a recent 'hyped' Marvel series?

#22

Mini/Teen Hulk

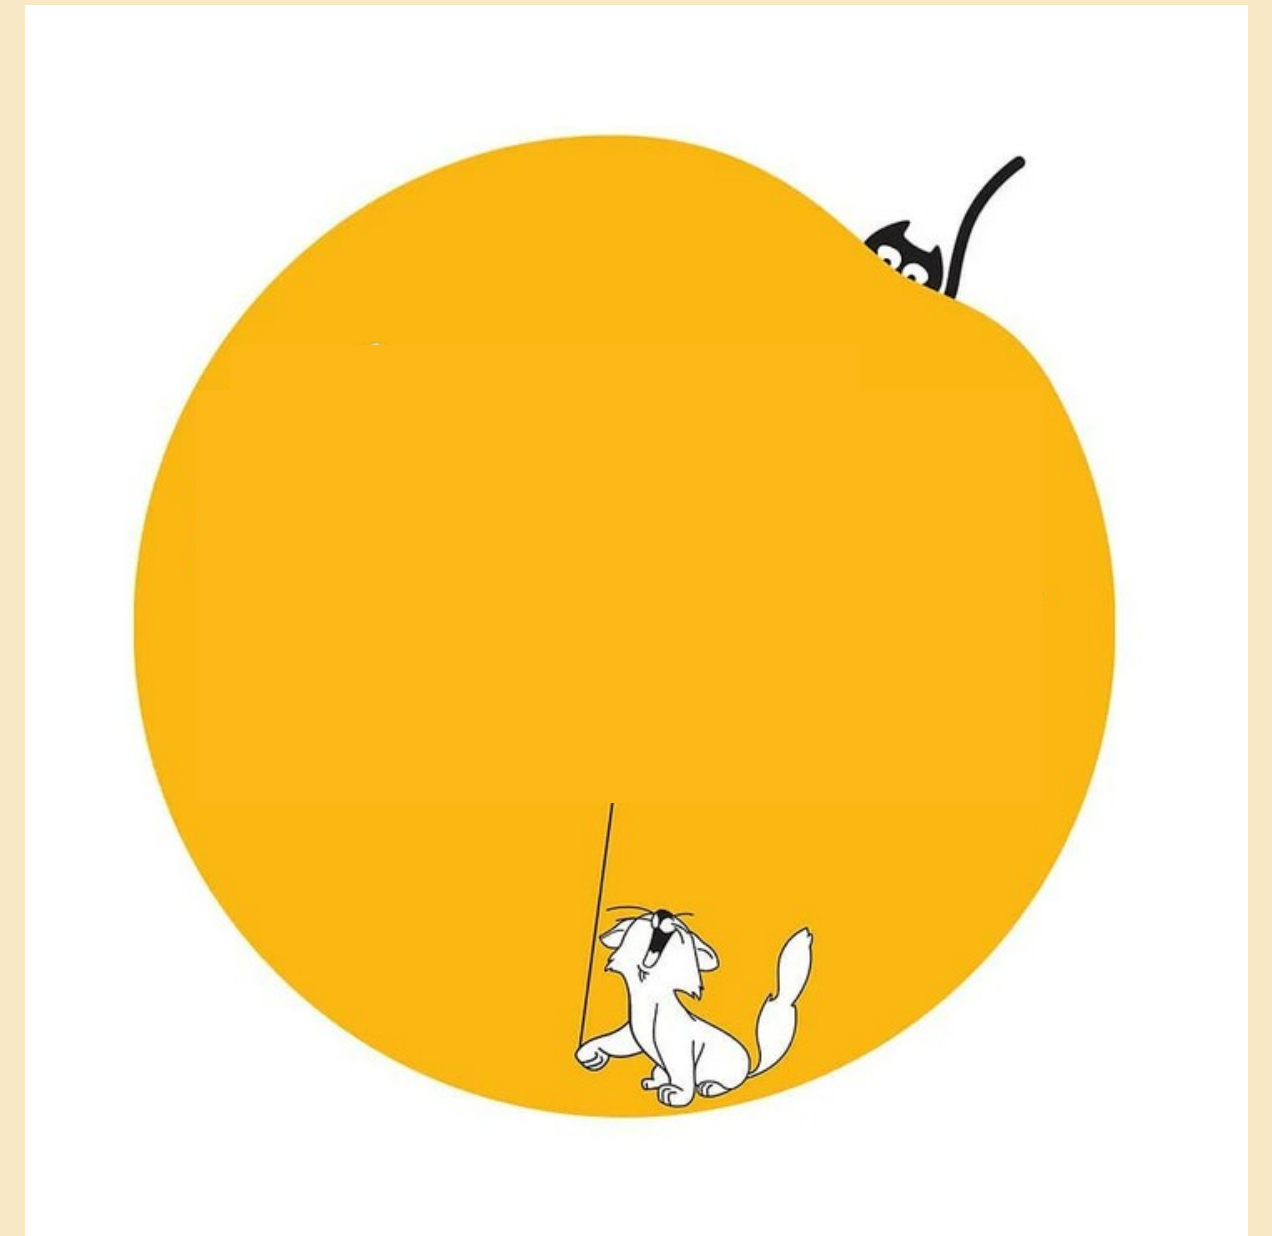

In early 2021, a popular Bollywood star launched this production house. As soon as the name of the venture was announced, everyone was quick to notice how it was partly the title of an early 2000s Hollywood romance/sci-fi movie that has now achieved cult status.

The yellow and white design of the logo has a bright and happy feel to it like its title and features a couple of cats- signifying the actor's love for pets.

Give the name of the production house, and the recent movie, which released on an OTT, becoming the first movie to be produced by this production house

#23

Eternal Sunshine Productions; Darlings

In one of his articles David Benoit of WSJ talks about a sudden boost in the sales of a psychological thriller that came up nearly more than half a decade ago from now. In his report, he mentions that for the aforementioned literary piece there were over 300 reviews on Amazon and the book went on to top the e-book bestseller lists in the UK and Australia.

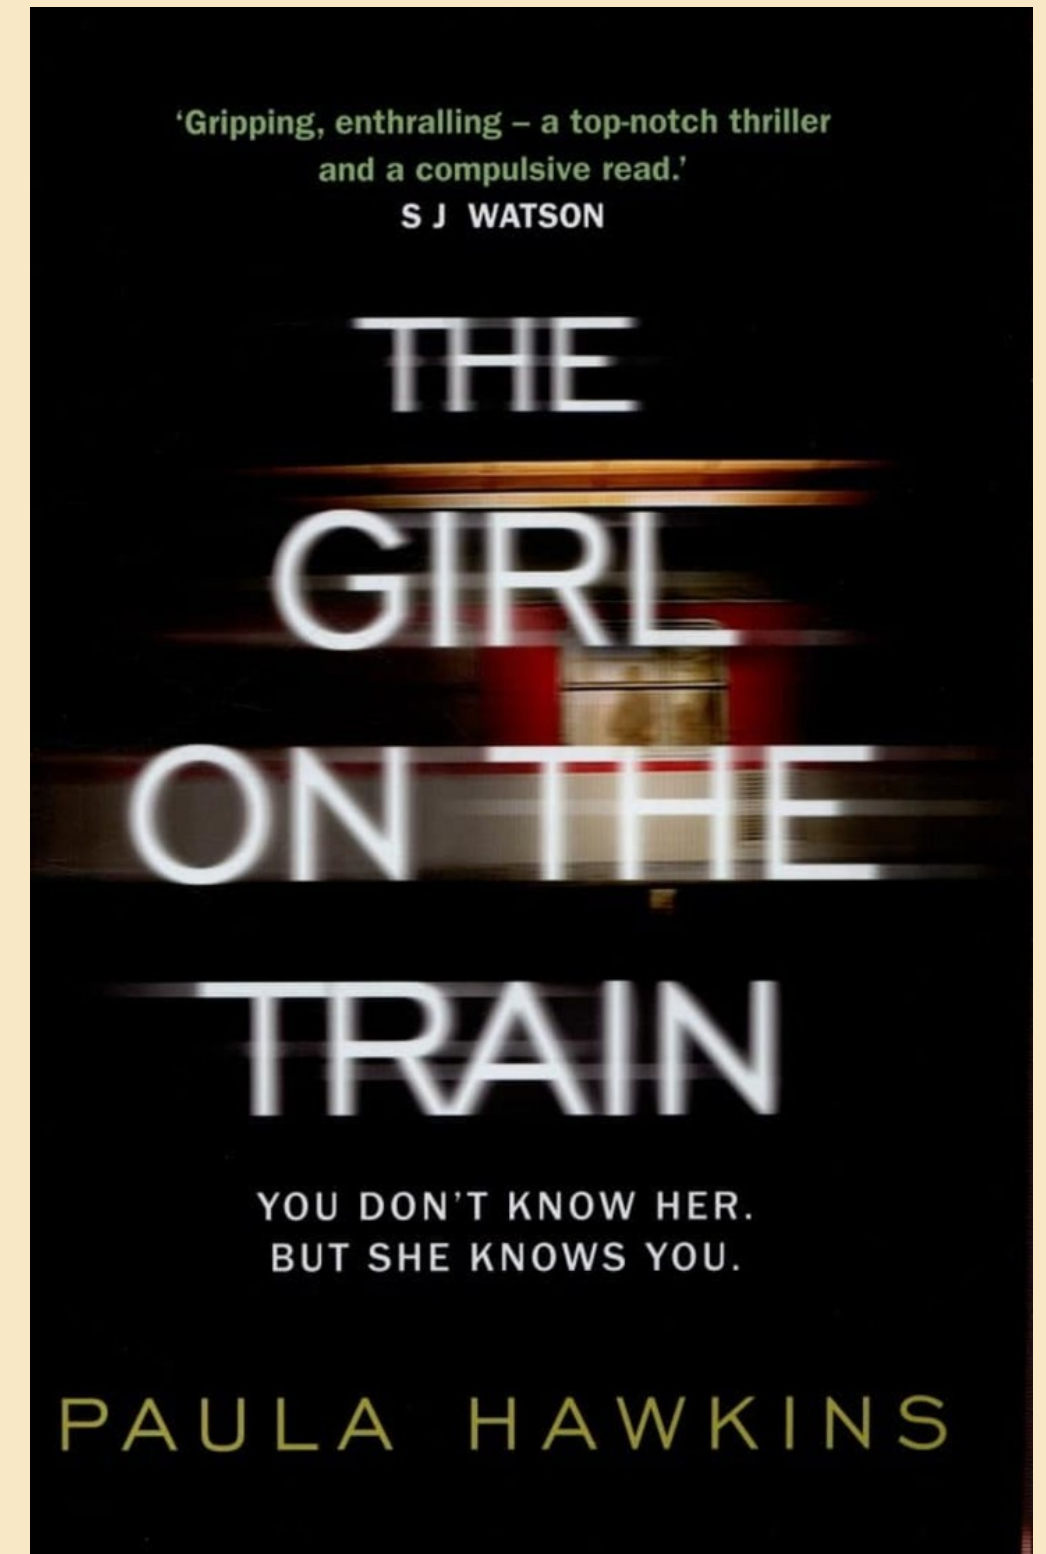

However, Benoit brings out the reason behind this sudden claim to fame in his article by talking about a blunder made by the readers while choosing the book indicating towards another work which came two years later after the former was published.

What reason/blunder was thus cited by Benoit behind the sudden rise in sales of this 2013 work?

#24

Readers mistook A.J. Waines
"Girl on a Train" for Paula Hawkins' massive hit "The Girl on the Train"

The Boston Red Sox's heroic comeback against the New York Yankees to win the American League Championship Series in 2004 and advance to the World Series will live in infamy. They would win the World Series, breaking an 86-year title drought.

Red Sox star Curt Schilling threw seven innings while allowing only one run in game six. And he was doing all of this while in excruciating agony from a prior injury. Blood loss had been experienced along with the agony.

But when the game came to a close, the blood loss produced one of the most recognizable images in sports history and served as a near-literal reward for his bravery and efforts on behalf of the team.

What was bleeding and give the literal analogy

#25

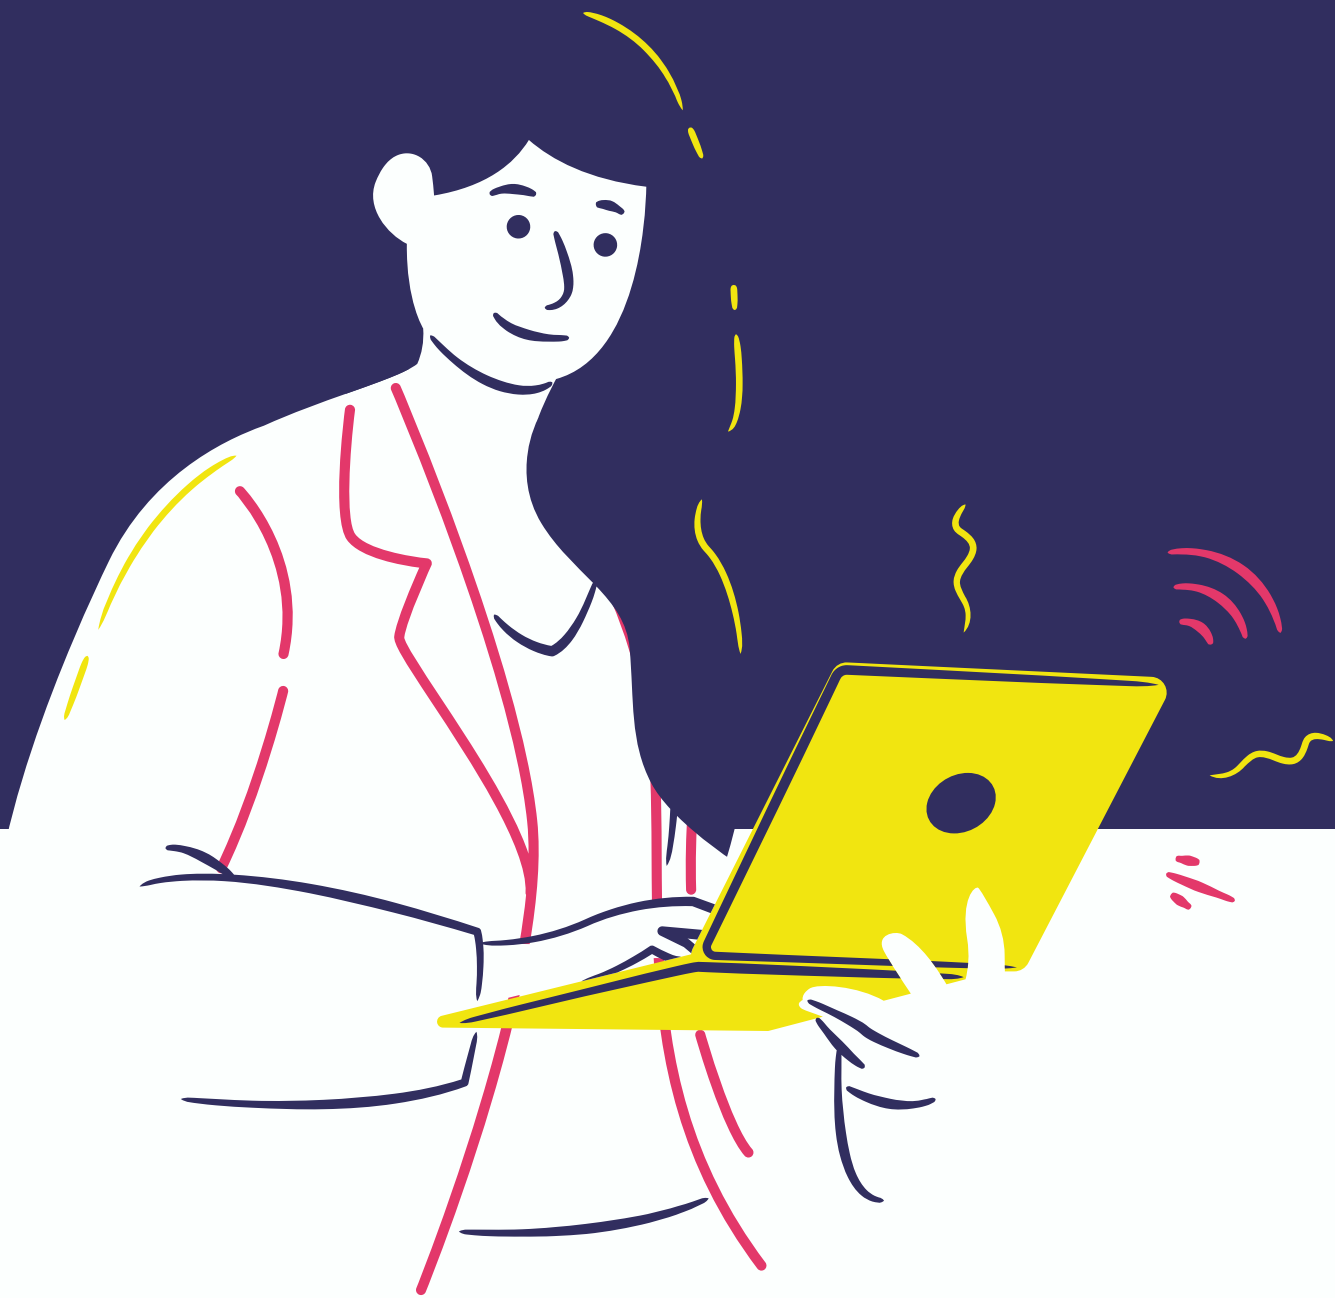

His ankles (socks) were bloody

Red Socks – Red Sox

THANK YOU!

For brickbats and bouquets, or to enjoy more questions and interesting facts, head over to our Instagram @factaco.in

If you would like us to organise a quiz for your college society as well, please get in touch with us at -

hello@factacoindia.com