

quiz
#1

two years too long

A MELAS QUIZ
FINALS

Factaco X Waves'22, BITS Goa

FINALS

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

dries #1

clockwise

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

scoring pattern

Speak out your answer if it's a direct question for you.
Raise your hand if you are pouncing.

Pounce : +10/-5

Direct : +10/0

Bounce : +10/0

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Sofia Karim, a London-based artist and human-rights activist, runs the project Turbine Bagh, which mainly rallies against fascism in India and Bangladesh. Her maternal uncle is the well known Bangladeshi photographer Shahidul Alam, who in 2018 was abducted and imprisoned by the Bangladeshi government for criticising its handling of a protest. In response, Karim began printing works by artists and news clippings condemning the government and telling stories of the Free Shahidul campaign, on a certain packaging object as mostly these packages are made of plain sheets of paper (not essentially white paper) and used by local vendors in Indian subcontinent to put their products in them and sell it to the customers almost immediately as they are made. This made it very easy to spread the messages to common people going about their regular life buying these items to enjoy with family.

What item/ packaging does Turbine Bagh use to print its protest messages? #1

SAFETY SLIDE

Samosa Packets

Due to President Xi Jinping's strict zero-COVID policy, many people in China were confined to their houses.

If any confirmed instances are recorded, the towns and cities are placed under heavy lockdown, and people are sent to quarantine facilities. All citizens of big cities must submit to testing. People are unable to access public spaces like marketplaces and restaurants without having negative effects.

The Chinese people have used a distinct method of soft protest to draw attention to the public's hardship regarding the policy, which has effectively closed China off from the outside world. Jie mi, which means "Give me rice," reflects the dearth that many people living in lockdown are experiencing.

What are the people doing, which has gone viral on national media?

#2

SAFETY SLIDE

People are making videos dancing to Bappi Lahiri's song 'Jimmy Jimmy Aaja Aaja' with empty utensils

This term _ _ _ _ _ (Blanks not indicative) was first used by Lewis Carroll in his 1871 poem 'Jabberwocky'. It refers to a large, shaggy, dog-like entity that has the ability to roll into a ball and move extraordinarily quickly. The said creature also appears in the author's most famous book, where it is under the control of the primary antagonist.

This term also found its way into the title of an OTT movie which is dubbed as the first of its kind. It was released alongside its corresponding television series. Set in the 80s, the movie is about a newbie game designer who decides to make one of his favourite books into an "adventure" game of sorts. As the movie progresses, he starts losing it and struggles to find a line between reality and imagination.

Id the term (5) and what makes the movie special (5)

#3

SAFETY SLIDE

Bandersnatch

Black Mirror: Bandersnatch was the first Netflix
interactive movie

The nomadic Vaghari community created the textile art form known as Mata-Ni-Pachedi in Gujarat about 300 years ago. It came from the demands of the underprivileged and disadvantaged in society.

Together, their human creativity and spiritual impulses helped to create the art form. Large swaths of cloth were painted with representations of the goddess Shakti in a variety of forms by the neighbourhood motivated by a shared purpose. Meaning literally "behind the goddess" because they were intended to serve as backdrops for idols, they often follow a set pattern with the female deity's image at the centre of a shrine, which is surrounded by different important community symbols and beliefs.

What prompted them to start creating this sacred art?

#4

SAFETY SLIDE

People of the nomadic Vaghari community were barred from entering temples so they made their own shrines with depictions of the Mother Goddess on cloth.

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

_____ is a melancholic poem penned by a Romantic writer. The 24 line composition dramatises the confusion felt by the narrator as he watches the important things in life slip away. It raises doubt about the nature of 'reality' as we know it, questioning our perception of the world–

In a night, or in a day,
In a vision, or in none,
Is it therefore the less gone?
All that we see or seem
Is but a _____ (blanks are not indicative)

This same titular phrase was brought back in pop culture when a certain movie was released in the late 2000s, revolving around a similar theme, whereby the movie starts and ends at the same place.

FITB and ID the movie which popularised the phrase in mainstream culture.

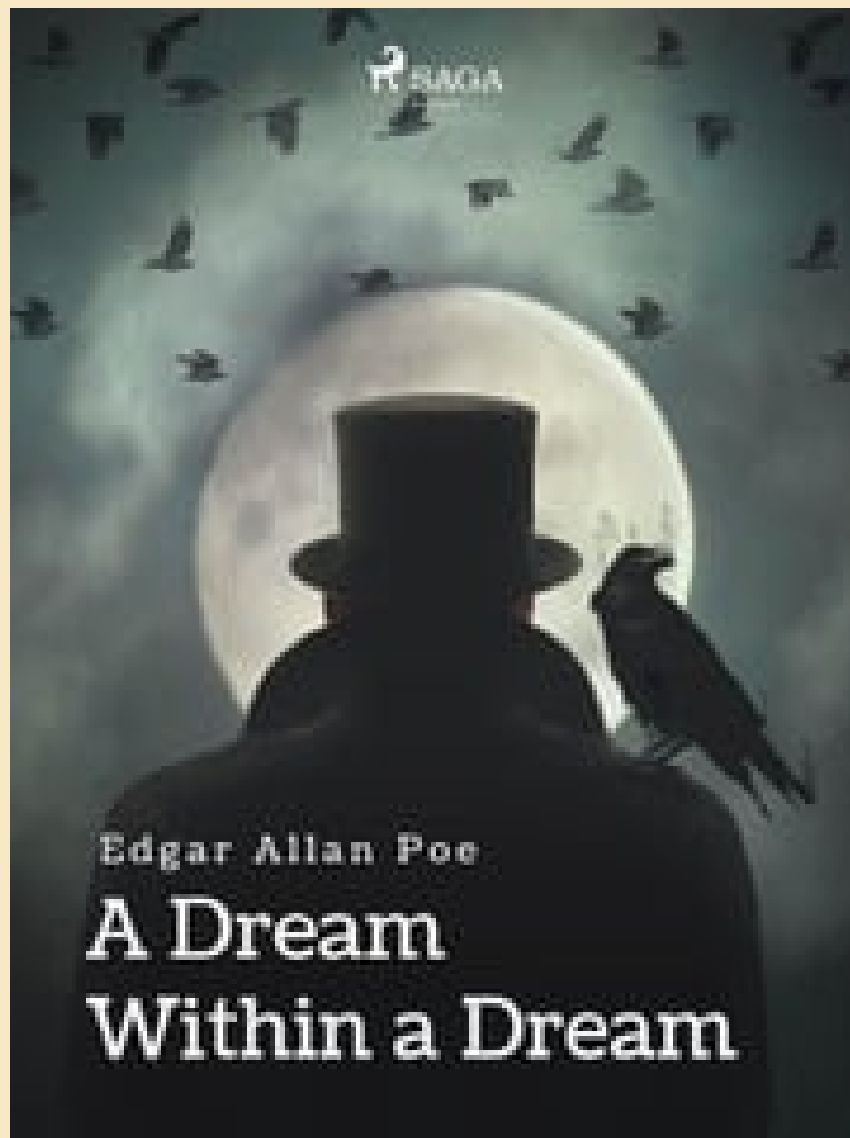

#5

SAFETY SLIDE

A Dream within a Dream by Edgar Allan Poe Inception by Christopher Nolan

To capture this particular shot (image attached), the special effects crew working on 2001: A Space Odyssey had to expose 1500 frames of the giant space station turning in the Earth's orbit.

This single shot took roughly 3 hours to film as each frame was exposed for 6 seconds. However, when the editors reviewed the footage, they found that the entire sequence was ruined due to 3 blurry frames caused by vibration incurred by the camera crew, who were particularly excited about 'something' – which hasn't occurred since.

ID this feat

#6

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

SAFETY SLIDE

England winning the 1966 football worldcup

This sporting term is used when a player engages in a certain action to break the rhythm of their opponent and affect their psyche – causing them to 'lose their heat'.

You might have seen this happening somewhere last year where an extremely famous future champion, competing in their first pro tournament, loses a match to her Spanish opponent because the latter _ _ _ _ them.

ID the term and where in pop culture you have seen this in the previous year

SAFETY SLIDE

Ice/Icing your opponent

King Richard – Vicario v. Williams

The Kazakhstani blogger Aslan Sagutdinov was detained in 2019 for putting up a banner in a public space. Despite the absence of a clear political statement, Sagutdinov's action was an attempt to cross the border for a public protest.

In Nur-Sultan, Sagutdinov organised his protest a week after more than 80 people were arrested for taking part in an "anti-government" demonstration against incorrect voting processes. However, his protest and subsequent incarceration demonstrated that on occasion, something that seems meaningless can convey more than just a political message.

What was special about Sagutdinov's protest/poster?

SAFETY SLIDE

The poster was blank/empty

The state of X has the certain unique distinction of all of its teams– in the NHL, NBA and MLB– to sport the same primary colours of _ _ _ _ _ and _ _ _ _ _ .

It wasn't always like this though, until the teams at some point all decided to match the colours of the city flag and the city seal. A certain performer that hails from the state also gave the colours a tribute in the form of one of his most iconic songs.

What are X, the two colours and the famous performer?

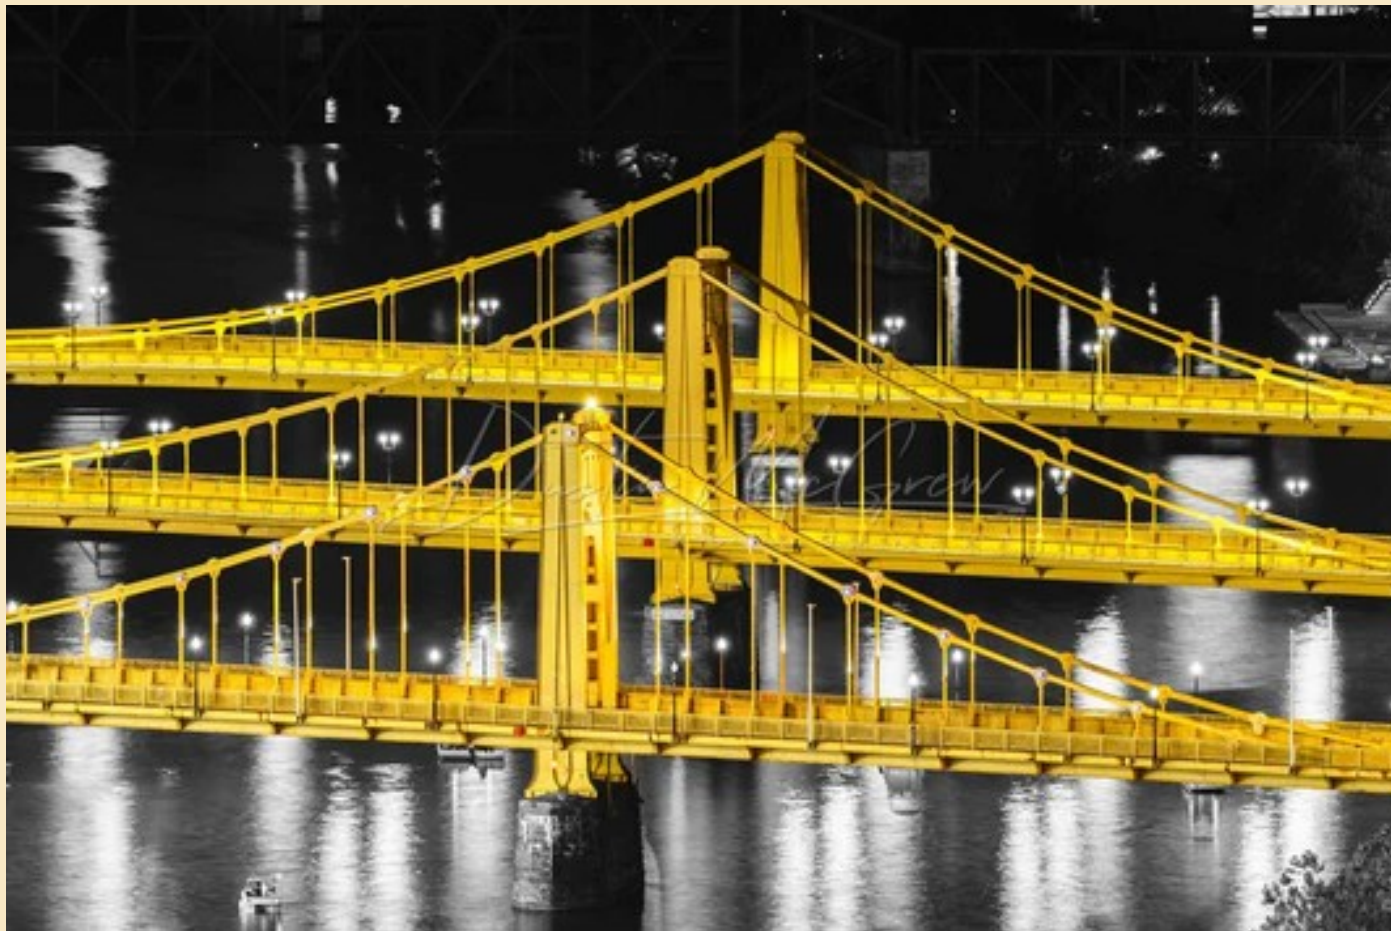

#9

SAFETY SLIDE

X– Pittsburgh, The two colours being Black and Yellow, which is also the name of the iconic song by Wiz Khalifa.

written #1

Pearl of the Orient

THEME : GOA

+10 for
each

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

To call him a mere cartoonist would be reductive, he was an artist, painter and illustrator, who spoke through his characters, paintings or simplistic sketches. At the height of his popularity in the 1970s and 80s, his work was ubiquitous- appearing everywhere in textbooks, calendars, murals and magazines.

The following is poster made by the artist in 2005 for a event. The event, first organised in Goa in 2004, has since gone on to become a staple in the state- being held every year in late November.

Who is the artist and what is the event?

#10

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Footprints in the Sand is a book written by eminent sports journalist Marcus Mergulhao, chronicling the history of a famed Goan club from its inception in 1956 to 2016 when the book was released.

The club, a former powerhouse in the Indian football scene, is named after the family that owns it. However, on hearing the name, one can't help but relate it to a certain family based in Goa of a popular 2015 Bollywood thriller.

Give both the team and the movie.

#11

De la cause
du sommeil lucide

Introduction de Serge NICOLAS

Encyclopédie psychologique

L'Harmattan

This is a modern reprint of De la cause du sommeil lucide, first published in 1819.

The author is a well known Goan personality, whose statue is unmissable just as you enter the capital city of Panjim.

Who?

#12

_____ is a 2014 novel by Vikram Nair where Kalaam accidentally discovers that he has a god-given flair for coming up with the most succulent recipes – a gift that he passes to his grandson Pakwaan, the true inheritor of his passion and talent. It is Pakwaan's extraordinary rendition of a certain dish that catches the fancy of Svetlana, a Russo-American who is convinced that this dish is the answer to the USA's craving for all things exotic.

“her palate luxuriated in the taste of wine and sting of chilies and cinnamon, the tartness of vinegar so deliciously rounded with the sweetness of gur, the tang of mustard with the sweetness of onions...” is how Nair describes the goan dish. The novel derived its name by replacing a word with the goan dish in the title of a 1936 literary work that received an Academy award-winning movie adaptation in 1939.

Id the novel.

#13

X (two world title) is a 2017 Konkani film about an arrogant Saxophone player played by Jackie Shroff in his Konkani debut.

The title is a play on the name of a famous beverage prepared in the coastal regions using a plant variety named garcinia indica, which has several culinary and medicinal uses.

The pun in the title is used for many restaurant names that serve cuisine from this region, promising their customers a sense of two-fold nourishment – at a culinary level and at an emotional level as well.

What is X?

#14

Answers

+10
for
each

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

To call him a mere cartoonist would be reductive, he was an artist, painter and illustrator, who spoke through his characters, paintings or simplistic sketches. At the height of his popularity in the 1970s and 80s, his work was ubiquitous- appearing everywhere in textbooks, calendars, murals and magazines.

The following is poster made by the artist in 2005 for a event. The event, first organised in Goa in 2004, has since gone on to become a staple in the state- being held every year in late November.

Who is the artist and what is the event?

#10

Mario Miranda and IFFI

Footprints in the Sand is a book written by eminent sports journalist Marcus Mergulhao, chronicling the history of a famed Goan club from its inception in 1956 to 2016 when the book was released.

The club, a former powerhouse in the Indian football scene, is named after the family that owns it. However, on hearing the name, one can't help but relate it to a certain family based in Goa of a popular 2015 Bollywood thriller.

Give both the team and the movie.

#11

Salgaocar FC, Drishyam

De la cause
du sommeil lucide

Introduction de Serge NICOLAS

Encyclopédie psychologique

L'Harmattan

This is a modern reprint of De la cause du sommeil lucide, first published in 1819.

The author is a well known Goan personality, whose statue is unmissable just as you enter the capital city of Panjim.

Who?

#12

Abbe Faria

_____ is a 2014 novel by Vikram Nair where Kalaam accidentally discovers that he has a god-given flair for coming up with the most succulent recipes – a gift that he passes to his grandson Pakwaan, the true inheritor of his passion and talent. It is Pakwaan's extraordinary rendition of a certain dish that catches the fancy of Svetlana, a Russo-American who is convinced that this dish is the answer to the USA's craving for all things exotic.

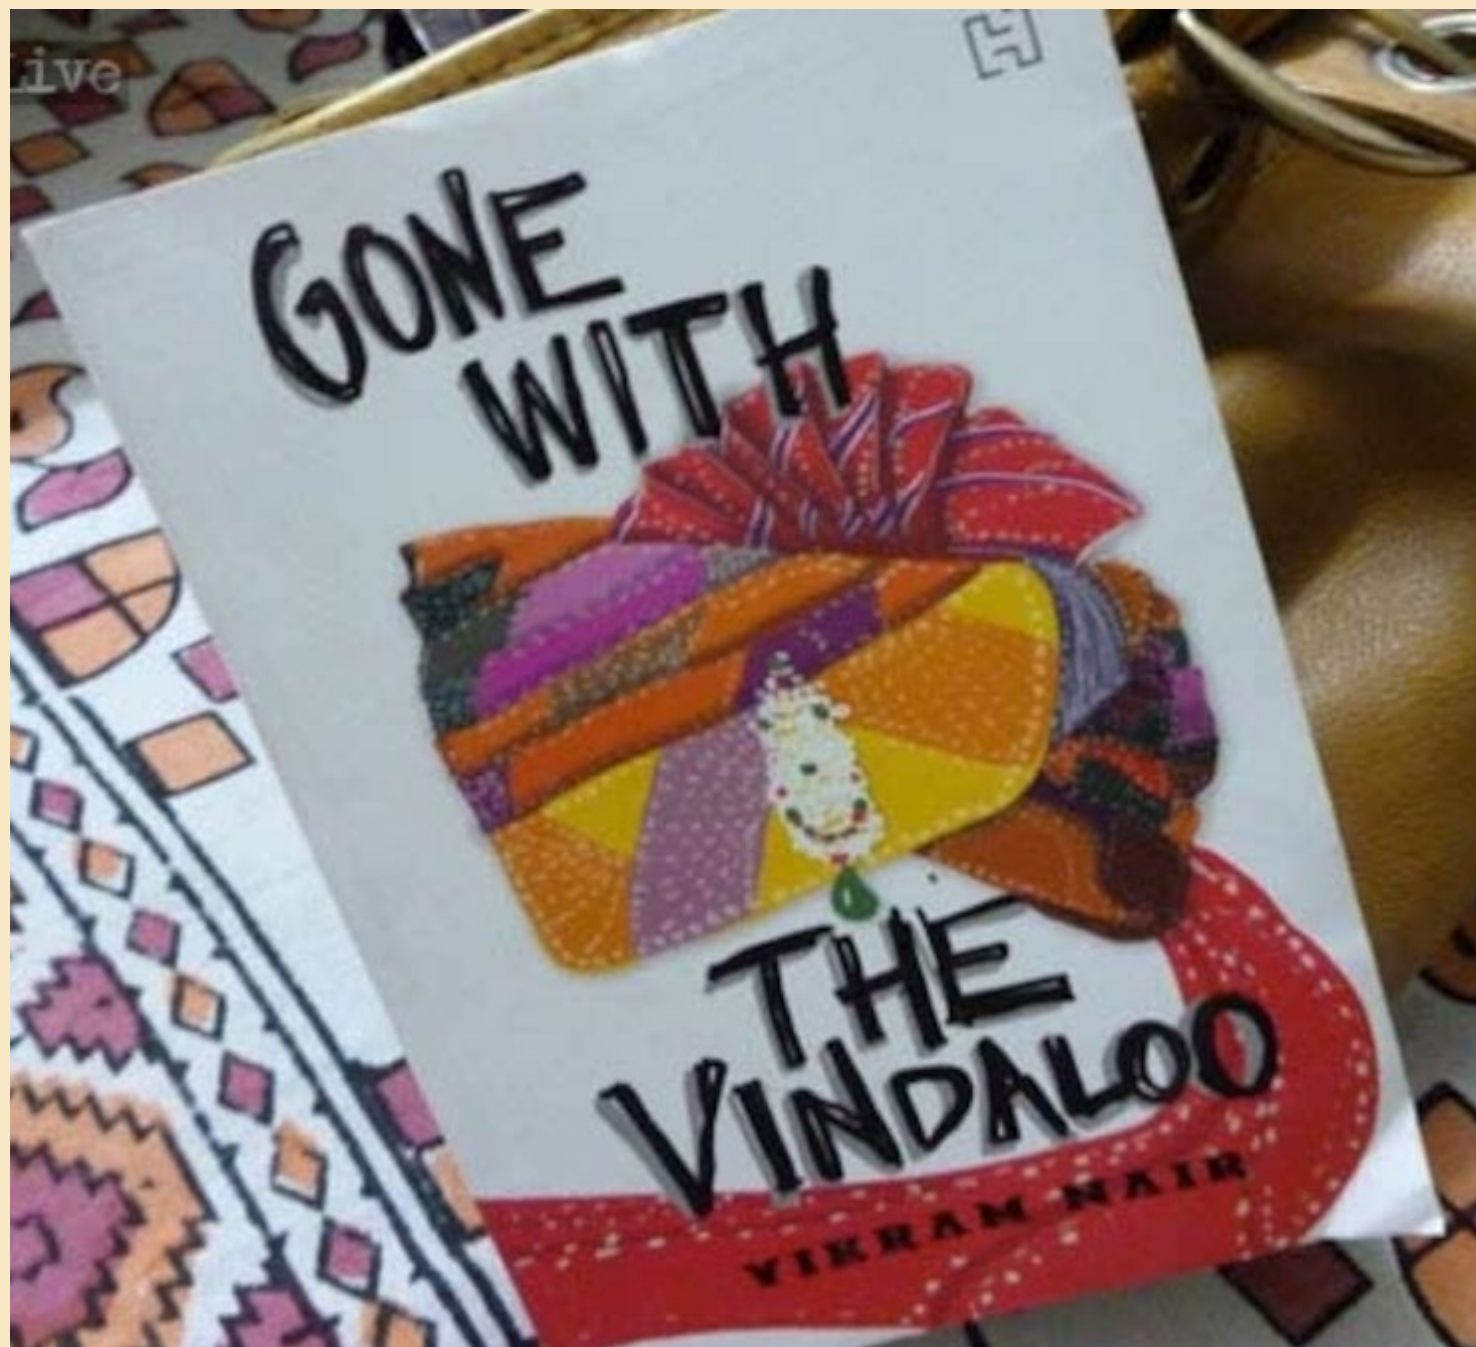

“her palate luxuriated in the taste of wine and sting of chilies and cinnamon, the tartness of vinegar so deliciously rounded with the sweetness of gur, the tang of mustard with the sweetness of onions...” is how Nair describes the goan dish. The novel derived its name by replacing a word with the goan dish in the title of a 1936 literary work that received an Academy award-winning movie adaptation in 1939.

Id the novel.

#13

Gone with the Vindaloo

X (two world title) is a 2017 Konkani film about an arrogant Saxophone player played by Jackie Shroff in his Konkani debut.

The title is a play on the name of a famous beverage prepared in the coastal regions using a plant variety named garcinia indica, which has several culinary and medicinal uses.

The pun in the title is used for many restaurant names that serve cuisine from this region, promising their customers a sense of two-fold nourishment – at a culinary level and at an emotional level as well.

What is X?

#14

Soul Curry

dries #2

anti-clockwise

quiz
#1

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

This novel was written by Marja Mills, who lives next door to _ _ _ _ _ in Monroeville, Alabama. Previously, Mills worked as a reporter for the Chicago Tribune. _ _ had practically little documented about her life, despite penning one of the most acclaimed books of the 20th century. But once writer and neighbour Marja Mills struck up a discussion with her, things took off and the two developed a lovely bond. The book is a smart, amusing, and tender account of the author's Deep South family and upbringing, as well as how celebrity changed their lives. What is the title of the 2016-deceased author's memoir by Mill?

The book's title incorporates a word from the Pulitzer Prize-winning novel by and places it in the appropriate context.

#15

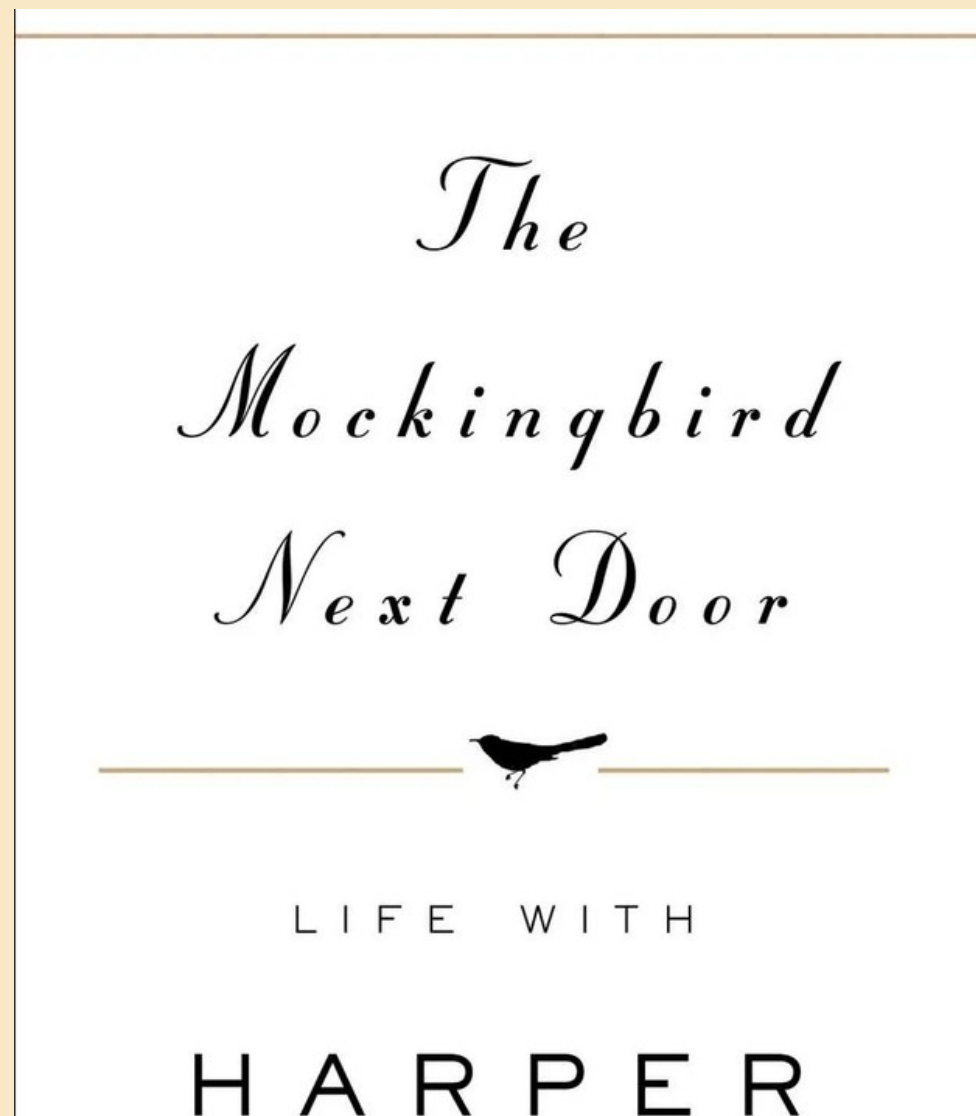

SAFETY SLIDE

The Mockingbird Next Door: Life with Harper Lee

by Marja Mills

Thirty-six views of Mount Fuji is a series of landscape prints made by the Japanese Ukiyo-e artist Hokusai. The most famous is the iconic painting "The Great Wave off Kanagawa". As the name indicates, all these images share one element in common, i.e., Mount Fuji.

A certain contemporary artist made a certain album cover in 2018 based on this series of prints, with the mountain standing out very prominently in the album art. In early sketches, the painter wanted the music artists to be represented by an anthropomorphized bear and fox, however, in the final versions, the portrayal is more akin to a pair of Yokai, one of them riding a serpentine creature. We also remember the artist for another music-related artwork about a decade before that.

Id the artist and the 2018 album artwork

#16

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

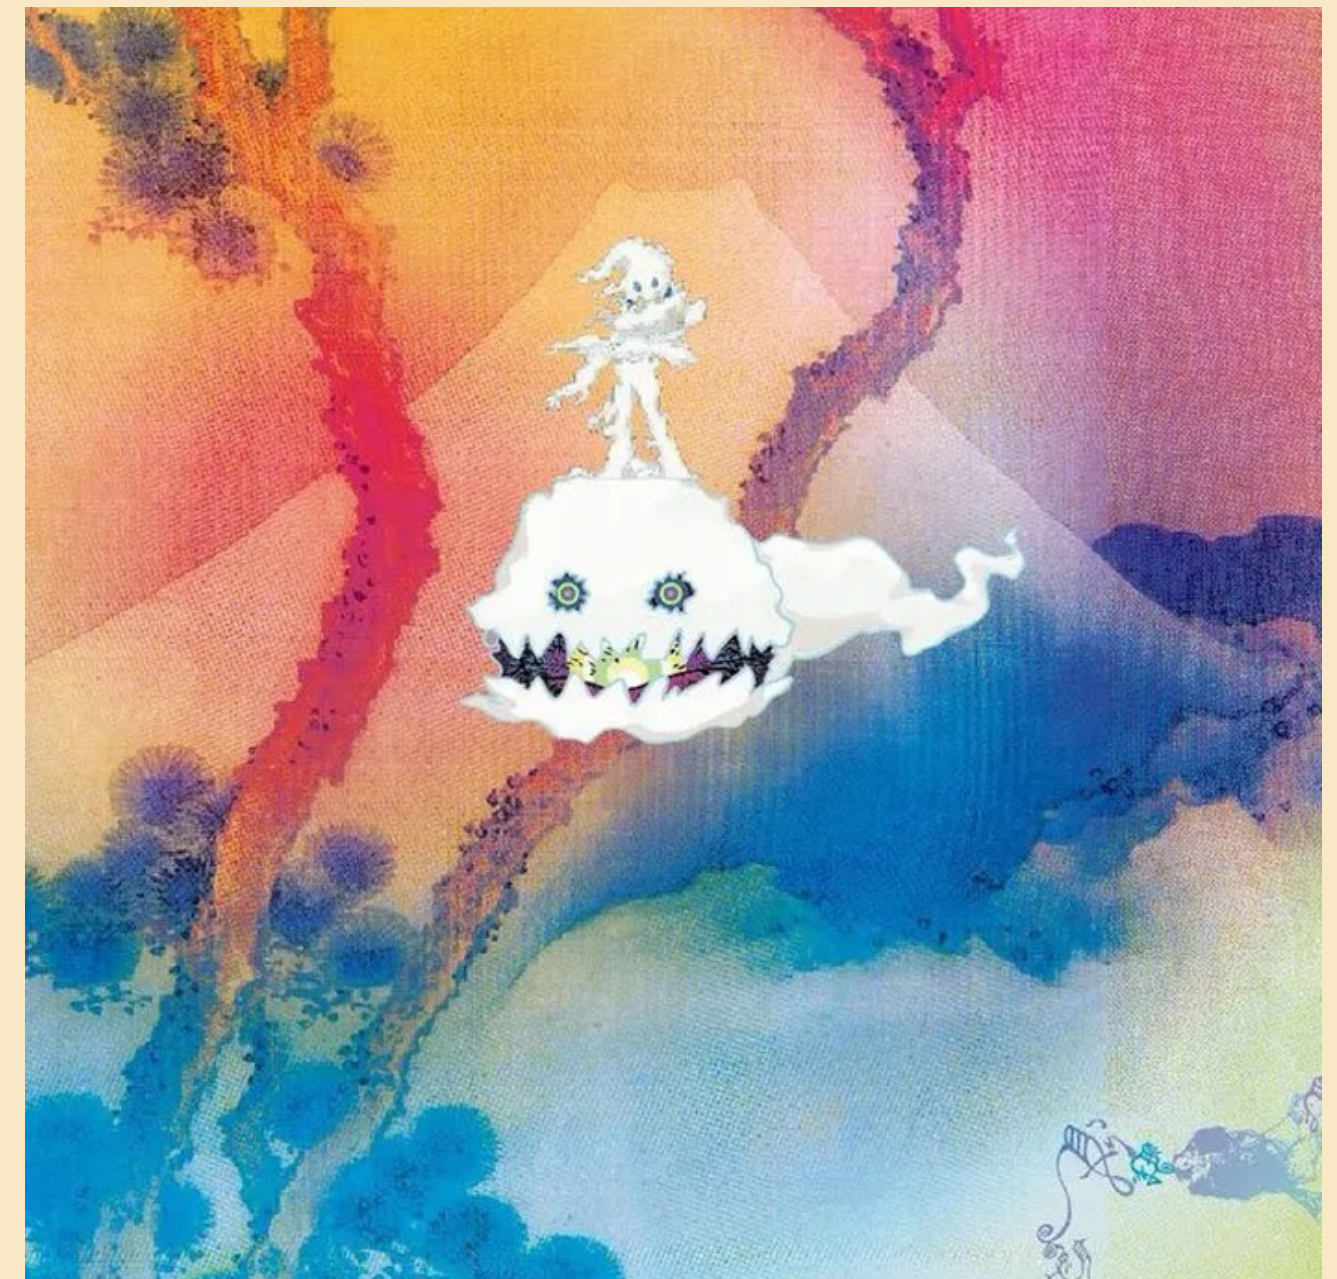

SAFETY SLIDE

Takashi Murakami; Kids See Ghost Album

I was inspired by old vintage lithograph art, which is a very intricate style. I used Rotring isograph pens to create the illustrations for the posters. I then scanned the handmade artwork, used Photoshop to layer on the images of the actors and then repainted the piece digitally. We also created a graffiti to visually depict the unique narrative in the trailer.

This is an artist called Gopi Prasannaa talking about a work he did for a project which came out in 2019. Gopi had worked in different fields – from gaming and programming to branding and advertising. His career in this field started by chance when a friend of his invited him to work for this project called Aaranya Kaandam.

What great wavy work did Gopi did in 2019?

#17

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

SAFETY SLIDE

Super Deluxe

Now that he was a multi-million dollar selling artist, _ _ _ _ _ could add it to his résumé. He recently collaborated with a gallery in London to issue 780 copies of his work, which sold out "nearly instantly" and brought him a remarkable $3.6 million.

Four pictures of Keith Richards, Bob Dylan, Elizabeth Taylor, and Al Pacino are included in the Friends & Heroes collection.

Basquiat is also a great favourite of _ _ _ _ , who calls his paintings "musical" since they "could be really loud, incredibly subtle, and incredibly humorous."

In the middle of a major public spectacle a few months ago, the actor sold two original Basquiat paintings for a staggering $11.5 million.

Give me the painter?

#18

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

SAFETY SLIDE

Johnny Depp

This city's Northern suburb boasts of being the powerhouse in a certain sport, though the interest in the sport has died down over the past decade or so. This city suburb has produced two multi-time world champions and several champions at the national level.

Interestingly this city also prides itself on a team that is among the bests in the premier tournament of an entirely different sport. Both these sports require incredible hand-eye coordination, but one of them is played outdoor and the other one is played indoors.

Which city and what sport, that many of us might have played for fun?

#19

SAFETY SLIDE

Chennai and Carrom

The homage to Amitabh Bachchan shown here was created by artist Santosh Kumar Das as a part of an exhibition that sought to examine the last 75 years of Indian independence through the prism of Bachchan's professional life.

When Gods Play _ _ _ _ _ attempts to demonstrate how Bachchan came to be seen as God's chosen representative for Bollywood.

FITB

#20

SAFETY SLIDE

Spot boys

A Street Car Named Desire, Met a Hot Rod and decided to Retire.

The teenagers couldn't be dumber in I Know What You Did Last Summer

In 2016, a Twitter user started a thread titled #RhymeAFilmTitle and it soon caught on with other users, producing some great specimens like the ones shown above.

Another example was: X booked a _ _ _ _ _ with his girl on Y. X is an Academy-award winning movie consistently lauded by critics. However, the novel (same name) which it was based on, received far more acclaim, and is considered as one of the greatest literary works of the 20th century. The novel's earliest drafts were rejected by editors for being critical of their nation's government, and it was ultimately published by being smuggled to Italy.

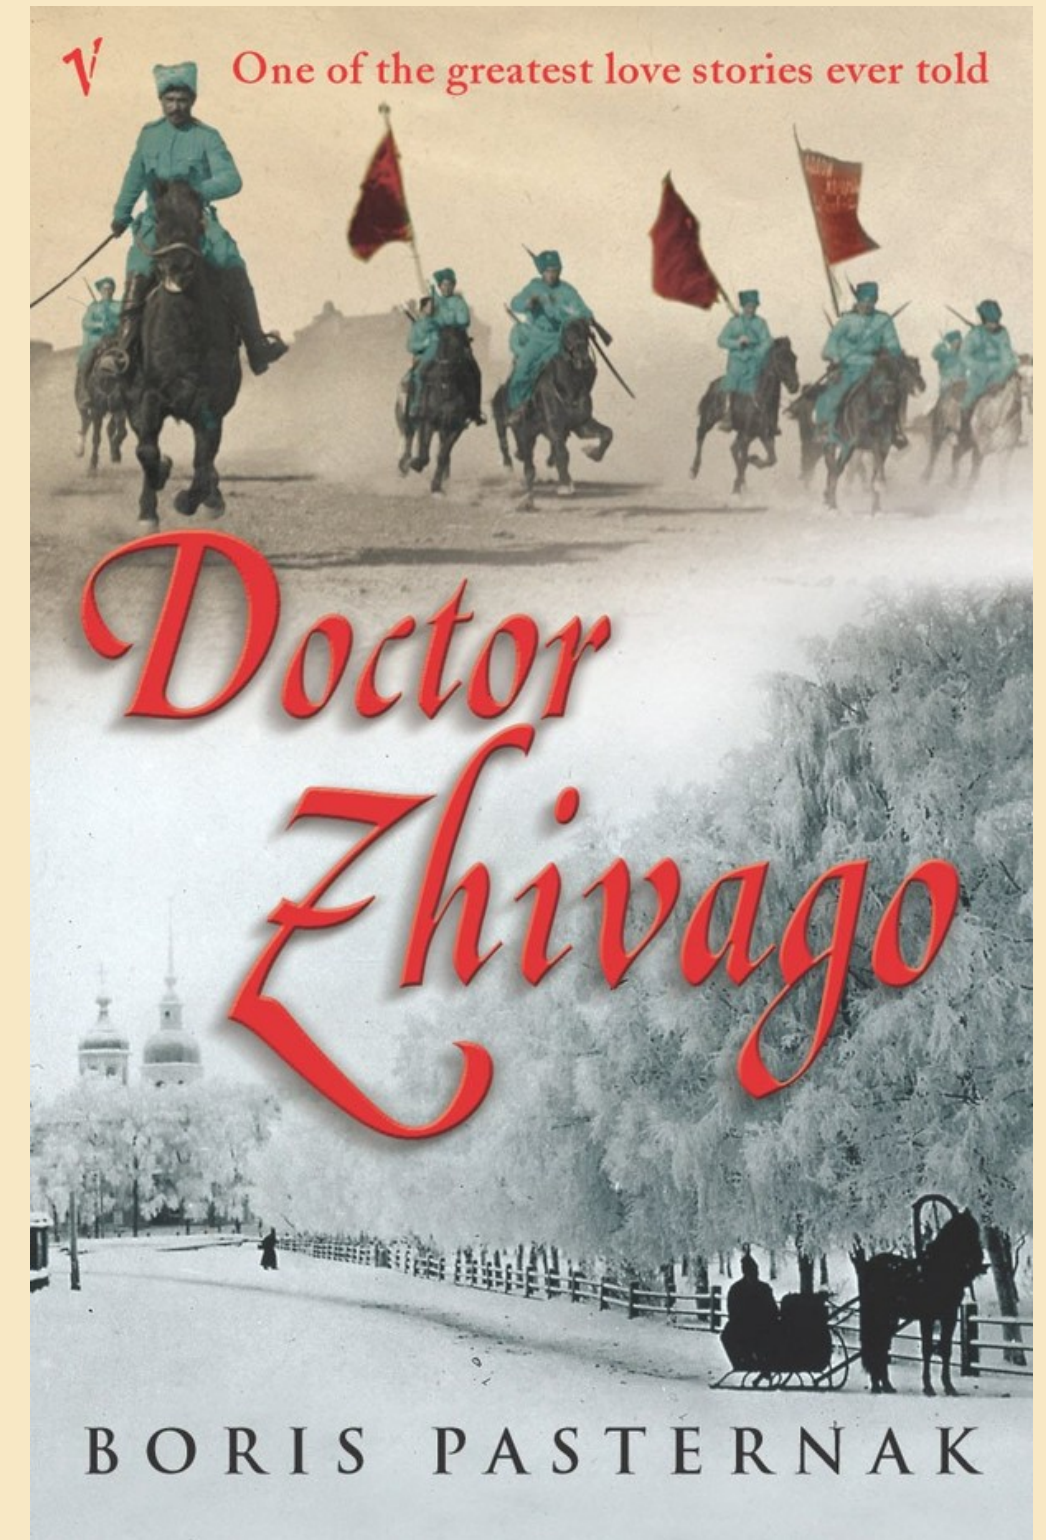

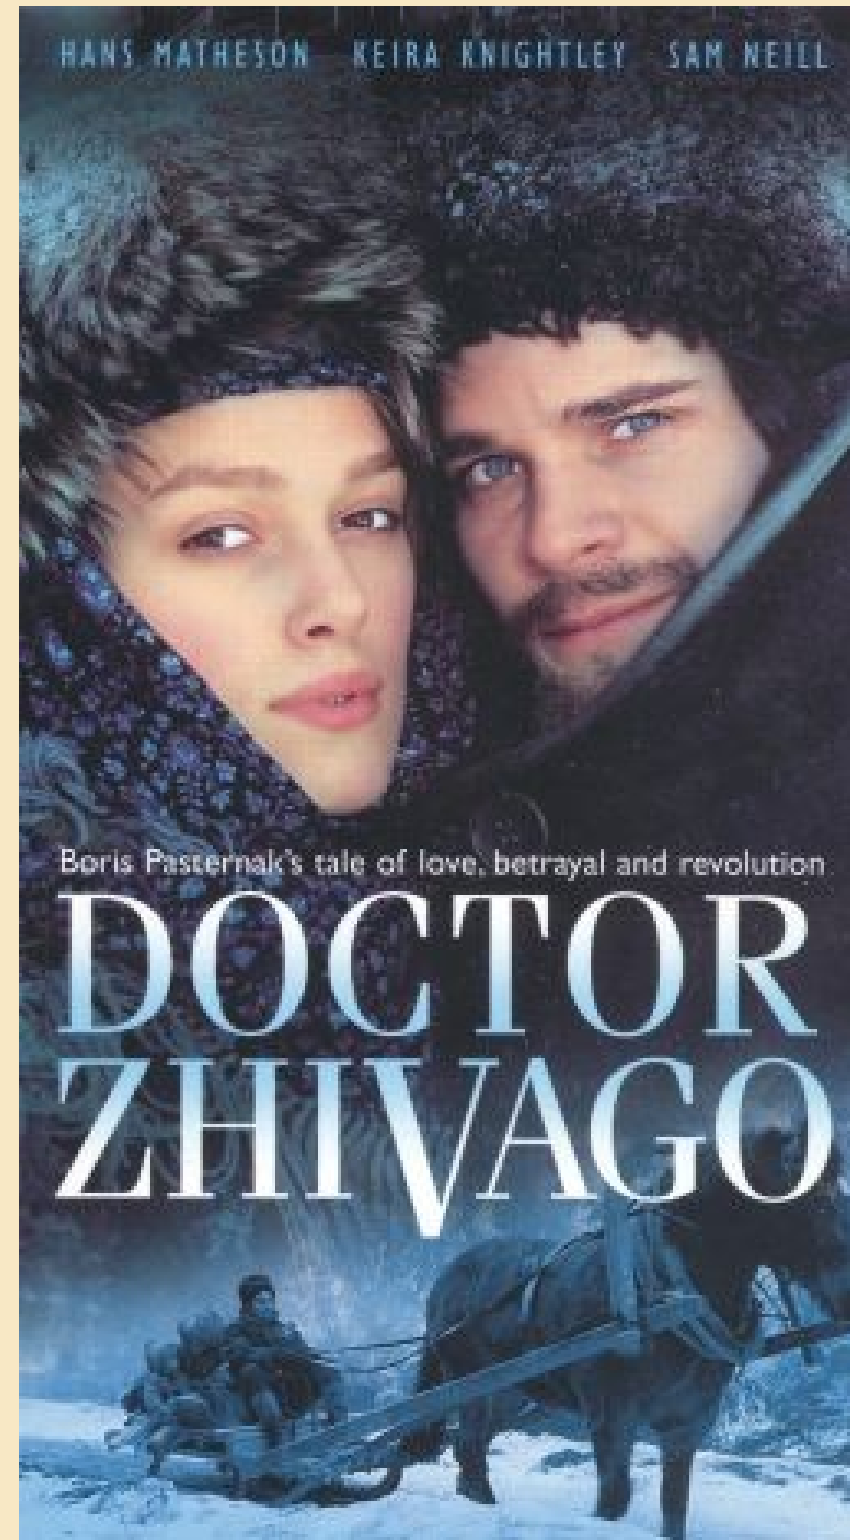

ID X and Y.

SAFETY SLIDE

Doctor Zhivago, Trivago

Gymnastics is one such sport where there seems to exist an intolerance towards the difference between men and women. While men contend on parallel bars, high bar and pommel horse, women compete on irregular bars and balance beam.

They also differ in their floor routines. While women are more focused on presentation and artistry, men focus on strength and power. However, there is another point of conflict included within the floor exercise, one which can be very easily perceived by people watching at home.

What feature are we talking about?

#22

SAFETY SLIDE

Music during performances

This is an achievement many 'old' people in a certain sport aim for. While 'younger' sportspeople can aspire to achieve it, it is nearly impossible for them to do so. The youngest player to have actually achieved this feat was 59 years old; for comparison, the oldest to do so was 103!

The feat is so highly regarded that there is actually a book on how to get better and achieve the feat! People are known to pursue this achievement very vigorously, though very few actually succeed. A certain 'Smith' holds the record for this– apparently having achieved it 3000+ times over his career.

What are these sportspeople trying to do?

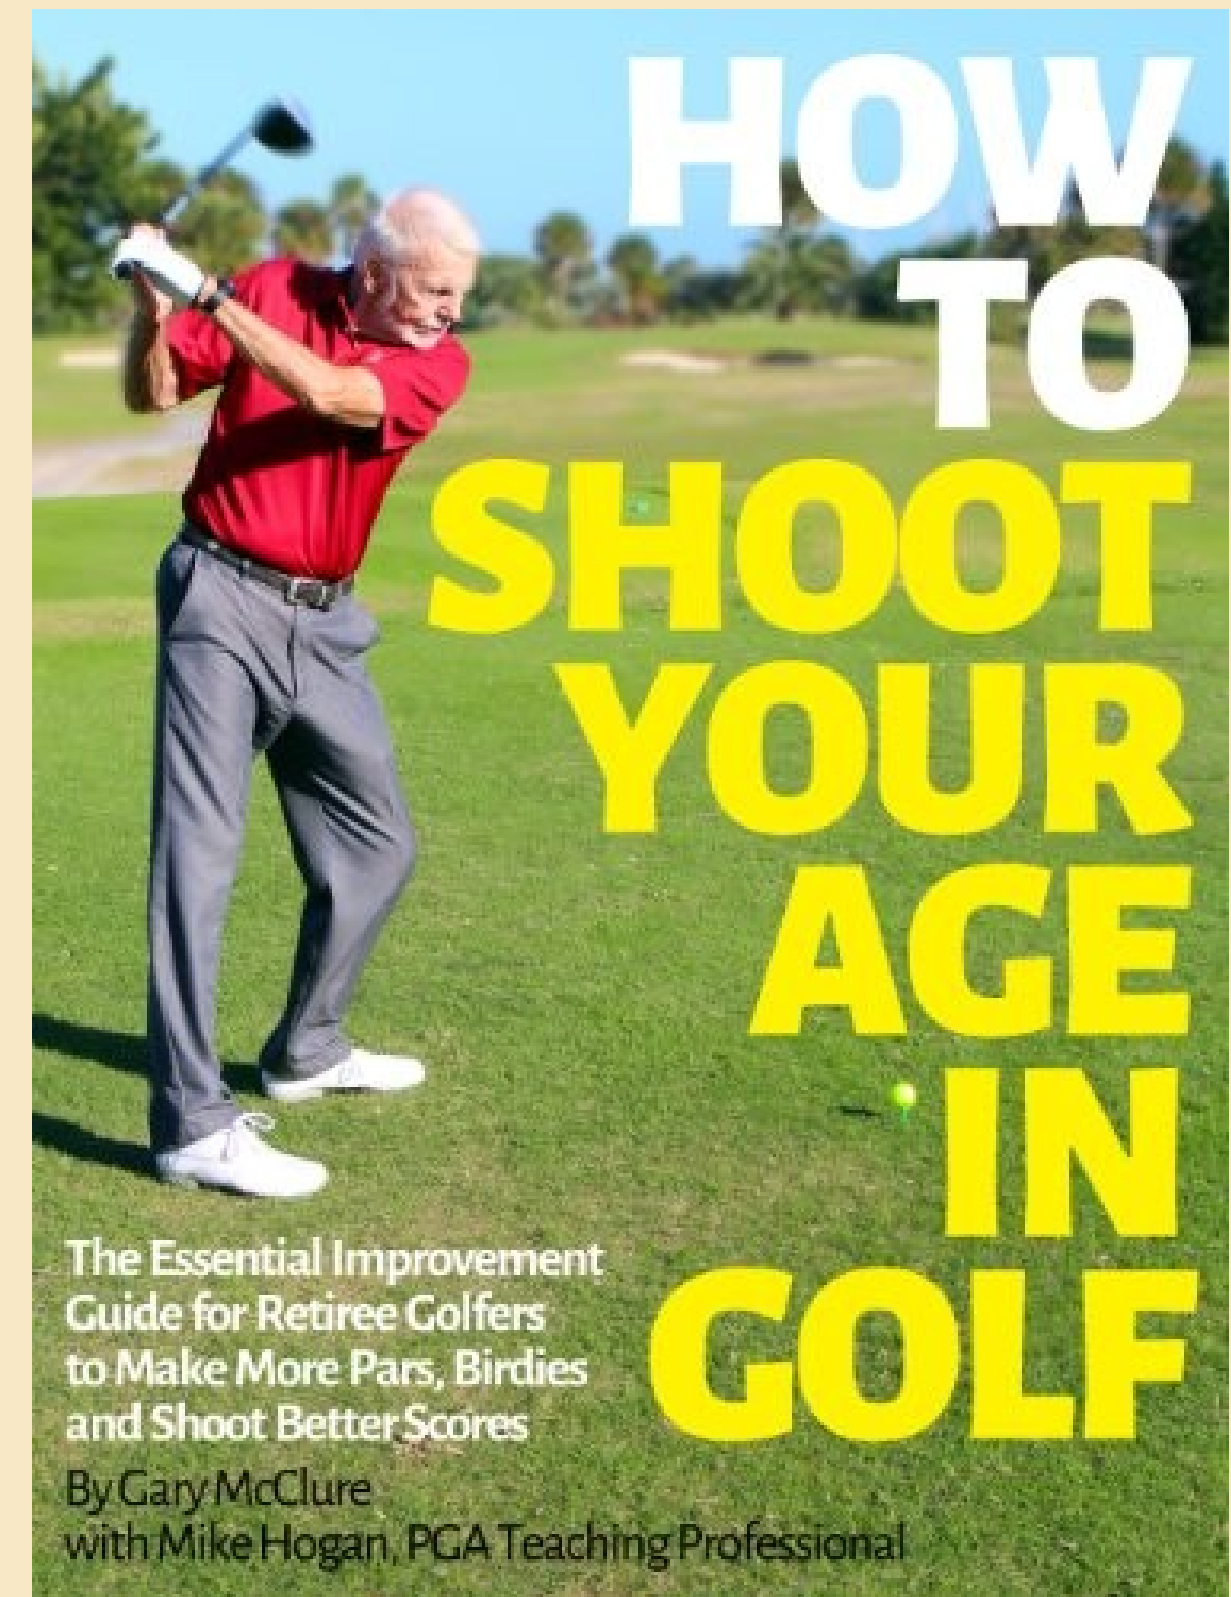

#23

SAFETY SLIDE

Shooting your age in Golf

written #2

Pearl of the Orient

THEME : GOA

+10
for
each

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Keshav Dhuri, a resident of Panjim, started a small eatery in the city in the early 1900s.

The eatery, named after Dhuri's nickname has since grown and today has outlets in the cities of Margao and Vasco besides Panjim.

The eatery has been in the news of late owing to a certain celebrity giving it a visit for some 'great Goan breakfast'.

What eatery and who is the celebrity in question?

#24

It is said that in the 1960s, Goa saw a rise in travelling balladeers, who would go from village to village performing songs in Marathi.

These songs would often narrate stories of how after more than four centuries the Goddess Shanta Durga was going to meet Goddess Bhavani– the family deity of Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj.

In reality, this was a ‘marketing campaign’ sending out a message to the people to make a certain choice.

Give funda.

#25

In the 1960s, when the jazz music scene in the country was at its most vibrant, the Goan duo shown in the image were at the forefront in Bombay.

The gentleman is regarded as the best saxophonist the country has produced and the lady also served as the 'starting point' for the female protagonist for a 2015 Bollywood movie.

Name either of the two and the movie.

#26

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

These are the only two Goans to be honored with X, the second highest sporting award in sports, for their achievements. Which Goan might join these two gentlemen after a recommendation was made earlier this week by a retired Supreme Court justice?

#27

The Greek God of satire and mockery serves as the inspiration behind the name of a popular character from Goan folklore. The appearance of this character signifies the beginning of a week-long Goan celebration of eating, drinking, and being merry.

He is considered the king of Carnivals in numerous Latin American festivities, mainly in Brazil and Colombia. His appearance signifies the beginning of the Carnival festivities. Each carnival has its own King Momo, who is often given the key to the city.

Who and what festival?

#27

Answers

+10
for
each

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Keshav Dhuri, a resident of Panjim, started a small eatery in the city in the early 1900s.

The eatery, named after Dhuri's nickname has since grown and today has outlets in the cities of Margao and Vasco besides Panjim.

The eatery has been in the news of late owing to a certain celebrity giving it a visit for some 'great Goan breakfast'.

What eatery and who is the celebrity in question?

#24

Cafe Tato, Sachin Tendulkar

It is said that in the 1960s, Goa saw a rise in travelling balladeers, who would go from village to village performing songs in Marathi.

These songs would often narrate stories of how after more than four centuries the Goddess Shanta Durga was going to meet Goddess Bhavani– the family deity of Chattrapati Shivaji Maharaj.

In reality, this was a ‘marketing campaign’ sending out a message to the people to make a certain choice.

Give funda.

#25

The merger of Goa with Maharashtra.

The pro-merger camp was responsible for this leading up to the opinion poll in 1967.

In the 1960s, when the jazz music scene in the country was at its most vibrant, the Goan duo shown in the image were at the forefront in Bombay.

The gentleman is regarded as the best saxophonist the country has produced and the lady also served as the 'starting point' for the female protagonist for a 2015 Bollywood movie.

Name either of the two and the movie.

#26

Chris Perry and Lorna; Bombay Velvet

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

These are the only two Goans to be honored with X, the second highest sporting award in sports, for their achievements. Which Goan has joined these two gentlemen after a recommendation was made earlier this month by a retired Supreme Court justice?

#27

Only Goan Arjuna awardees; Bhakti Kulkarni.

The Greek God of satire and mockery serves as the inspiration behind the name of a popular character from Goan folklore. The appearance of this character signifies the beginning of a week-long Goan celebration of eating, drinking, and being merry.

He is considered the king of Carnivals in numerous Latin American festivities, mainly in Brazil and Colombia. His appearance signifies the beginning of the Carnival festivities. Each carnival has its own King Momo, who is often given the key to the city.

Who and what festival?

#28

King Momo and the Goa Carnival

Connect Round

+10
for
each

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Sugar plum Ballerinas is an award winning best seller book series having 6 books. Started in 2008, this book series is written by X at the Nutcracker school of ballet in Harlem. X, in addition to being an author is an American actor, comedian and television personality. In addition to this book series, X has written many more books, one even named after herself.

X has been nominated for an academy award twice and have won once for the movie Ghost. She was the 2nd black woman ever to win an oscar in acting categories and 1st African American to have received Academy Award nominations for both Best Actress and Best Supporting Actress in the year 1991, which is much more fascinating than you might think as the 1st women won it more than 50 years before her.

Id X

#29

Real Hero is a 2010 song by the band College and Electric Youth. The song is known to be featured in the 2011 film Drive.

The inspiration behind the song however was an event that had occurred a year prior to the release of the song. The main person of interest involved with the event became the main source of inspiration.

Name the person
(Lyrics on the next slide)

#30

A on a cold, cold morn'
155 people on board
All safe and all rescued
From the slowly sinking ship

Water warmer than his head so cool
In that tight bind knew what to do
And you have proved to be

A real human being and a real hero

While so many of wrestlers' signature weapons are blunt objects, it's fitting that X would have a quirkier weapon of his own that evolved over his time in WWE.

The sock puppet was introduced in vignettes during which X tried to cheer up Mr. McMahon in the hospital but soon became a signature part of his act.

Mr. Socko stands in stark contrast to X's next most famous weapon. _ _ _ _ _ , a baseball bat wrapped in barbed wire--though he did bridge the gap between them in one occasion, wrapping Mr. Socko in barbed wire, including for his match with Edge at WrestleMania 22.

Id X and FITB (image on next slide)

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

The designer's mother, a seamstress, had a number of aristocratic clients, whose splendid art collections inspired young X with a passion that produced the billowing shapes, voluminous architecture, minimalist lines and bold colours that came to define X's craft.

In 2019 an exhibition with some paintings that inspired the designer was held in Madrid.

Id X

#32

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

When the teen drama Never Have I Ever returned with season two last year, many noticed that the familiar voiceover changed for episode 3 with that of a famous activist/ model.

The episode looks at the story of school heartthrob Paxton. She starts the episode by introducing Paxton, and then herself. She says that similarly to Paxton, she too was once a 16-year-old from California. She says she relates to him as they are both constantly underestimated because people only see them as sex symbols, when they have so much more going on inside.

Who?

#33

Connect Round

+10
for
each

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Sugar plum Ballerinas is an award winning best seller book series having 6 books. Started in 2008, this book series is written by X at the Nutcracker school of ballet in Harlem. X, in addition to being an author is an American actor, comedian and television personality. In addition to this book series, X has written many more books, one even named after herself.

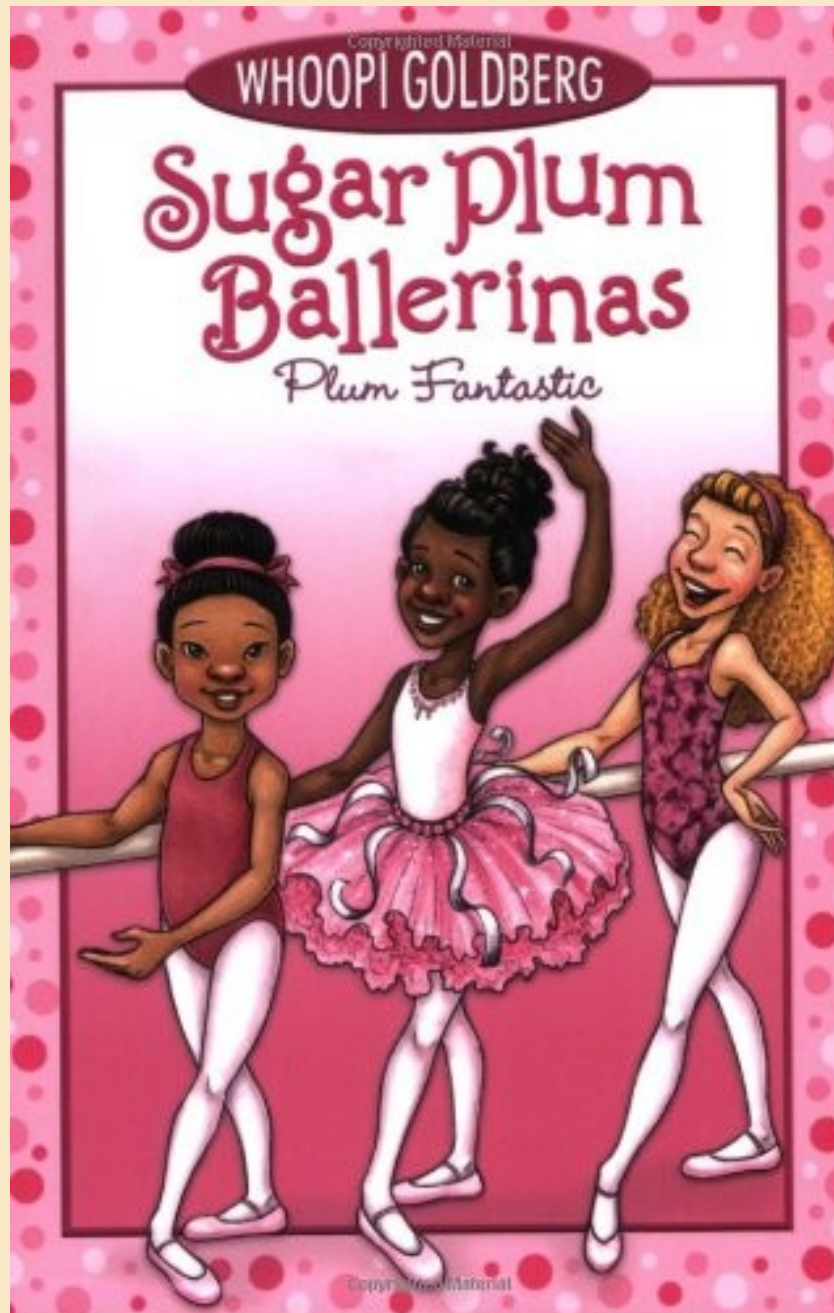

X has been nominated for an academy award twice and have won once for the movie Ghost. She was the 2nd black woman ever to win an oscar in acting categories and 1st African American to have received Academy Award nominations for both Best Actress and Best Supporting Actress in the year 1991, which is much more fascinating than you might think as the 1st women won it more than 50 years before her.

Id X

#29

Whoopi Goldberg

Real Hero is a 2010 song by the band College and Electric Youth. The song is known to be featured in the 2011 film Drive.

The inspiration behind the song however was an event that had occurred a year prior to the release of the song. The main person of interest involved with the event became the main source of inspiration.

Name the person
(Lyrics on the next slide)

#30

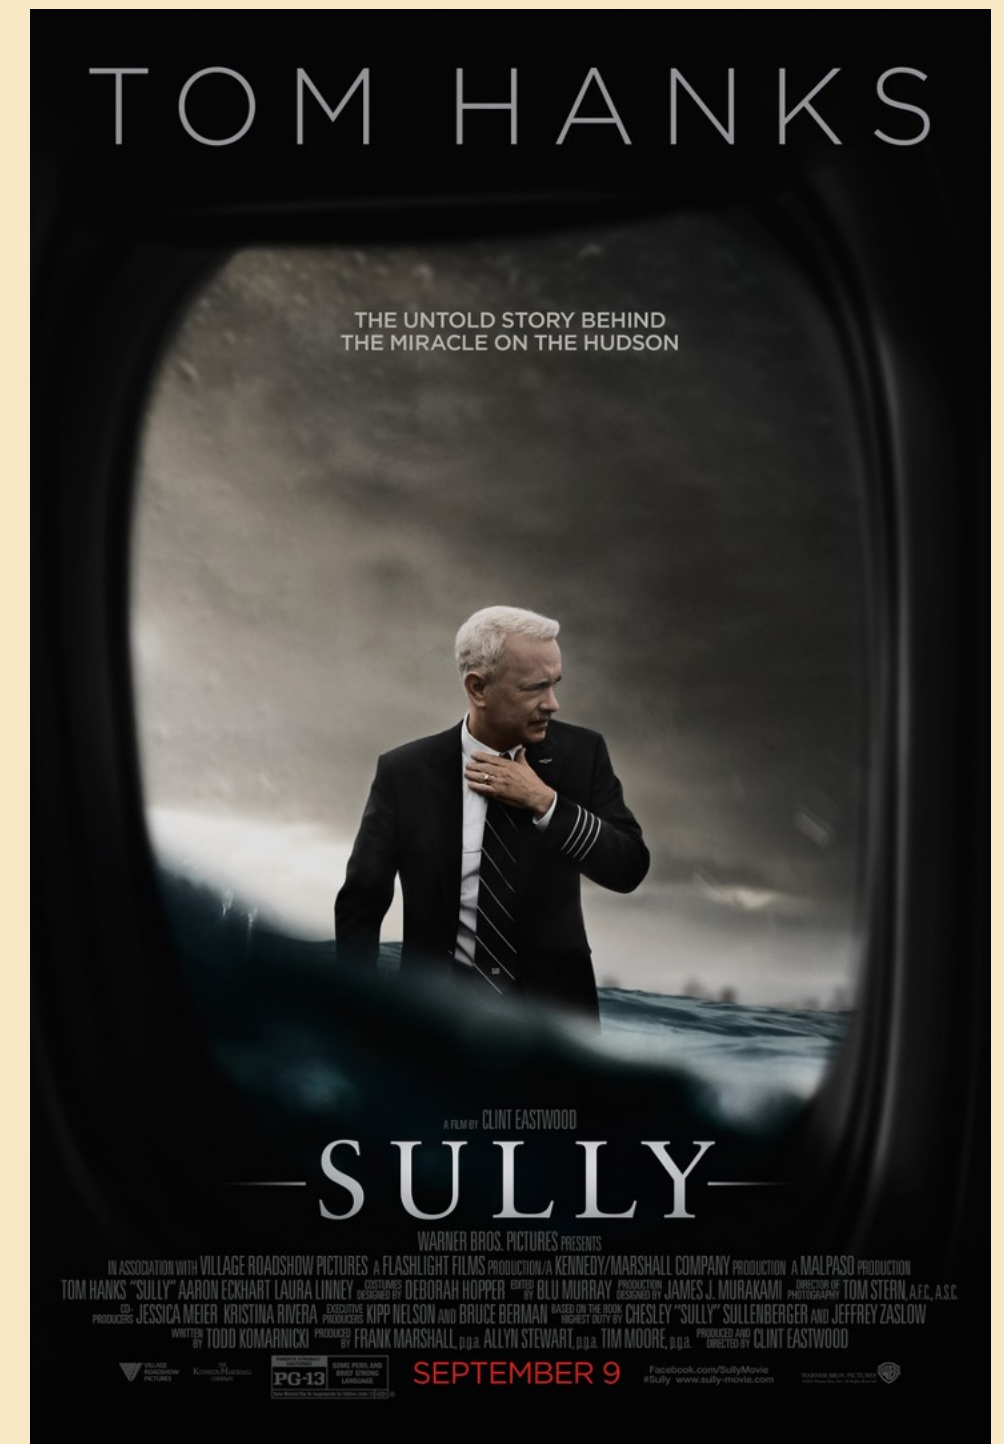

A [REDACTED] on a cold, cold morn'
155 people on board
All safe and all rescued
From the slowly sinking ship

Water warmer than his head so cool
In that tight bind knew what to do
And you have proved to be

A real human being and a real hero

Captain Sully

While so many of wrestlers' signature weapons are blunt objects, it's fitting that X would have a quirkier weapon of his own that evolved over his time in WWE.

The sock puppet was introduced in vignettes during which X tried to cheer up Mr. McMahon in the hospital but soon became a signature part of his act.

Mr. Socko stands in stark contrast to X's next most famous weapon. _ _ _ _ _ , a baseball bat wrapped in barbed wire--though he did bridge the gap between them in one occasion, wrapping Mr. Socko in barbed wire, including for his match with Edge at WrestleMania 22.

Id X and FITB (image on next slide)

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Mick Foley, Barbie

The designer's mother, a seamstress, had a number of aristocratic clients, whose splendid art collections inspired young X with a passion that produced the billowing shapes, voluminous architecture, minimalist lines and bold colours that came to define X's craft.

In 2019 an exhibition with some paintings that inspired the designer was held in Madrid (images on next slide)

Id X

#32

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

Cristóbal Balenciaga

When the teen drama Never Have I Ever returned with season two last year, many noticed that the familiar voiceover changed for episode 3 with that of a famous activist/ model.

The episode looks at the story of school heartthrob Paxton. She starts the episode by introducing Paxton, and then herself. She says that similarly to Paxton, she too was once a 16-year-old from California. She says she relates to him as they are both constantly underestimated because people only see them as sex symbols, when they have so much more going on inside.

Who?

#33

Gigi Hadid

Final Connect being...

MELAS Quiz – Factaco x Waves'22, BITS Goa

People who have recently left twitter due to Elon Musk's takeover

THANK YOU!

For brickbats and bouquets, or to enjoy more questions and interesting facts, head over to our Instagram @factaco.in

If you would like us to organise a quiz for your college society as well, please get in touch with us at -

hello@factacoindia.com